

BISHOP JOHN KILGO MAY BE PUT ON SUPERANNUATED LIST Charlotte, May 3.—It is reported here that Bishop John C. Kilgo will be placed on the superannuated list by the southern Methodist conference meeting in Hot Springs, Ark. The report could not be verified at the home of Bishop Kilgo here. Bishop Kilgo was elected to the bishopric in 1919 when he was president of Trinity college. For some time Bishop Kilgo has been in bad health and it is believed that his health coupled with his 62 years, will be considered sufficient for his retirement by the conference.
