Craig's bakery has leased the old Dunn Guide Building, now occupied by the express company, and will move its equipment into it by the 15 of September, it was stated yesterday. Present quarters of the bakery are too small to permit the placing of additional ovens recently purchased, it was said. The Guide Building is situated in Railroad Avenue and adjoins the postoffice. It extends from the street 140 feet to the alley. It will give the bakery ample room for expansion.

Representatives of the county and State boards of health were here Saturday to administer vaccination against typhoid fever. The treatment is free and can be gotten at City Hall next Saturday and the two succeeding Saturdays between the hours of 9 a. m. and 12 m. and 2 p. m. and 4 p. m. The treatment reduces the danger of catching typhoid to a minimum and is being given by the State and county to safeguard public health. Those who desire the treatment must get the first next Saturday.

MRS. CLIFFORD ENTERTAINS
 Friday afternoon Mrs. David Pearsall, one of Dunn's most recent brides was the guest of honor at an attractive miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. J. C. Clifford. The guests were met at the door by Miss Rachel Clifford, who assisted by Miss Corinna Jackson, served punch. Hearts dice was then enjoyed for an hour, after which the door bell rang and Mrs. Pearsall was asked to sign for a special delivery letter. To her surprise little David Clifford then came in and presented her with an enormous package containing many beautiful and useful gifts from cut glass bowls to rolling pins. After the excitement was over the guests were served with ice cream and cake and salted almonds.

Those present were: Mesdames David Pearsall, James Best, Paul Hood, Arthur Pope, George McKay, N. A. Townsend, J. L. Hatcher, John W. Fitzgerald, E. M. Jefferys, R. W. Pearsall, William Jackson, J. W. Thornton and Miss Corinna Jackson.

Get Ready For Winter WOOD Cutting

We are prepared to fill orders for Wood Saw Rigs at once, and advise those who intend operating this winter to buy now.

E. L. Cook will be glad to show you what we have and to fill your orders immediately.

The coal situation will be no better this year than it was last. The fellow with a wood saw rig will be in position to make good money all winter.

If you have a lot of cord wood, you can fill in the winter months with a good paying occupation.

Townpeople must buy wood this winter. They will not be able to get coal unless they have already placed their orders.

Get your rig now and begin sawing as soon as possible.
