FOURTH-CLASS POSTMASTER

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination to be held at Lillington, N. C. on Oct. 25, 1919, as a result of which it is expected to make certification to fill a contemplated vacancy in the position of fourth-class postmaster at Buie's Creek and other vacancies as they may occur at that office, unless it shall be decided in the interests of the service to fill any vacancy by reinstatement. The compensation of the postmaster at this office was $566 for the last fiscal year.

Applications must have reached their twenty-first birthday on the date of the examination, with the exception that in a State where women are declared by statute to be at full age for all purposes at eighteen years, women eighteen years of age on the date of the examination will be admitted.

Applications should be properly executed and filed with the Commission at Washington, D. C., at the earliest practical date.

THE PRICE OF COTTON

Progressive Farmer. We have said it before and say it again: In order to pay the labor that produces it and the capital invested in it anything like the same returns that labor and capital elsewhere get, this year's disastrously short crop of cotton should bring 40 cents a pound. We wish we could say it will bring 40 cents, but we can at least say that there are just four reasons why prices are not now mounting toward that figure:— First, the reduced consumption of American mills, owing, it is said, to labor troubles.

on a peace basis.

Third, the unsettled conditions in the financial world, resulting in the English pound, normally worth $4.86 2-3 in America, now being worth only $4.35. This means that any purchase in America now costs an English buyer 10 1/2 per cent premium for exchange on money.

The fourth reason why cotton prices are not climbing toward 40 cents, however, is most important of all. This reason is simply the belief that the farmer will let the crop go for less. No well organized union of town laborers would submit to any less remunerative prices for their labor, however; and why should he city wage earner, and why should he not in a peaceful and legal way refuse to take less than a fair price for the product of his toil?

In view of the reduced acreage this year, a good crop of cotton should have brought 25 to 35 cents a pound. With a disastrously poor crop such as we have, a 40-cent price means only a living wage for the producer; and he, like the city laborer, owes it to his family and those dependent on him to demand this living wage.

War Department Announces They Need Not Employ Attorneys or Agents

Washington, D. C.—Curbing the "wolves" who seek to prey on the former service men has begun with the announcement by the War Department that it is ready to honor all requests by mail for information, and that the employment of agents to represent men having claims or desiring information is unnecessary.

With regard to such matters, particularly involve the obtaining of service record information by former soldiers is given in the following announcement just made public by the Secretary of War:

SELLING BUTTER, EGGS, AND VEGETABLES BY PARCEL POST

Progressive Farmer. The cry everywhere is for service, and one of the best answers to that call has been the parcel post system. Living on a farm six miles from an express office, the parcel post system has proved one of our best friends.
