WHITE WAY THEATRE
PROGRAM

Thursday—Thunderbolt Jack, episode 14. "Her First Kiss" Sunshine Comedy. Paramount cartoon.

Friday—"Burning Daylight" Jack London story, Metro Production, all star cast headed by Mitchell Lewis. Sub Pollard one reel comedy.

Saturday—"The Mystic Power"—episode 10 King of the Circus. Third Class Male Universal Comedy. Latest Pathe News.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Noel on Monday of last week, a girl.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Tilghman have returned from a visit to relatives in Norfolk.

All banks in the Dunn District will be closed Friday in observance of Armistice Day.

Mrs. John C. Phillips returned Saturday from Dillon, S. C., where she had been visiting relatives.

Mrs. E. W. Myers of Raleigh, spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Wade.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Grantham of St. Paul, spent the week end here with Mr. and Mrs. George K. Grantham. They returned home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tyndall, of Sampson County, were here Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tyndall.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix McKay, of Duke, were in town Saturday.

Mrs. John C. Hodges returned Sunday from Mount Olive where she had spent several days with her husband, Mr. Hodges accompanied her home, returning to Mount Olive Sunday night.

News from the bedside of Thomas E. Darden Sr. who was stricken with appendicitis Friday is that he is rapidly recovering. He is in a Fayetteville hospital where he was operated upon Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baldwin and K. F. Howard motored to Raleigh Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Howard's daughter, Miss Lucille Howard, who is a student in Peace Institute.

Three sailors arrested here last week for hobnobbing have been discovered to be deserters from the U. S. S. Pope and will be returned to their station by Chief of Police Page as soon as their sentences are completed here.

Presiding Elder Bundy of the Fayetteville District, preached at the Methodist church here Sunday morning. Mr. Bundy's sermon was interesting and delivered in an attractive manner. A large crowd was present to hear him.

Henry P. Johnson is having erected a gas and oil storage station at the Durham and Southern tracks and will soon begin the distribution of oil by trucks. There will be three oil distributing concerns in town when he begins operations.

The Gift Shop is Dunn's newest business venture. It is backed by a body of women who are striving to make it easy for those who are puzzled over what to give for Christmas presents. The shop is located on the fourth floor of the First National Bank Building.

Marion C. (Jack) Lee left Saturday night for Washington where he will resume his duties as traveling salesman for a roofing concern. Mr. Lee was with the same concern last winter and spring and made a record of which his friends are proud. His territory embraced Maryland, Delaware and West Virginia. He spent the summer here with his parents, Judge and Mrs. Eldredge Lee.

W. H. Grainger, a young white man, was sentenced to serve six months on the roads when tried yesterday in Recorder's Court on a charge of having passed a worthless check for $60 at the Goldstein store. The check was issued on the First National where it was said the man had never had an account. He was caught at Fayetteville and all of the goods and most of the money he had gotten from Goldsteins were recovered.

Announcement was made yesterday of the marriage on July 3 of Miss Mamye West, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew West of Sampson County, to Henry P. Johnson, of the City Garage. The announcement came as a surprise to the many friends throughout the Dunn District. The bride is a popular young woman who has been employed in the Fleishman stores for several months. Mr. Johnson is one of the most successful automobile men of the district. Beginning next Monday Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will establish their home in the residence of Mrs. John P. Johnson.

Little folk in the primary department of the graded schools have been busy about the streets this week selling tickets to the entertainment to be staged by them Wednesday—tomorrow night under the direction of Miss Kennedy. They have sold many tickets and will have a large crowd to see their fine show in Metropolitan Theatre. The proceeds from this show are to be devoted to a fund being raised by Miss Kennedy to pay for additional chairs and desks placed in the primary grade rooms. The admission price will be 15 cents for children and 25 cents for grown-ups. The Dispatch hopes that all of its local readers will see the show. They will miss something really good if they do not.

Work on the new government cotton storage warehouse being erected on the General Utility Company's block is going ahead rapidly. It will be the largest building in town when completed and will be able to accommodate nearly 10,000 bales of cotton when completed. The building extends from Vance street 200 feet toward Harnett, is 120 feet wide and two stories high. Its cost will be approximately $70,000. The company, licensed last year to conduct bonded warehouses, will have storage room for practically half of the Dunn District crop when this warehouse is completed. It already operates a warehouse at the corner of Broad Avenue and Harnett Street and another at the northern end of Wilson Avenue.

