"My Uncle from Japan," next week.
 Mrs. M. H. Privett of Spring Hope visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McNeill.

You'll laugh at Mr. McIver as "Hesekiah Barnaby," the "Uncle from Japan," a character study.

There will be a Masonic picnic dinner Thanksgiving day at Newton Grove High School. Everybody invited.

T. L. Riddle, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, left this morning for Sanford, where he will be until Thursday on business.

Mrs. Mamie F. Pittman and her daughter, Miss Kate Pittman, have returned from Raleigh where they spent several days with relatives.

See those clever young interpreters of terpsichore "Davenport and Goldstein," in "Bowery Capers," a specialty in "My Uncle from Japan." It's great.

J. Edwin Cole, who has been visiting his parents, Captain and Mrs. John E. Cole, for several days, left Saturday for Hamlet, where he has accepted a position.

For laughing purposes only "Going to the Races" by McIntyre and Heath up-to-date an "ethiopian absurdity," one of the many features in "My Uncle from Japan." You'll laugh till you cry.

Horace Freeman, manager of the local Pepsi-Cola Bottling Plant, returned Friday from Atlanta, Ga., where he attended a meeting of representatives of the various bottling plants of the southern states.

Raymond Gainey left Monday for Oteen where he will receive treatment at the government hospital. He will decide this week how long he will be at the hospital. If he decides to stay for several weeks Mrs. Gainey will join him there.

Rev. A. G. Doner of Peterboro, Canada, will be in Dunn to begin a series of meetings in the Gospel Tabernacle church, corner King avenue and Cumberland street on December 24 and continue throughout the holidays. A more extended notice will be given later.

Hear that Jazz-Me-La Harmony Four in "My Uncle from Japan." Denning as "Weary Willie," first bass, Denning (Louis) as "Ikey Rosenbaum," second bass. Rya as "Si Steebona," first tenor and Butler as Fritzy Schultz, second tenor. The harmony hounds.

A large number of Harnett farmers and business men left yesterday for Lillington with Farm Demonstration Agent Edge to make a tour of the Piedmont counties of North Carolina. Dunn's representation was small, due to the fact that several who intended to go—including The Dispatch's representative—were suffering from influenza. The party will remain away until next Saturday.

Geo. Riley Hodges, one of the oldest citizens of the Dunn District, will celebrate his 80th birthday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. G. Pittman, Wednesday, November 29th. There will be preaching at 11 o'clock in the morning and dinner will be served at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. All the relatives of the family are invited to come and bring a regular picnic basket of good things to eat.

Henry A. Turlington, owner of Turlington's Duroc Farm in Grove township, reports good sales from hogs the past few weeks. He recently closed a deal with Warren Stock farm where he sold to them "Top Sissors Third," one of his best herd boars. The consideration was not stated, but Mr. Turlington probably got a handsome price for this favorite hog. This boar is a son of the World's Champion "Old Sissors" which has more blue ribbons to his credit than any other boar living.

A large number of the big property owners of Grove township have gotten together and decided to goot their land jointly. They have been advised that quail and other birds are an enemy of the boll weevil and have decided that it would be a wise policy to prevent if possible the killing of these birds. L. L. Turlington, one of the leaders in the movement was in town this morning making arrangements to post the land and notices will be posted during the week on hundreds of acres. Among others interested in the movement are such men as Stuart Turlington, Ex-Sheriff W. H. Turlington, G. M. Stewart and W. A. Stewart.

Rev. G. T. Adams yesterday was appointed by the Methodist Conference to succeed Rev. J. H. Buffalo as pastor of Divine Street Methodist Episcopal church here. Mr. Buffalo was appointed to take charge of Carr Methodist church, Durham. He was also pastor of the local church two years, having succeeded Rev. Jas. M. Daniel upon his elevation to the post of presiding elder of the Wilmington District in 1920. During his service here Mr. Buffalo has been a great force for the moral uplift of the community and his departure will occasion much regret among those with whom he has labored during these two years. The conference continued Mr. Daniel in the office of presiding elder of the Wilmington District and Rev. John H. Shore, a former Dunn pastor, in the office of presiding elder of the Rockingham District. Rev. G. W. Perry was returned to Duke.

