

LOCAL
WHITE WAY PROGRAM - FAIR WEEK
MONDAY
"REPORTED MISSING"
A Select Special
TUESDAY
"ACCORDING TO HOYLE"
With David Butler
WEDNESDAY
"THE FIGHTING FOOL"
A Five Reel Western
THURSDAY
"MAN UNDER COVER"
FRIDAY
"RIVER'S END"
MATINEE - WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY

Rev. A. H. McQueen is attending the Presbytery at Laurinburg.
P. K. Honeycutt, of Varina, was a business visitor in Dunn Thursday.
Ralph Koons and Herbert Taylor were visitors to Raleigh this week.
Mrs. Claude Gardner, of Washington, is here to visit her mother, Mrs. Mamie F. Pittman.
M. A. Harris R. Lunn, of Oklahoma City, Okla., is here as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. David Pearsall.
Friday the thirteen may be lucky for you. That is when the automobile is to be given away at the fair.
Secretary T. L. Riddle, of the Chamber of Commerce, attended the fair at Rocky Mount this week.
J. J. Dickens, sales manager for the Jarvis Motor Company, is spending this week in Durham on business.
Mr. and Mrs. James Hampton, of Wilmington, are spending several days here with Mrs. Hampton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Wade.
Miss Minnie Taylor, a member of the faculty of the graded school in Tarboro, is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Taylor.
Get your exhibits out to the fairgrounds as early as possible. Everything must be in place by Monday night. Phone Riddle if you want some one to call for your exhibit.
Miss Marie Shkan, sister of Fred G. Shkan, the ice parlor man, is recovering nicely from an operation performed yesterday morning in a hospital at Fayetteville.
Dunn was well represented at the rally of Democrats in Lillington yesterday and every visitor from the Metropolis of Bennett seemed pleased with the Governor's sermon on the righteousness of the party's cause.
Earl B. Moll, the youthful evangelist, is preaching some mighty interesting sermons at Divine Street Methodist church and large crowds are attracted there day and night. Mr. Moll is assisted in his meeting by Paul I. Templeton as choir leader and soloist. They make an excellent team.

Lieutenant-Governor W. R. Cooper, of Wilmington, was here Monday to visit his brother, P. S. Cooper, president of the First National Bank. It was the first opportunity the lieutenant-governor has had to see Dunn at its busiest season. He was very favorably impressed by the town's evident prosperity and the evidence of a spirit of progress among its people. He considers it one of the best towns in North Carolina.
Little boys who own ponies are given an excellent opportunity to win handsome purses in the races at the fair next week. The race for ponies is only half a mile. The Dispatch will be glad to see the boys become interested. Entries should be made with John W. Draughon, director of the race department. There will be two or three mile races, also, offering fine opportunities to farm boys. Get into it, boys and show the old folks what a race should be.
No, good folks, you'll not see Old

Plivins in the parade at the fair's opening. The most vital part of her husband's on his way to some hospital whose specialties know best how to treat it. Other useless looking parts are scattered around Neill Green's sanatorium for debilitated bulks. No living man could assemble the whole before the band starts playing. If the old boat gets in shape before Thanksgiving Day, we'll be mighty pleased. Sorry, of course—but we can't help it.
W. P. Byrd and J. O. Sutton Republican candidates for the offices of county recorder and sheriff, respectively, were here Wednesday in the interest of their campaign. Mr. Byrd is opposing Caviness Brown, of Lillington; Mr. Sutton is opposing Will McArtan, incumbent. Both professed to be pleased with the reception given them by the voters. That, however, was before Cameron Morrison aroused the Democrats with his speech at Lillington. Democrats, lethargic before, are getting into the campaign in earnest now and are confident that they will win an overwhelming victory at the polls in November.

DICKEY EXPECTS INTERESTING MEET

Gone To Convention Of Brotherhood of Railroad Signalmen of America
Because of the hard fight labor has had to wage with capital in the last two years the approaching convention of the Brotherhood of Railroad Signalmen of America, which opens in Cincinnati Monday, October 9, is expected to be one of the most interesting ever to have been held by the brotherhood, according to W. P. Dickey, general chairman of the brotherhood for the Atlantic Coast Line system.
Mr. Dickey will leave today for Cincinnati. On his way he will stop in Washington for a conference with the United States Railway Administration concerning matters which are to come before the convention. After the convention, which probably will remain in session all of next week, Mr. Dickey will go to Pittsburgh on further business for the brotherhood. Then he will spend several days at different points in Pennsylvania with relatives and friends. He will return to Dunn about November 1.
Mr. Dickey recently has completed and negotiated an agreement with the Atlantic Coast Line system through which the brotherhood is recognized by that system just as are all the other great railway brotherhoods. It is the first agreement the brotherhood has ever been able to make with the system.
AT MOLL SERVICES
The crowds are increasing at each of the services at the meeting being held at the Methodist church now in progress, being conducted by Evangelist Earl B. Moll.
The interest in the messages of the evangelist has been intense and from indications one of the greatest meetings in the history of the Methodist church here has started.
The message of Evangelist Moll have been of a type that interests all classes of people, though they have been on the fundamental teachings of Christianity.

