

LOCAL

M. F. Hodges spent yesterday in Sanford on business.

Hugh Prince was a visitor to Lillington yesterday.

Nathan M. Johnson spent yesterday in Raleigh on business.

Miss Myrtle Azbell, of Wilson, is here as a guest in the home of Mrs. McD. Holliday.

Miss Myrtle Royall spent the week end in Rocky Mount the guest of Mrs. Margaret Bryan.

After spending several weeks here with her mother, Mrs. Henry Popo, Mrs. A. B. Harrell left Thursday for her home in Petersburg, Va.

George Anthony, of Hamlet, has accepted a position with the Dunn Cafe. He is one of the foremost amateur Greek wrestlers in North Carolina and has been in the habit of meeting all comers.

The regular monthly meeting of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will be held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms next Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. All members are urged to attend and bring their "taxes".

J. C. Barrington, of Raleigh, is here this week selling fertilizers to farmers of the Dunn district. Mr. Barrington says that business is unusually good and that he finds many farmers with sufficient money to pay cash for the fertilizers this year.

Miss Annie Royall left Saturday for Rocky Mount to attend the Wakefield-Zimmerman wedding which took place there this week. Miss Royall has accepted a position with the Anchor stores there and will remain in Rocky Mount during the spring and summer.

C. V. Hudson has established a new business here to deal wholesale in poultry, eggs, butter and cured meats. He will buy from farmers in the surrounding country and sell mostly in Raleigh and other larger markets. His offices are located in the Hudson-Draper Company store.

J. Adams, of the Dunn Cafe Company, returned yesterday from a visit to Bishopville, S. C., where he was in business before purchasing the cafe here. He says that the boll weevil has done much damage around Bishopville and that farmers there are planning to abandon the culture of cotton.

Miss Elizabeth Lay, of the University of North Carolina, was here yesterday to address the Woman's Club on community drama. Miss Lay is a member of the Harsett County Pageant committee appointed to prepare the pageant. She is connected with the extension service of the University.

Farm Agent Latham, who was expected here this week to assume his duties as demonstration agent in the Dunn District, was unable to leave Jacksonville, N. C., in time to begin work here March 1. He writes that he will endeavor to get here within a few days. Mr. Latham's wife is a cousin of Bob Swain.

A large delegation of Dunn Odd Fellows will attend the special demonstration degree work of the order in Fayetteville Monday. This will be one of the most important gatherings of Odd Fellows to be held in North Carolina this year and the Fayetteville people are planning to entertain a large number of visitors.

E. J. Hudson yesterday attended a meeting of Delco Light dealers of North Carolina and South Carolina in Raleigh. In the new allotment of territory the Hudson-Draper Company of Dunn was given all of Harnett, Cumberland and Sampson counties. Heretofore the company operated only in Harnett and a part of Sampson.

One of the prettiest places in Dunn now is the show room of the John R. Highsmith Company, seedmen, where many choice potted plants and flowers are on display. Yesterday the company unpacked a large number of flowers that are in full bloom. These, with the other plants and show pieces about the room, make the place extraordinarily attractive.

The Fifth Avenue Shop, Inc., opened this morning with a most attractive line of silken, lace and other women's apparel. There are few prettier stores in the South than this little shop whose owners expect it to grow into one of the most important business houses of Dunn. The shop is located in the old Sexton and Highsmith Building in Railroad Avenue.

Mrs. E. H. Goff returned this week to her home in Falcon. Mrs. Goff has been with her husband, Rev. H. H. Goff for the past two months, during which time they conducted revival meetings in Conneaut, Ohio, Greenville and Pittsburgh, Pa., and Buffalo, New York. They also visited Niagara Falls. Mr. Goff is still in Pittsburgh, and will hold meetings in Canada before returning home.

Rev. John J. Langston, pastor of the Christian church, announces that "we expect to have a good day next Lord's Day. Splendid Bible school at 9:30 in the morning. Morning worship at 11—subject: The Challenge of the Church. Evening service at 7:30 with fifty splendid slides beginning with the ministry of Jesus Christ and dealing with His ministerial career. A cordial invitation is extended the public to come and worship with us."

The Feldman Department store is about ready for business and has placed a large stock of dry goods, clothing, etc., in the building formerly occupied by J. C. Bell. Mr. Feldman has recently returned from Northern markets where he purchased a large quantity of goods for the store here. He is Dunn's newest merchant and the business folks of town are glad to welcome him. He was located in Abooke, where his father now conducts a store, before coming to Dunn.

Mayor L. A. Bethune and Chief of Police H. D. Byrd, of Bunnlevel, are in town today. They are the first officials of Harnett's newest town and were here to arrange for the printing of town stationery, including warrants. Mayor Bethune said they were up against a tough proposition—having several offenders to "pinch," but no warrants with which to do the "pinching." The Pope Printing Company will endeavor to help them out by Monday. Meantime Bunnlevel fellows who are given to breaking town ordinances are warned that the new Mayor and Chief will get them next week.

The Thursday Afternoon Book Club met yesterday with Mrs. Charles Highsmith and enjoyed a delightful program which was featured by three papers read by Mrs. P. S. Cooper, Mrs. J. Lloyd Wade and Mrs. H. O. Mattox. For the occasion the home was beautifully decorated with narcissus, frezias, jonquills, carnations, snapdragons, etc., and refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Wade, Mrs. Mattox, Mrs. C. J. Smith, Mrs. R. L. Godwin, Mrs. Wallace E. Coltrane, Mrs. V. L. Stephens, Mrs. Paul Hood, Mrs. Z. V. Snipes, Mrs. W. F. Snipes, Miss Mary Whitehurst, Miss Mary Judd.

Baraca To Play Baseball

With the first warm days of this week Dunn baseball enthusiasts turned their attention to the national pastime. As a result there is a well-organized effort to form a league to include all of the Baraca and young men's Bible Sunday school classes of the town. First to organize are the fellows in Jesse M. Wilson's class at the Christian church. Mr. Wilson is manager of this aggregation. Thomas Jackson is captain and Hap Holliday is coach. They invite the other Sunday schools to come in with them.

D. & S. Offices Down Town

In line with its policy to afford every convenience to the business men of Dunn the Durham and Southern Railways has established its commercial offices with the Broad street office of the Postal Telegraph Company, which is located in the Hudson-Draper Company store. Emmett E. Thompson, commercial agent of the road, has his headquarters in these offices.

Why Suffer? Cardui The Woman's Tonic. "I suffered for a long time with womanly weakness," says Mrs. J. R. Simpson, of 57 Spruce St., Asheville, N. C. "I finally got to the place where it was an effort for me to go. I would have bearing-down pains in my side and back—especially severe across my back, and down in my side there was a great deal of soreness. I was nervous and easily upset. TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic. "I heard of Cardui and decided to use it," continues Mrs. Simpson. "I saw shortly it was benefiting me, so I kept it up and it did wonders for me. And since then I have been glad to praise Cardui. It is the best woman's tonic made." Weak women need a tonic. Thousands and thousands, like Mrs. Simpson, have found Cardui of benefit to them. Try Cardui for your trouble. ALL DRUGGISTS