D. A. R. WITH MRS. WADE
 The Corneliu Harnett Chapter D. A. R. had a regular meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Wade. After the business meeting, during which the play "My Uncle From Japan," which is to be given November 27-28 at the opera house, was discussed, the program hour was given to Mrs. H. S. McKay for a report of the State conventions at High Point. She reported a most interesting and enthusiastic meeting at which Mrs. Minor, national president general, was present and gave a splendid address setting for the achievements of the organization in the past year some of which were active work on Ellis Island towards Americanisation of immigrants, support of schools throughout the country, historical research work and commemoration of historic spots such as Balley Forge, Plymouth, etc.

The hostess then served a delicious salad course and mids, after which the meeting adjourned.

Want to laugh? Don't miss Miss Edgie Irwin, the modern Mrs. Jiggs as "Lucinda Wilson" in "My Uncle from Japan." Laugh! I'll say you will.

IN HONOR OF MRS. JERE PEARSALL
 Miss Rachel Clifford entertained a number of friends Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Jere Pearsall, Dunn's most recent bride.

Tables were arranged for progressive bridge and after the guests had enjoyed several games, the hostess served a delicious salad course with coffee and stuffed dates.

Mrs. Sansom was presented a set of Ace Jelly moulds for making top score and Mrs. Pearsall was given a blue luster perfume bottle.

Those enjoying Miss Clifford's hospitality were: Mesdames Jere Pearsall, William Pearsall, David Pearsall, Sansom, Fitzgerald, Townsend, Ernest Thompson, Marvin Pittman, Lewis Stephens, Ellison Godard, H. S. McKay, C. J. Smith, Harper Holliday, Henry Lee and Misses Matibel Godwin, Florence Cooper, Lucille Howard, Fannie Monroe, Evelyn Hargreaves, Mattie Henderson, Blanche Grantham, Louise Williams, Ethel Erwin and Pattie Moylan.

Poor old Mr. Henpeck, see his spectacular finish in "My Uncle from Japan," worth going miles to see.

MRS. GEORGIA SARAH GAINAY

It is with deep regret that we chronicle the death of Mrs. Sarah Gainey which occurred at her home on West Broad street, November 5, 1922.

Mrs. Gainey was about 80 years of age and was among the first residents of Dunn and was greatly beloved by all who knew her. She had been a great sufferer for many years, bearing her suffering with great patience and resignation. She became seriously ill only a few days before her death. Loved ones and friends did all in their power to relieve her but she gradually grew weaker, passing away without a murmur.

The funeral was conducted from the Sacred Heart Catholic Church Tuesday afternoon November 7th at 3:00 o'clock by Rev. Father Watkins, her pastor. The body was laid to rest in Greenwood cemetery by the side of her husband, the late Milton Gainey, who preceded her to the grave several years ago.

She leaves one son, Raymond T. Gainey and a daughter Miss Lennie Gainey, also a sister, Mrs. J. P. Cairnes of Washington, N. C., to mourn her demise. The sympathy of the community goes out to them in their sorrow.

A FRIEND.

CARD OF THANKS
 We wish to thank all those friends who aided us by their kindness and offered us their sympathy in the recent illness and death of our beloved Mother.
 May God richly reward them.
 LENNIE GAINAY,
 RAYMOND T. GAINAY.

DUNN GIRL IS TO APPEAR IN STATE WIDE SPELLING CONTEST

There is to be a state-wide spelling contest in Raleigh on the opening day of the Teachers' Assembly Wednesday Nov. 29. In this contest each county is allowed two representatives one from the rural schools and one from the specially chartered schools. The contest for the selection of Harnett's representatives was held at Lillington last Saturday. Merle Owen, from the seventh grade in the Dunn schools, stood first, missing only one word out of one hundred. She will therefore be the representative from the specially chartered schools in Harnett. A seventh grade girl from Buie's Creek will represent the rural schools. The winner in the contest at Raleigh will be awarded a gold medal. A large number of the counties will be represented and the contest will be spirited.

