SAMPSON WOMAN HEADS FARM WOMEN'S CONVENTION FOR COMING YEAR
 (Clinton News Dispatch.)
 Sampson county feels honored in having Mrs. W. B. Lamb chosen to head the Farm Women's Convention for the coming year. This does not come as a surprise to the people of the county, because they realize the qualifications of her demonstrative agent. They are just gratified to recognize the ability of Mrs. Lamb if she should discharge her duties as faithfully and efficiently as president of the Farm Women's convention and surely she will, as she has as county home demonstration agent, she will add as much glory to the county as any other citizen.

 Sampson had a large delegation at the Farmers and Farm Women's convention in Raleigh last week. Credit for this is largely due Mr. R. T. Melvin and Mrs. W. B. Lamb for the interest they have inspired in the people of the county. Below is a list of the names of those attending:
 A. D. Williams, Mrs. A. D. Williams, Mrs. Lee Williamson and Mrs. Kephemia Bass, of Beulah; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lee, Westbrook Lee, Sr., Mrs. Westbrook Lee, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Tart, Allen Daughtry, A. W. Daughtry, Miss Letta Warren, Miss Bettie Lee and P. O. Bixell, of Newton Grove; W. H. Walter and Wade Bullard, C. W. Sessions, M. C. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Lamb, of Roseboro; J. D. McLamb, Robert Johnson, Colin Lamb, and W. L. Roberson, of Ingold; R. I. Tew, Marian Dewey, Jackson, Mrs. Lonnie Jackson, Cooper; Mr. and Mrs. W. Packley, Moltonville; Forrest Morrill, Jr. and Mrs. R. T. Melvin, Clinton; A. A. Carroll, Turkey.

without any attempt at rescue from the younger, who was too fatigued to render immediate assistance and was also tired. The only witness of the tragedy was the aged miller, Mr. House. The survivor immediately returned to his home and aroused the community and a crowd of distressed friends and relatives went to the mill and rescued the body. The parents were heart-broken. Arthur was the only one of their children living with them and was an exceptionally fine young man.
 Rev. D. P. Harris, recently pastor of the Clinton Baptist church, is leaving this week for Greenville, S. C., where he will make his home in the future. Mrs. Harris and the daughters will visit relatives at Elizabeth City for some weeks before joining Mr. Harris in Greenville.

DROWNING OF SAMPSON YOUNG MAN CAUSES SORROW

Clinton, Sept. 4.—Mr. Arthur Sutton, the fine young son of Mr. and Mrs. David Sutton of Piney Grove township, this county, was drowned in his mill pond, ten miles from his home, Tuesday afternoon. He had gone to mill with a young cousin, at the latter's request, and on arriving at the mill the two young men went swimming and undertook to swim a certain mark up the pond. With out warning the older of the boys

12 SMALL FARMS 12

This farm is located on both sides of the V. & S. R. R. (the railroad runs right through the HEART of the Farm) between Hope Mills and St. Paul, North Carolina, 2 miles north of St. Paul and about 20 miles from Fayetteville. 14 miles from Parkton, adjoining the lands of J. H. Ballance, McRaine, McCormick and others. A good road leads from St. Paul to the farm. There are 600 acres open and in a high state of cultivation, 1 good dwelling house and 17 tenant houses, a large warehouse with a cement floor located by the railroad, 1 store building, sufficient barns and stables for the use of the farm, in a healthy locality, plenty of good water, good neighborhood, good schools and churches convenient.

This land is adapted to the growth of cotton, tobacco and all kinds of grain crops. Will average a bale of cotton, weighing 500 lbs. per acre this year. It is especially fine land, so experienced tobacco growers say, for the production of bright leaf tobacco. There are two tobacco warehouses at St. Paul, at which place the grower of tobacco can find a ready and lucrative market.

St. Paul, the nearest town is a very thriving town, it gained in population more than 173 per cent. in the last ten years
