Gates will be open Tuesday morning to Dunn's First Annual Fair, presenting to the people of Sampson, Johnston, Cumberland and Harnett Counties an exposition of the highest order undertaken by an Eastern Carolina community.

In inviting you to visit this exposition the management desires to impress upon you the fact that in the presentation of every feature first thought has been given to your enjoyment, your safety, your instruction, your pleasure, your welfare and the promotion of your interests and those of the community generally. Thousands of dollars have been expended in equipping the plant and grounds to a degree of thoroughness not equalled by any similar enterprise in the Carolinas for the sole purpose of pleasing and helping you.

After months of preparation the management can now announce that every detail of the great undertaking is completed. The Fair is ready to receive you; Dunn is prepared to welcome you.

For the entertainment of the thousands who are to attend the fair the management has arranged a program designed to please all.

The government has consented to loan aeroplanes and flyers for flights every day during the fair.

Sibley's Superb Shows will line the midway.

Sibley's band will give daily concerts.

Madame Charlotte M. Brand, grand opera singer, will give a concert.

The Stiewaltz family of aerial performers will give free shows each afternoon and night.

The Marvelous Mellville, aerialist and high-diver, will perform twice daily.

If fireworks can be received in time a nightly display will be given.

Races will be held each afternoon.

The foregoing are only a few of the mighty features staged for your entertainment. They will be secondary to the big displays presented by the owners of farms and industries of the four counties.

You must not miss this opportunity. Dunn wants to welcome you. It is happy in anticipation of your visit. Come.

Admission prices to the grounds will be: for grown-ups, fifty cents; for children under twelve, twenty-five cents. Grandstand seats can be had for an additional twenty-five cents. Admission prices for the night sessions will be the same, but grandstand seats will be free. Parking space for automobiles can be had for twenty-five cents. All cars parked under the management's supervision will be guarded against damage or theft.

Thank you.
