(2) What it doesn't kill it scares away. (3) Rats killed with RAT-SNAP leave no smell, they dry up inside. (4) Made in cakes, no mixing with other food. (5) Cats or dogs won't touch it. Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by Hood and Grantham, Wilson and Lee, and Butler Bros. Mr. Vaughan, Farmer, Tells How He Lost All His Frying Seed Corn. "Some time ago sent away for some pedigreed seed corn. Put it in a gunny sack and hung it on a rope suspended from roof. Rats got it all—how beats me, but they did because I got 5 dead whoppers in the morning after trying RAT-SNAP." Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by Butler Bros., Hood & Grantham, Wilson and Lee. Every man hates to buy a new hat or a new pair of shoes.

The Charlotte Observer

A Carolina Newspaper For Carolina People — Consistent, Clean and Reliable

Gives to its readers the worthwhile news of the Carolinas, the nation and the world, hot off the wires, fairly and accurately reported by its corps of special correspondents and the Associated Press, greatest news gathering agency in the world, supplemented by the Universal Service report and Newspaper Enterprise Association. A paper produced by an organization that keeps constantly in the mind the needs and desires of Carolina people and seeks to give them just what they want in general news, sports, market news, social news, fraternal order news and views, and numerous special articles and features for the benefit and entertainment of the whole family, including daily and Sunday comics.

A few of the many features that make THE CHARLOTTE OBSERVER the ideal newspaper of the Carolinas are:
Editorials by able writers
The only complete Fraternal Order Section published in the South.
Weekly articles by Frank H. Simonds, the world's greatest authority on international politics.
Weekly Bible Talks by America's Great Commentator, William Jennings Bryan.
Forward Observation Post—a weekly story of the World War, by Gale Burgen.
Weekly Book Reviews, by William Thornton Whitsett, President of Whitsett Institute.
The History of the South's Famous Songs, by Henry E. Harman.
Punch and Parimatter, a weekly story by Montague Glass.
A department of Radio News, edited by the world's best authorities on the subject.
The Woman's Page; a section containing general household hints and recipes for the housewife.

One Minute Interviews, a page containing expressions and exchanges of views of its subscribers.
Pithy Paragraphs, a page full of facts and chuckles. Prizes are offered each day for the Society of the Carolinas, a section featuring witty sayings submitted by the subscribers, the social events of the two Carolinas.
The most complete and detailed report of A Colored Comic Section on Sunday and sports published in the State.
Original daily comic features, including the well-known "Bringing Up Father," by George McManus.
Fiction, Scientific Writings, and other feature articles.
A Church Directory, weekly Sunday school lessons, Real Estate page, etc.
Special attention is called to the Middle-Carolinas Section, the object of which is to encourage, advance and promote the industrial, commercial, civic, and social interests of the states of North and South Carolina.
