

LOCAL

Dr. McLean, of Godwin, was here Tuesday on business. Mrs. James Farthing is spending several days in Durham. Miss Clyde Sneed, of Selma, visited her parents here this week.

Robert Jordan was in Raleigh Monday and Tuesday. A gallon in stock who, also, should be given into court. Mrs. R. O. Primrose spent Monday afternoon in Fayetteville.

of our city schools and later of Meredith College, being a member of the class of 1914. After finishing college she taught for a couple of years in the Dunn High school before turning to her own county as teacher.

AUCTION SALE of VALUABLE TOWN PROPERTY Friday, May 16, 1919 11 o'clock a. m. On the above date I will sell at Public Auction the town property of the late N. B. Hood, including the postoffice building and fixtures, and the residence corner of Wilson and Cumberland streets, now occupied by M. C. R. Vinson.

YOUNG MAN - Save Your Money! Look Towards the Future - Wisdom May Be As Shrewdly Shown in money saving as in money getting. Many An Opportunity Has Been Lost for lack of the funds a savings account might have supplied.

STATE BANK & TRUST CO. REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS. S. Brown Shepherd to J. L. Thompson 87 1-2 acres in Black River Township, consideration $10 and other valuable consideration.

Just the Daintiest Summer Frocks Imaginable. In printed and plain georgettes, in foulards and the handsomest and most serviceable combinations—the very best choice range possible, in fact—we offer to the women of select tastes the daintiest designs of the season in late spring and summer dresses.