

AUTRYVILLE NEWS

D. A. Hall

Mr. Bert Pann of Autryville has accepted the agency for the E. C. Rubber Mfg. Co., of Johnstown, O., in selling pumps used for general house work, extinguishing fires and also can be used for spraying plant beds and cleaning off automobiles, etc.

Mr. Jasper Home continues quite feeble at his home here in this part of the county.

A singing will be held at Long Branch next Sunday afternoon which will be the third Sunday in which Autryville choir led by Mr. G. K. Davin, and the Hall's chapel choir led by Mr. Jordan Schemm will convene with the Long Branch Choir led by Mr. A. S. Hall.

The colored folks of this vicinity are holding a meeting at their church this week at Chapel Hill. The pastor, Rev. Melvin, we understand, is to do the preaching. He lives over in Cumberland county and is recognized by both white and colored as being a good man.

Mr. Freeman J. Sessoms will erect a new dwelling house near his home in the near future.

A protracted meeting will begin at Long Branch church next Sunday by the pastor, Rev. Joel Johnson of Cedar Creek.

What has become of your good friend, Mr. A. E. Page of Cooper, who has not written any articles to The Dispatch recently? We always enjoy his articles and kindly ask him to scribble some more ere long.

Fredder has ripened rapidly and the pulling of it is in vogue, though the people have been somewhat handicapped the past few days because who capped the past few days on account of the rain.

MR. Y. M. LEE DEAD

Mr. Lee was the son of Martin and Elizabeth Lee. He was born November 6, 1844, and died Aug. 7, 1922.

Dec. 6, 1870, he was married to Julia Francis Lee, daughter of Sir William and Carolina Lee, and to them were born ten children, eight of whom are still living, Perry H., A. T., Zack, Mrs. L. H. Byrd (deceased), Mrs. R. E. Jernegan, of Dunn; Mrs. C. F. Norris, of Wade; Mrs. N. A. Taylor of Dunn; Mrs. Paul Wood, of Benson; and Esther Lee.

For over a year Mr. Lee has been past work and last March he was taken much worse and had been confined to his bed for several weeks before the end came. Through all his sickness he never complained, but was patient even until death. He was a honest and faithful citizen of his county. He trusted his fellowman and they trusted him.

In early life he became a Christian and connected himself with the Free Will Baptist church, where he remained a faithful member until death ended his peaceful home and bore his spirit back to the God who gave it.

Of the immediate family who survive him are a widow and 8 children and Bros. G. M. and Joseph Lee, and sisters, Mrs. Westbrook Tart and Mrs. Martha Coats.

Funeral services were conducted by Mr. Albert Butler at the home of Mr. Lee. The burying took place in the family burying ground.

A. D. Wilson of Angier, was a business visitor in Dunn Thursday.
