Misses Matibel and Marjorie Godwin spent this morning in Fayetteville. Miss Lucile Cannady, of Salomburg, is spending the week here with relatives. Mrs. Narcissa Barnes, who has been ill for the past several weeks, is improving. J. W. Callahan, of Raleigh, spent Saturday and Sunday in the city with friends. F. S. Cooper, President of the Bank of Hamlet, spent Sunday here with his family. K. L. Howard and son, Kenneth, were business visitors in Raleigh Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Woodall and son, of Smithfield, visited relatives here Sunday. Miss Kata Snow, of Raleigh, spent the week-end here the guest of Mrs. E. W. Myers. Robert Jordan, Robert Pearsall and Joseph J. Cook, were visitors in Angier yesterday. Mrs. R. J. McIntyre, of Camden, S. C., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Baucum. Miss Willie Motley, of Atlanta, Ga., is here this week the guest of Mrs. H. C. Baucum. Miss Mabel Johnson and Miss Ruby Hobbs, of Benson, were visitors in Dunn Wednesday. Mrs. Clyde Sneed, of Selma, spent Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Sneed. Dick Taylor, George Grantham, Jr., and Paul Jones, spent the week-end with friends in Oxford. Mrs. L. F. Hicks is visiting Dr. Hicks' sister, Mrs. Marshall McD. Williams, at Faison this week. Misses Myrtle and Anny Jones and M. H. Davis, of Fayetteville, spent Tuesday here with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Farthing, of Durham, are here this week visiting their son, James Farthing. Harner Holliday, of Raleigh, spent Wednesday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. McD. Holliday. Marion Reams, son of Capt. and Mrs. I. M. Reams, has returned from a visit to relatives at Carpenter. Mrs. C. C. Butler left this week for Georgetown, S. C., where she will visit her sister for several days. W. T. McKay, of Atlanta, Ga., is here this week visiting his son-in-law, Mr. Fleming, at Young's Hotel. Perry Jernigan and Braxton Haggitt spent Sunday and Monday in Greensboro with friends and on business. Mr. J. W. Whittenton and Mrs. Wade H. Royal, of Benson, were in Dunn yesterday the guests of relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Williams, of Fayetteville, spent Sunday here with Mrs. Williams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Sutton. A number of the baseball fans attended the game between Camp Bragg and the University, at Camp Bragg yesterday afternoon. Revival services will begin at the Methodist church in Duke next Sunday-day morning. Rev. Leon M. Hall, of Kinston, will assist Pastor Brown in the services. Mrs. L. E. Covington, editor of Everyman's Magazine, is in Raleigh this week working in the interest of her magazine. The April issue will feature Raleigh. A number of the streets of Dunn are being worked by the Dunn Road District force. They are putting the streets in fine shape and improving considerably the appearance of the thoroughfares. The ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church will have a white sale in the Highsmith Building Thursday, April 10th. They will be open all day Thursday and at night. The public is invited to attend. Mrs. J. L. Hatcher and Mrs. I. M. Reams returned Saturday night from Edenton, where they attended the Women's Missionary Union held there last week. They went as delegates from the First Baptist church of Dunn. A card from William Pearsall to his father, Jas. Pearsall, dated March 14th, states that he is spending a vacation in Paris. He does not know yet when he will return to the States. He is enjoying splendid health and is satisfied. Giffard Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wilson, spent Wednesday night here with his parents. He had been to Camp Bragg with the University ball team, where he pitched a winning game. A number of colored soldiers have been mustered out of the service and have returned to their homes in Dunn. They continue to arrive and are being received with a hearty welcome by those of their race. Peter A. Parker returned to Dunn yesterday after serving in the army for about two years. He has not seen service in France but has done his bit on this side. He has received his discharge and will probably locate in Dunn again. The recital given last Friday night by the Masonic orchestra, which was assisted by some of Dunn's best talent, was a success. A large crowd was present and the program was thoroughly enjoyed. The proceeds, amounting to more than fifty dollars net, went to the Presbyterian Manse Fund. Very little interest, apparently, is being manifested in the approaching municipal election. The primary will be held within the next few days, and no candidate yet, has made an announcement. In most of the other towns of the State there is right much rivalry for the honors, but the offices in Dunn seem to go begging. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Harris, and son, Talton, of Wendell, spent yesterday and today in the city with friends. Several years ago this excellent family lived in Dunn and are remembered here by a number of citizens. Mr. Harris lost one of his sons in the war, Lieut. Cedric Harris. He was killed in action just twenty minutes before the armistice was signed. Mr. Harris has made a success in the tobacco business since leaving Dunn.

