ARBUCKLE HELD TO ANSWER ON CHARGE OF MANSLAUGHTER

Police Judge Lazarus Reduces Murder Complaint To The Lesser Charge

NO ATTEMPTED RAPE BY COMEDIAN, SAYS COURT

Movie Star Gives Bond For Appearance in Superior Court For Trial At Later Date; Women Rush Forward To Shake His Hand After Judge Makes Decision.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept 28 .-The murder complaint against Rosed to manslaughter today by Police Judge Sylvain J. Lazarus, who held him to answer to the Superior court for trial on the lesser charge growing out of the death of Miss Virginia Rappe following a drinking party in Arbuckle's hotel suite here Judge Legarus added that the evidence introduced by the district attorney during the six day hearing did not warrant the comedian being held for murder. Miss Rappe, of Los Angeles motion picture actrem died September 9, four days after the affair

"I have decided to make a holding for manslaughter, finding there is enough in the defendant's conduct to warrant his trial on that charge," said Judge Lazarus.

"I feel no rape or attempted rape was committed by the defendant on Miss Rappe," he said.

"I feel also bound by the grand jury whose indictment for manslaughter was voted after having more evidence than I was permitted

Arbuckie heard the decision without movement or comment.

Arbuckle Gives Bond The district attorney moved that Arbuckle be released on his own recognisance in view of the bail of $5,000 cash or $10,000 bonds fixed in the Superior Court charge of manufacture, setting, and of grand fury indictment. The district attorney moved that Assistant District attorney Milton T. D'rem and Isadore Golden asked Judge Lazarus if he placed no credease in Miss Rappe's eries "he hurt me" or the screams heard by the hotel maid, but the court said they "were not sufficient to implicate in the commission of crime." The district attorney's aides also contended that the court could only either hold the defendant to answer for murder or dismiss the case altogether, but Judge Lazarus said that was not his undesstanding of the law.

When the hearing were not sufficient to implicate in the defendant to answer for murder or dismiss the case altogether, but Judge Lazarus said that was not his undesstanding of the law.
