DUNN GRIEVES

Dunn has suffered heavily from the hand of the grim reaper within the last ten days. Two of its most valued and likeable men have fallen before his scythe.

AUTO THIEVES

It is a dull week indeed that does not see one or more automobiles stolen from the streets of Dunn. Usually, however, when rewards are offered, the cars are mysteriously found with no clue as to who "borrowed" them.

DR. WM. P. HOLT

North Carolina State Medical Society, which convened in Charlotte last week, in its 67th annual convention, elected Dr. William P. Holt, of Duke, to membership on the State Medical Board of Examiners.

Dr. Holt has been a resident of Harnett county for the past fifteen years and besides enjoying a large practice in medicine and surgery, his circle of friends is very large.

TROTTER OUT EDWARDS

A league has been formed in New York to put Edward I. Edwards, Governor of New Jersey, into the White House.

He does desire, however, that the right to make their own laws, guaranteed by the Constitution, be not denied to these State's whose people have rejected the Eighteenth Amendment.

Furney Tart, a prominent farmer and one of the most popular men of Western Sampson, died at his home last Thursday.

A charter has been granted the Roanoke and Salemburg railroad, which is to traverse the richest section of Sampson county and connect Dunn with Salemburg.

Evander Ham, a colored youngster, is considerably "minced" through having engaged in a li' army-meat with Will Lumpkin, also colored, last Saturday.

Charles Monde, the colored young man who was injured in a run away accident about two weeks ago, died Saturday from the injuries.

Philip Smith, colored, plus money, is minus his bank roll. Policeman Langley picked him up Sunday night while he was on the outside of the major portion of a flat.

"From Field to Foot," a romance of cotton, will be shown here in the White Way Theatre tonight.

SYRIAN MERCHANTS ARE NAMED IN INDICTMENT Twenty-Eight Operating in East Carolina Charged With Conspiracy

Raleigh, April 26.—Investigations which have been conducted by post-office inspectors since November, 1918, have culminated in a blanket indictment being returned by the Federal grand jury at Washington, N. C., against 28 Syrian merchants who have been operating stores in Raleigh, Goldsboro, and other cities and towns in eastern North Carolina, charging them with conspiracy to defraud and obtaining goods and money under false pretenses, with an alleged probable loss of upwards of a million dollars by wholesalers of northern markets.

ington. It was all due to a misplaced comma. When the bill was printed, "foreign fruit plants, etc." read "foreign fruit, plants, etc." and as a result oranges, grapes, lemons, bananas, etc., came into the United States free of duty for a year. The error cost the government just about two million dollars in revenue.
