

Don't Fail to Attend This
AUCTION SALE
MONDAY

NOVEMBER 17th at 12:00 o'clock NOON
and buy a Farm

Seventy-seven acres, five cleared, and 400,000 feet of pine timber. Known as McLeod and Quincy Matthews tract of land and is within three miles of Angier. Good mill location.

Sixty acres on highway between Flat Branch Church and Bunnlevel. Fifty acres on same highway. Both tracts are within four miles of Bunnlevel and are known as the Shaw Estate.

Thirty-five acres, 20 cleared, three-room dwelling and barn, on good road, four and a half miles of Bunnlevel, known as Hepsy McLean land.

The last three tracts on good road, near Flat Branch Church and join J. G. Layton farm.

Terms: One third cash; balance in one, two, three and four years.

These farms especially adapted to the growth of tobacco cotton and corn.

Remember the Date and Buy a Bargain

Geo. L. Cannady

Auctioneer

Dunn, N. C.

J. C. Thomson

Selling Agent,

Lillington, N. C.

ATTENTION!

Is Called to the Auction Sale

Saturday, November 15th, 1919 at 10:30 a. m.

OF THE

J. P. HONEYCUTT OLD PLACE

AND MILL POND

This property is located just 3-4 of a mile from Barclaysville, N. C., in one of the best communities anywhere in this section of the county, and is the best place in the State for a mill site, and has the best dam in the county. Has stood all test for over 130 years. The farm land is adapted to corn, cotton, tobacco, peanuts and potatoes and especially tobacco.

We feel that it will be to your interest to attend this sale for this is the first time this valuable property has been on the market for over 35 years. It may never be for sale again, so don't forget the Day and Date, tell your friends about it. Property is in Harnett County and is being sold for division.

P. K. HONEYCUTT

Commissioner

SALE CONDUCTED BY

Walter & Gurley Auction Co.

Kinston, N. C.