HE KILLED THE "DEAD SEA"

For about an hour a gentleman from Denver had been boasting about the magnificence of the Rockies to an Irish New Yorker.

"You seem to be mighty proud ov m mountains," the Irishman finally observed.

"Yes; but I am," the westerner replied. "And I ought to be, since my ancestors built them."

The Irishman thought this over for a few moments and then asked, "Did you ever happen to hear of the Dead Sea in—in one ov the old countries?"

"Yes, indeed," replied the gentleman from Denver, "I know all about the Dead Sea."

"Well, did you happen to know that me great grandfather killed the thing."—Biblical Recorder.
