WE WONDER

Suppose, some time, some preacher would rise in his pulpit and preach that all which gives pleasure is not sinful, and that fear of eternal punishment as the actuating cause for righteousness is abhorred by God.

Would his congregation drive him from his church to make room for some dolorous gentleman who preached that to have fun is to sin and to fear is to be good?

We do not think so. As one who loves God and the beautiful things and good things he has placed on His earth, we believe that a doctrine of courage and of love and forbearance beats all the mournfulness in the world; and that the preacher who stresses these, rather than the certainty of eternal hell in an effort to scare the sinner into the church, does more for the Master than any of the other kind ever can do.

sin itself is the greatest of all evils. Every sinner pays for his sin—and as a sinner we know how big the bill is. It gives you a pretty big taste of hell before you smell the brimstone. No preacher can be as eloquent in behalf of Christianity as an always in. Admitted sinners do not like to be lectured. The thing called conscience usually has beaten the lecturer to it, and the lecturer's effort is puny indeed beside that of conscience. That is one reason such folks do not go to church more.

If the average reprobate could be convinced that he was going to get a reception made kindly by love and sympathy, more of him would be found in church pews. He doesn't respond to the sermon of listening to a of the advertising plan of the association—as much a part of that plan as is the advertisement printed in the papers of the district.

The car may attract more visitors. It is intended that it do so. But nobody can be damaged through seeing the wonderful fair the association has staged for its friends. The buyer of a ticket cannot lose—a sure thing is not a gamble.

AUTO IS A HELP

"With the starting of another school and college term, the great service rendered by the automobile in the interest of education becomes apparent," maintains E. K. Thompson local Durant dealer in four and six cylinder models.

"Not only has the motor car extended the scope of the rural education, but it has been an incentive for the younger generation to continue its education after the grammar school stage. The automobile has encouraged the youth of the nation to go to high school, and to college.

"In the old days, the influence of the little red brick country schoolhouse reached only those who could make the journey on foot or by lifts by passing teams. Even then, the attendance of this small group depended largely upon the weather; the roads, and the neighborhood in the direction of the school house.

"Now the scope of the rural school is very much larger. The big attendance has made the old fashioned red schoolhouse give way to modern structures with all the up-to-date conveniences. The curriculum has been increased to take in high school subjects, and in many instances, collegiate studies. The automobile with its dependability in all kinds of weather has enabled children from a wide range of territory to reap the benefits of an education.

"Many students who do not travel to school daily in the family car are carried from their homes in automobile buses operated as part of the school equipment under the direction of the school authorities. Such a system removes the inconveniences of getting to and from school; relieves the parents' fear as to the safety of the children, and discourages truancy.

"In Philadelphia, several of the old established educational institutions have moved from the centre of the city to the suburbs. A line of buses and the family car makes it just as easy for the student to reach the school location as the old one in the city. Incidentally, the pupils are able to enjoy the many advantages of a school located in the

TRAIN SMASHES INTO AUTOMOBILE

One Selma Man Killed And Another Seriously Injured

Selma, Oct. 6.—J. T. Price was instantly killed and Joseph Whitney was seriously injured when Atlantic Coast Line passenger train crashed into the automobile in which they were riding at a crossing two miles south of Smithfield at 7:30 o'clock this morning. Both men lived here.

Whitney was brought to a local hospital. He suffered a badly fractured thigh and several bruises and cuts about the body. Physicians say he will recover.

Price was killed outright and Whitney seriously injured. He was taken to a hospital in Fayetteville, where he was given surgical attention. Both Price and Whitney were native Selma men and have many relatives and friends here. Price leaves a widow and several children. Whitney is unmarried.

The two men were carpenters and were on their way from Selma to Four Oaks, where they have been doing some construction work.

SIDNA EDWARDS AND FRIEL ALLEN FREED

Richmond, Va., Oct. 7.—Sidna Edwards and Friel Allen, two of six men convicted of shooting up the courthouse at Hillsville in 1912, were given conditional pardons here by Governor E. L. Trinkle.

At the same time the Governor refused pardons to Sidna Allen and Westerly Allen, sentenced to 25 and 27 years' imprisonment, respectively, for their part in the affair in which the presiding judge, Thornton L. Mann, Commonwealth's Attorney W. M. Foster, Sheriff L. F. Webb and a young woman were killed, and Dexter Goad, the clerk, and several jurymen were wounded.

Sidna Edwards was under sentence of 15 years, both being convicted of murder in the second degree.

