

On July 4th!

The people of Harnett County will gather in Lillington and celebrate on July 4th in honor of the victorious conclusion of the war, the safe return of the soldiers and sailors and their glorious deeds of valor, heroism and self-sacrifice.

The occasion will also combine the gathering of Confederate and Spanish-American war veterans and the bestowal of honor upon these heroes.

The County Commissioners have appropriated the sum of $250 towards defraying the expenses of this celebration, and every citizen of the county must feel his own interest and his own pride in his own county by coming forward and participating in the glory and honor of the day.

Let everybody lay aside work on July 4th and come to the county seat and join in making this a jubilee occasion.

EVERYBODY WILL ENJOY THEMSELVES
THE SOLDIERS WILL TAKE RENEWED PRIDE

RECORDER'S COURT.

The June term of the Recorder's Court which began Tuesday, lasted one day. The docket was light, and on account of one cause or another, a large per cent of the cases were continued until the July term. J. R. Lawrence, who submitted at the April term to speeding and for whom a capias was issued at the last term, came up and paid the balance of the fine of $25.00 and costs. John Smith, colored, charged with resisting an officer, was fined $20.00 and costs. At the conclusion of this case Judge McLean gave a lecture on resisting officers while in the performance of their duties and told the spectators that anyone who is brought before him and convicted for such a charge, can expect small mercy at his hands. L. E. McGee, at whose house Angier a half gallon jug full of "gun mario" was found, was found other, a large per cent of the cases were continued until the July term. J. R. Lawrence, who submitted at the April term to speeding and for whom a capias was issued at the last term, came up and paid the balance of the fine of $25.00 and costs. John Smith, colored, charged with resisting an officer, was fined $20.00 and costs. At the conclusion of this case Judge McLean gave a lecture on resisting officers while in the performance of their duties and told the spectators that anyone who is brought before him and convicted for son, charged with blockading, was found not guilty. J. M. Moore was found guilty of assault with a deadly weapon and fined $25.00 and costs.
