Miss Elizabeth Thompson, a student at Salem College, Winston-Salem, arrived home today to spend the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Thompson. Registration books for the town election will be opened at City Hall, in the office of the clerk, H. C. Parker, Monday morning. They will remain open for 20 days to permit registration of all new voters. Squire E. He will run two delivery wagons and one truck to keep the town supplied. Granville M. Tighman returned yesterday morning from Hot Springs, Ark. His visit to the resort was cut short by the burning of a large part of his lumber mill here. He started for home as soon as news of the disaster reached him. Ernest F. Young, who accompanied him to Hot Springs, will remain there for several weeks. "Uncle" John Colbreth, able to be about the streets after a long siege of sickness in his home here, asks The Dispatch to express for him his thanks to the many white and colored friends who were so good to him during that sickness. Uncle John is truly grateful and, he says, "prays for the blessings of God upon all of his friends." Dunn's branch of the Durham Knitting Mills Company will begin operations here next Tuesday with a class of ten employees. On each Monday morning an additional class of ten will be taken in training until the supply of new employees is exhausted. It is estimated that the branch will eventually employ at least 1,000 girls here. It was intended that the company start work last Monday. Delay in completing repairs to the buildings, however, forced postponement. J. Walter Turnage is again definitely in the race for the office of Mayor of the Town of Dunn. He made this announcement yesterday afternoon, he said, he had been impromptu by a host of friends to whom he had previously promised that he would run. After his friend J. Lloyd Wade announced his candidacy Mr. Turnage was at first disposed to withdraw from the race. He felt, he said, that the town's affairs would be managed well by Mr. Wade and that his own private business should be given all of his time. Subsequently, however, considerable pressure was brought to bear to induce him to remain in the race. It was for this reason that he has determined to remain a candidate. Far be it from the "Spotting" editor to so far overstep the bounds of propriety as to accuse any suffragette of got totting fair when she acts as arbiter in the gentle game of basket ball; but— Well, the girls of Fayetteville came up here the other day to give battle to Dunn's Easterners. And the score card showed that our little folks were defeated, 20 to 6. O'course the Fayetteville females played a shade better, but the score would not have been so lopsided had the young woman who was referee in the last half not become excited and let the visitors in for two or three goals they should not have had. This kind of "pep" out of our girls, but they at least had the consolation of knowledge that they were much the better looking set—which is by far the greater consideration. Beginning Monday morning the Harnett County Fair Association will offer $20,000 of its common stock at par to citizens of the four counties surrounding Dunn. The offer will close Saturday night, at which time whatever part of the issue that may be left will probably be taken up by those who are already stockholders. The stock is considered one of the very best investments. Last year—the first year of its existence—the association earned about 14 per cent on its capital. This, too, in spite of several costly errors due to inexperience. A dividend of six per cent was declared and has been paid. The stock offered is to be sold to provide funds for enlargement of the fair plant here. Some of the largest stockholders have expressed a desire to take additional stock. They will not be allowed to do this, however, until farmers in the outlying districts have been given an opportunity to buy. Eugene Lee has charge of the sales campaign.

THRIFT

The principal of "THRIFT" needs no defence. It is as wise as its benefits have proven its necessity. Successful men of all ages have very strongly advocated its practice. The Nation whose people substitute extravagance and waste for economical wisdom, soon begin to decay and finally crumble to their dissolution. This Bank encourages THRIFT, because we believe it to be essential to the future welfare of our City, community, State and Nation. Lets make this a THRIFT community. State Bank & Trust Company T. V. It is desired that every precinct in the county send a full quota of delegates. The Republicans have held their convention and are now at work shaping an organization with which they hope to attain victory. They have raised funds to stage a real campaign. Democratic leaders, while denying that there is any probability of defeat, desire that their fellows organize as thoroughly as have the Republicans. It is for this reason that they want a large attendance Saturday. ATTENTION MASONS. There will be a regular communication of Palmyra Lodge No. 147, A. F. & A.
