C. W. Spell, Godwin's leading merchant, was here today.

Jeane Park Butler has accepted a position as salesman with the Goldstein Company.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. J. O. West, at the home of Mrs. West's mother, Mrs. Sarah Hargrove, in Sampson county last Tuesday, a very fine boy.

Misses Myrtle and Nell Koons, sisters of Ralph Koons, returned yesterday to their home at Wilmington. They were here for the funeral of McD. Holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Goldstein, Miss Rosalie Goldstein and Master J. J. Goldstein, have returned from Goldsboro, where they spent Sunday and Monday with relatives.

Henry Burlington left today for Rocky Mount to attend the Fair. He is president of the Harnett County Agricultural Fair Association and is in Rocky Mount to book western horses for the races at the fair here next week.

Many of Dunn's football enthusiasts attended the Carolina-Wake Forest football game at Goldsboro Saturday. All were disappointed by the poor showing made by the Baptists, who lost 62 to 3. The game looked more like a running race for the Carolina boys.

Ben Franklin Parker has been appointed assistant chief marshal of the fair at Dunn next week. Dick Taylor is the chief marshal. He and Mr. Parker will require twenty young men with horses to assist them. They will receive applications until Saturday night.

Captain I. Roland Williams and Dick Taylor, who have charge of the tournament to be staged at the fair on Wednesday, say that much interest has been shown in the event and that several contenders have expressed a desire to enter the lists. The winner of the tournament will choose and crown the queen of the fair.

Everybody is showing much interest in that Overland automobile the fair association is to give away at the fair here next week. Every purchaser of a ticket will be given a coupon which will give him or her a chance on winning the car. The more tickets one purchases the better opportunity of winning he will have. Even the newspaper folks are giving up their free passes and planning to buy tickets.

Our old friend, Daniel Robinson Lee, the philosopher of Spring Branch who writes the interesting stories about folks and things down his way, was here to see us today. We have from his pen a very interesting article on the "Farmer's Boy." You may find it stuck somewhere around this issue. "D. R." runs a grist mill down at the old Giles Mill. He makes mighty good meal. When he isn't making meal he is philosophizing. His articles make mighty good reading — as Dispatch readers very well know.

J. W. Wilson, of Greensboro, spent the week end here with relatives. Miss Lina Gough, of Lumberton, was the guest this week of Miss Iva Pearson.

Miss Emma Lee of Raleigh, spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lee.

Miss Iva Pearson and her guest, Miss Lina Gough of Lumberton, left Tuesday for Charlotte, where they will spend several days.

Mrs. R. E. Gray, who spent several days in Dunn with Mr. and Mrs. E. Lee and Dr. and Mrs. Hicks, has returned to her home in Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Phillips left last week for Prescott, Arizona, where they will make their home. The best wishes of their many friends in Dunn go with them.

Mack M. Jernigan has been elected superintendent of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church. He succeeds Casper Warren who has entered the ministry and is a student at the Baptist Seminary at Louisville, Ky.

Your exhibit at the fair will help boost a community enterprise and will advertise your product. Advertising in your local papers pays for the same two reasons.

A good pasture means better milk, better milk means healthier children means more powerful adults. Are you planning for your children?

"WELCOME STRANGER"

Aaron Hoffman's now famous comedy of life in a small New England town, "Welcome Stranger," will be presented at La Fayette Theatre on Tuesday, October 10th, after two consecutive seasons in Chicago and at the Sam H. Harris Theatre, New York. George Sidney, whose delightful characterization of Isidore Solomon, the central figure of the play has been pronounced one of the most artistic portrayals on our present day stage, heads the notable cast that Mr. Harris has provided among whom are Wm. H. Turner, Chas. Scofield, Willard De Shiel, Nicholas Burnham, Chas. Newsome, Jules Bennett, Harry Coleman, Wm. McFadden, Will Adams, Nora Stetling, Katharine Moore, Leodore Martin and Vivian Hickson.