More than 100 members of the Wesley Bible Class of Divine Street Methodist church were present Sunday morning to welcome the Kenly Wesley Bible Class whose members were guests of the local organization for the day. Excellent music was given by the Harmonic Orchestra. A most pleasing feature of the musical program was the rendition of "The Sinner and the Song" with Mrs. Alfred R. Wilson taking the reading part. Mrs. T. L. Riddle and Mrs. W. J. Snipes singing the duet and Mrs. John C. Hodges playing the organ. The visitors were deeply impressed by the earnestness of Teacher Henry Hood in explaining the lesson of the day. They were very well pleased with the church, the town and its people and have extended an invitation to the local class to visit them some time.

MICROBE OF LOVE

That dangerous and insidious bug against which the people of Dunn were warned last week, is said to be in our midst, and it is reported that it will make its appearance, stinging all who are present, at the Metropolitan Theatre, Friday night, Nov. 11.

The ladies and gentlemen who have charge of this mysterious germ which works on hard-hearted bachelors' hearts about as quickly as a boll weevil punctures cotton bolls, and instantaneously affects spinsters in a most peculiarly interesting manner, declare it is really quite some bug, and invite all who feel that they are immune, to be present at the exhibition and see the bug bite.

Miss Idulu Houghton, a young lady of much experience and insight in such work, is here to coach the young people who will take part in the play and direct the production. Special costumes will be a feature of the entertainment, as well as catchy and appropriate music, and it is safe to say that the show will be the best thing of a dramatic nature that has been in Dunn for a long time.

The play is unique and most enjoyable. In fact, it is a "whole of a nut," check your critical faculties at the door so you may relax and give your face a genuine grin in the way of a good laugh, for the Microbe is going to have its final matrimonial drive.

The dignified bachelors and women haters of Dunn may well have their last laugh party for Madam Hymen Cupid has arrived and vows she will not leave a single bachelor. She is in the employment of the spinsters to help them find a husband, and she is not going to disappoint them in spite of the fact that a bachelor's club has been organized by the men of the town to avoid the ladies and evade matrimony. They employ the services of Terimiah Henpeck, who gives them advice on the subject of love and matrimony taken from his own experience.

The garden party breaks up the bachelor's club and the spinster's club for a shot of love microbes is effective in making the bachelors fall in love with the pretty girls.

The play is given under the auspices of the American Legion.

The admission will be 75c and $1. So pack up your troubles in your old kit and meet your friend at the Metropolitan Theatre.

Beaumont, Texas, Nov. 4.—Dr. E. T. Miller, of Beaumont, who was one of the surgeons attending the seven-year old French girl attacked by an American negro soldier near La Rochelle hospital in France in December 1920, said today that he was given a court-martial trial and hanged.

He declared this was the only crime that happened in the La Rochelle area that he knew anything about and that he never heard of instances of unjust treatment of American soldiers.

"Katcha-Koo" Unique and Brilliant Katcha Koo, an Oriental American musical comedy, to be staged under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce at Metropolitan Theatre November 22 and 23 is said to be the most stupendous and brilliant amateur affair ever presented in Dunn. This is the opinion of those who have witnessed the daily rehearsals which are being held under the direction of Miss Dagmar Carlson.

Katcha-Koo will surprise everyone by being just about the nearest to a professional presentation ever given by local talent. The mystery of the Orient and the practical patriotism of modern times are artfully combined amid weird and spectacular scenic effects, shadowed lights, Oriental tapestry, brilliant costumes and the lit of sweet melodies. There are scores of pretty girls in every scene, while the closing Babylon entitled, "Liberty Aflame" presents the most attractive group of younger and old or ladies that were ever assembled on a local stage.

Among the dances which are all very different from one another are the Devil Dance, Polo Dance and the Auld Lang Syne Group. The latter will be greatly enhanced by the singing of "When I Went To School With You". "Katcha-Koo" a Fakir, renounces himself before the Maharajah's Temple for weeks at a time without moving. He is also said to control an amount of genuine "curses" sufficient to bring fear to the hearts of the natives.

The Maharajah's nerves, badly shattered by the persistence of the Fakir, orders the ladies of his household, Urbanah, and Soisjah, the Widow of a Wizard, to give Mr. Katcha-Koo the "bite." The pair cunningly and the Maharajah feeds them with the fact that he will feed them poison and then use them as fodder for the lions, whose growls can be heard off stage.

At this point Messrs. Dick Horton and Harry Bradstone appear on the scene and doll Katcha-Koo in magic garments which cause him immediately to make love to the Maharajah's four wives.

Of course, this doesn't help the Maharajah's disposition and more complications result, on the whole supplying an interesting story and lots of fun throughout the play.