One of the notable features in this meeting has been the attendance of the children and young people upon the services.
After the service Thursday night when the preacher preached on "Regeneration" there were a great number who came forward for prayer in response to the evangelist's proposition that they "give their hearts to God," and many professed conversion.
The subject for Friday night will be "Is There A Hell?" And for Saturday night Rev. Mr. Moll has announced to speak on "Experimental Religion." He is planning on three services for Sunday. The regular ones at eleven and seven-fifteen, with also a special service for "men only" at 8:30 p. m. at which time he will speak on "Wanted A Man?"
The song services lead by Choir Director Paul I. Templeton of Meridian, Miss., are a regular treat and his solos are being enjoyed by all.
The meeting will continue into and possibly through all of next week.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

H. A. Hodges will celebrate his 78th birthday on October 17th. Friends and relatives are cordially invited to come and bring a well filled basket. Services will be conducted by Exam Lee, at 11 o'clock.

MRS. NARCISSEUS BYRD

Mrs. Narcissus Byrd, widow of the late H. E. Byrd, died at the home of her son, G. B. Byrd, at Bunnlevel, Friday September 29th, in her 75th year. Funeral services were conducted at Parker Grove Methodist church on the morning of the 30th, by her pastor, Rev. Mr. Ross. The burial took place immediately afterwards.
Deceased had been a member of Parker Grove church for a number of years and was beloved by all who knew her. She was well known in Dunn where she had spent much time with her daughter, Mrs. W. O. Johnson.
She is survived by four children, as follows: Mrs. A. B. Godwin and Mrs. W. O. Johnson of Dunn; G. B. Byrd of Bunnlevel, and Mrs. L. C. Draughon of Durham.

GOLDSBORO MEN COMING TO FAIR

A large party of Goldsboro farmers and business men, en route to several Eastern Carolina points to study system of diversified farming, morning. They were invited ETAOI will be visitors to the fair Tuesday morning. They were invited to attend the fair following receipt of a letter from W. C. Denmark, of Goldsboro chamber of commerce, by Secretary T. L. Riddle, of the local commercial organization.
Mr. Denmark's letter reads: "I have practically completed arrangements to send fifty or more of my county's leading farmers and business men through your city Tuesday morning, October 10th, enroute to several counties in the Southern part of our State and adjoining counties in South Carolina for the purpose of having them become familiar to some extent, with the system of diversified farming that the people in this section are adopting.

"I should like very much to have you meet this party and have you or your president make a short talk to them in the interest of diversified agriculture. This party will arrive in Dunn at about ten A. M. and any courtesy extended them by you will be greatly appreciated."

PROGRAM FOR FAIR WEEK

- TUESDAY
9:30—Band Concert on Lucknow Square.
10:00—Opening parade:
—Mounted marshals, band, fair officials and School children escorting John J. Parker; Brown and Dyer Wild Animals; Band; Brown and Dyer Wild West Shows and other shows; decorated automobiles, etc.
11:30—Speech in the grandstand by John J. Parker.
12:00—Midway and exhibit halls open.
12:30—Child health conference opens.
2:00—Races and free acts begin.
8:00—Fireworks display and free acts.
WEDNESDAY
9:30—Band concert on Lucknow Square.
10:00—Parade:
—Same as first day, with escort accompanying Aaron Sapiro, co-operative marketing leader.
11:00—Speech in the grandstand by Aaron Sapiro.
12:00—Midway and exhibit halls open.
12:30—Child health conference, color demonstration, etc. open.
1:00—Tournament through which the Queen of the fair is to be chosen.
2:00—Free acts and races begin.
8:00—Fireworks display and free acts.
THURSDAY
10:00—Fairgrounds open, with Midway attractions, free acts, etc.
11:00—Child health conference and demonstrations begin.
2:00—Races begin.
Special free acts and band concerts all afternoon.
No night shows except along the midway.
FRIDAY
Same Program as Thursday.
Autos to be given away at 8:00 in the afternoon. Holder of lucky coupon must be on grounds when number is drawn. Numbers to be drawn until one corresponding with one on grounds is taken from barrel.

:- COW SALE :-
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13th, 1922
Promptly at 11 a. m. the sale will be held at the Fair Grounds at the Machinery Building. N. L. Perkins will be the auctioneer. The cows are from Sweet Water Valley, East Tennessee. All are tested, fine butter cows, and heavy milkers. They are kind and gentle. Ages range from three to six years old. They are of the Jersey and Guernsey breeds. Many of the are pure bred. They all carry fine strains of blood.
We will warrant you in this splendid opportunity in getting good cows that are just right. We mean to sell every one. No by-bidders will be allowed on this sale. Honesty is our policy. Bring your wife to see these good cows.
Do not mistake place or day. Cows will be in Thursday before the sale on Friday. See them.
Hoping that you will meet us promptly Friday, Oct. 13, at 11 o'clock a. m., we are,
J. E. POLLARD & COMPANY
The Fair Grounds, Dunn

NEW GOODS
Each Department is Filled
Coat Suits, Dresses, Coats
Millinery of the Best
Gage Hats
Little Miss Gage Hats
Style-Plus Clothes
Ralston Shoes
Godman Shoes
Queen Quality Shoes
Fairfield Shoes
KEEP YOUR EYES ON THIS SPACE
Hassell-Johnson Co.
Duke, North Carolina

OPEN EVERY DAY DURING
DUNN'S GREATEST FAIR
Tuesday October 10 to Friday 13th
1032
'Come be our guests. Feast with us. Let us serve you, and if we can do more command us. This will be a holiday for our friends and not us. But we will be delighted to respond—to the wishes of all who trade with us and want the best to wear from head to foot for less money, or who will buy the best in Dry Goods and Notions cheaper.
Again we say come to the Yellow Front Store and enjoy this delightful occasion. We are yours to command for the best all through our big line of finest merchandise for less money in the Yellow Front Store.
R. G. Taylor Co.
Dunn, October 6, 1922.