Whitehead spent Tuesday in Fayetteville shopping. Miss Noel Pridden, of the graded school faculty, spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Elm City. Miss Elisabeth Darden returned the latter part of the week from Haverhill, Pa., where she spent several weeks with friends. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hood returned last Friday from a trip to Washington, Baltimore and New York. They were away about ten days. George Long and Dr. Arnold, of Lillington, were visitors in Dunn Tuesday. Dr. Arnold was recently discharged from the service and returned to Lillington to resume his practice. After spending a few days here with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. Blaylock, Miss Pauline Blaylock returned to Greensboro, to resume her studies at the Greensboro College for Women. Allen H. A. Leo returned Wednesday to his home near Dunn, having received his discharge this week. He has been in the service since the fall of 1917, and has been in France for the past several months. O. A. Register has opened a grocery store on East Broad street. He occupies the building formerly occupied by R. W. Kinlaw. He will carry a stock of heavy and fancy groceries and buy and sell country produce. Mrs. Long, of Lillington, is this week visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Goodwin. Mrs. Long recently celebrated her 52nd birthday, but seems to be no hand-icapped. She has the strength to go wherever she pleases, and, apparently, to please younger every day. S. Douglas Geiger, representative of the Nitra Germ Sales Company, Savannah, Ga., is in town this week in the interest of his company. Geiger is placing right next to Nitra Germ with the farmers of this section and those who have used it are highly pleased with the results obtained. J. Milton Tart has opened a new furnishing store on West Broad street in the Purdie-Hooks building. He is known as the Quality Store. Tart will carry a complete line of wearing apparel for men, women and children. For the past year he has been salesman in the store of J. J. Jones, where he got valuable experience which will serve him well in his new business. Her many friends in Dunn will sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Lina Peacock, who died Saturday morning at the home of her brother, J. H. Peacock, in Smithfield. The body was brought to Smithfield Monday and interred Monday afternoon in the cemetery there. She spent most of her time in Dunn the past year, by the home of Mr. J. H. Peacock, where she cared for Mrs. Peacock. An account of her death appears elsewhere in The Dispatch. GODWIN ITEMS Miss Eloise Connolly spent the week-end in Dunn with Mrs. Noel Pridden. Mrs. J. W. McLean was a Fayetteville visitor Friday. Misses Mattie Martin, Johnnie Lelean and Eula Williams spent Saturday in Dunn shopping. Mrs. H. Mr. and Mrs. Eloise Connolly were Fayetteville visitors Wednesday. Miss Norma Pope has returned from Fair Bluff where she has been teaching in the graded school. Messrs. Emmet Edgerston, Jernigan and Hodges of Dunn, motored to Godwin Sunday p. m. Miss Lizzie Graham and Mrs. Hubert Osterkamp left Saturday morning for the mountains for a short stay. Mr. C. H. Starling left Tuesday for Four Oaks where he has accepted a position with the signal department. Mr. Edgar Baggett of Four Oaks spent Friday with his sister, Mrs. J. M. Jones. Mr. Henry Pope of Mount Olive, spent Tuesday in Godwin with his brother, Mr. W. M. Pope. REPORTER Death of Mrs. Lina A. Peacock. Mrs. Lina A. Peacock, widow of the late Toomer Peacock, was buried here in the Smithfield cemetery yesterday afternoon beside her husband, who died September 24, 1911. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. R. McQueen, of Dunn. The pallbearers were J. D. Spiera, N. B. Grantham, E. S. Edmundson, F. H. Brooks, H. L. Skinner and T. J. Lassiter. Among the out of town friends and relatives here to attend the funeral we note Mr. H. L. Chesnut and Mr. E. R. Chesnut, her brothers, who live near Magnolia, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Smith, Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Smith, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Peacock, Mr. W. O. Rackley, and Mr. A. T. Ryals, of Benson; Mrs. E. J. Barnes, of Wilson; Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Godwin, and Mrs. Sarah Woodall, of Kenly. Mrs. Lina A. Peacock died at the home of her brother, Mr. H. L. Chesnut, near Magnolia, Sunday morning, March 30, at three o'clock, from a stroke of paralysis of the brain three hours earlier. She had been with her brother for the past month. She was about 70 years of age and was a member of the Presbyterian church at Oak Plain, Sampson county. She deceased lived for a few years in Smithfield several years ago. She had many friends and relatives here and at Benson, who sorrow at her departure. —Smithfield Herald. MONUMENT TO BE UNVEILED On Sunday, April 20, 1919, at 10 o'clock in the morning, there will be a monument unveiled in memory of Rev. IS YOUR COUNTY LAGGING? Most cotton counties in the State have already pledged their farmers to a reduction in acreage. To them we extend our congratulations and thanks. Their citizens are the salt of the earth. They are determined that the South's prosperity shall continue and obligations to the other counties be fulfilled. Have You Failed To Do Your Part? Will your county be one of the very few slacker counties in the cotton belt? The answer is to be found in YOUR attitude. If YOU "let George do it" YOU and YOUR neighbors and YOUR county are going to be branded. Public opinion is going to hold up for PUBLIC SHAME the individual, the county or the State that does not follow the "Infallible Plan." Hold All Cotton and Reduce Acreage One-Third. N. C. Cotton Association P. S. We expect to publish at an early date the names of the slacking counties.