Governor Trinkle, in announcing the pardons to Sidna Edwards and Friel Allen, declared that their prison record "has been without a mark during the entire period" of their confinement, that both are reformed young men and will in the future lead law-abiding lives and in addition, he was led to believe Sidna Edwards to be of "rather weak mentality." He said he believed the purpose of the

GIANTS VICTORS AGAINST YANKEES

New York National League Club Again Are World's Champions

New York, Oct. 8.—The New York Giants once more are champions of the world. They reached that pinnacle of success for the second consecutive year in a furious uphill rush this afternoon that flung the Yanks to defeat 5 to 3, and crushed a disgraced pitcher, "Bullet Joe" Bush.

It was the second consecutive time the Yanks have bucked the Giants in a world's series and failed. This year they went down ingloriously, without the solace of having captured even one of the five games that comprised the battle for the title. The best the Yankees could do was to tie the second game of the series. The Giants won the other four.

In all the annals of the game only two clubs triumphed in a world series in such a decisive fashion. In 1907 the Chicago Nationals won four straight victories over the Detroit Americans after fighting a 13-inning first game at 2-3 in runs. Seven years later the Boston Braves surprised the fans of the entire nation by wrecking Connie Mack's superb Athletics four games in a row.

KLANS SEEKING TO VINDICATE NAME

Conducting Probe into Alleged Hold Up And Kidnapping

Winston-Salem, Oct. 4.—J. C. Gold a State officer of the Ku Klux Klan was here this afternoon en route home from a trip to Ashe and Alleghany counties, where he completed gathering evidence for what is expected to be the final chapter in the alleged hold-up and kidnapping at Taylorsville a few weeks, in which several persons are said to have impersonated Klansmen by making an assault on L. Jenkins and his woman companion, being attired in home-made regalia of the order.

Mr. Gold reports that he was in Taylorsville yesterday and submitted his findings to Sheriff W. H. Carter, who immediately swore out warrants on information and belief, that Ralph Richardson, John Black, George Hallock and Mack Jones, common

"The Girl From Greenwich Village" Now that the baseball season is over the musical comedy fans will have their innings at the LaPayette Theatre, Wednesday, October 11th, where the sensational musical novelty "The Girl From Greenwich Village," will hold forth. This screamingly funny musical comedy is from the pen of John P. Mulgrew and it is said to be the latest that it is the best show of its kind and smartest French creation. The cast is headed by Ross Snow one of America's foremost comedians and with original songs, dances and music, is ably assisted by Mary Lee, Emily Seymour, Harry and Paul Whitman's celebrated orchestra and a host of scenic production and stanning as well as look beautiful.

AS AN INVESTMENT

In these halcyon days preceding the collapse of finances and the coming of normalcy, The Dispatch dreamed of a hospital, along with the hotel and other things, for Dunn. Then we were thinking from a humanitarian viewpoint. We wanted a hospital to which could be brought the ailing and afflicted of the great Dunn District for treatment—whether or not they had funds with which to pay for such.

Along came Harold Hardtimes, however. Our dream went bloomy. We awoke. We were broke. One could not raise funds for the relief of anything nor to build anything.

Time passed. Again we are enjoying a fair degree of prosperity. We dream again of the hospital. Not now solely as one interested in suffering humanity. We see what looks to be a good investment.

In the last year something more than fifty citizens and citizenesses of Dunn have been escorted to the various hospitals of the East for operations to relieve ailments ranging from adenoids to appendicitis. They have spent an enormous sum—a sum equal probably, to the annual gas bill of the community. The hospital harvest from the countryside around Dunn has been equally fruitful. Hardly a day passes that does not see some person carried to a hospital.

Suppose, now, that Dunn had a really first-class human repair shop to which such as these could be carried for rehabilitation? We will not venture a guess on the revenue that would come to it. But the public can see that there would be sufficient to pay a substantial dividend on a pretty hefty investment and overhead.

PREACHER ENTERS PROTEST

Not for the world would we take issue with our good friend and counselor, Rev. Elbert N. Johnson, pastor of the First Baptist church, on any question involving morals; but in his sermon Sunday, or that part of it relating to the automobile given away by the fair association which we print in this issue, we believe he has taken an erroneous attitude. He holds that the giving of the car is a gamble, and being a gamble should be stamped by all who profess to follow Christ.

If Mr. Johnson will study the method to be used in giving this car away, we believe he will see that the element of gambling is not there. Nothing extra is charged by the association for the coupon which may entitle the holder to the car. Full value is given for the 25 cents or 50 cents the purchaser pays for an admission ticket. The automobile is purely a part of duty in the kindergarten classes in Detroit. The children are instructed in the laws of traffic regulation. These lessons enable them to take care of themselves on the street and right operation of cars later in life. care of themselves on the street and right operation of cars later in life.