You will receive twice as much for your money when you see "My Uncle from Japan," to say nothing of the worthy cause for which it is given to erect a memorial to the boys who made the supreme sacrifice. Everybody should and will attend.

MRS. JERE PEARSALL, HONORED

Mrs. Jere Pearsall, a recent bride of Dunn, was honored Wednesday afternoon by a beautiful reception given by Mrs. James Pearsall and Mrs. William McKay Pearsall at the home of Mrs. William Pearsall. The home was beautifully decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums. Between the hours of 3:30 and 5:30, about seventy-five guests called. They were met at the door by Mrs. Arthur Pope and shown into the parlor by Mrs. James Best, where they met the receiving line, Mrs. James Pearsall, Mrs. William Pearsall, Mrs. Jere Pearsall and Miss Rachel Clifford.

They were then led to the punch bowl where Miss Blanche Grantham and Miss Louise Williams presided. Mrs. Robert Denning welcomed the guests into the dining room where yellow candles gave a soft glow to the room. Ice cream and cake and nutlets, carrying out the color scheme of yellow and white were served by Misses Annie Belle Noel, Lillian Ezzell, and Christine Thompson.

The bride was before her marriage, Miss Virginia Gibbs, of Warrenton, Ore. She has visited in Dunn several times and her friends here are happy to welcome her here to live.

THANKSGIVING AT BETHESDA

Everybody invited to come to Bethesda Friends church on Thanksgiving night, November 30. Why? The ladies of the church and of the community have made a memory quilt. This quilt will be sold to the highest bidder that night. Also candy, cake and ice-cream will probably be sold. There will be some special songs, and some recitations given. The proceeds from the sales are to go to paying off the debt on the church. Come, expecting to buy some of the best homemade candy, and cake made, and to put in a bid on a real quilt. The Christian Endeavor has charge of the refreshments. Be on time, 6:30 P. M.

SYMPATHY?

Admitting great sympathy with the Dunn Dispatch's nomination of its two excellent townsmen, James A. Taylor and Hannibal L. Godwin for chairman of the board of county commissioners and county attorney, respectively, we feel we must, before seconding the motion, ascertain whether the "court know itself." Reminds us of an incident in the life of the late Daniel Russell, who took in partnership a young attorney for the governorship business came to an end. Attorney General Gilmer was opposing Russell and his young partner in a suit before the supreme court. The attorney general pulled on the executive of an old ruling that no attorney signing certain document; in the case could argue the matter before the court. Russell had signed the court ruled. Whereupon the young attorney bobbed up with "May I please your honor, I didn't sign." Grabbing his youthful side-whoeleer by the top of the neck, Russell gave him an almighty jerk, saying: "Sit down you fool!"

Now if that board doesn't know which one of its members it wants for chairman, and is not capable of determining which of Harnett's forty lawyers shall be its legal adviser, then the honorable board is in the middle of a bad fix. But for our noble selves, we'll refrain from invading the province of the court—Harnett County News.

THE AMERICAN'S CREED

In 1918 William Tyler Page, a descendant of Carter Braxton, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, was awarded a prize of one thousand dollars for a short article entitled "The American's Creed." It is full of the same sentiment that prompted the Declaration of Independence and is much of the Declaration written in short form. It follows: I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States, a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice, and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and defend it against all enemies.

This creed has been learned by more than two million school children, and it is well worth any one's time to read it and see how much can be said in one hundred words. According to Current Opinion, this piece of literature bids fair to become a classic.

Get your tickets for "My Uncle from Japan" early and remember you only just one half-price much for this show here in Dunn as you would in some other town.

To whom it may Concern:
 The undersigned will apply to the Governor for the pardon of Roy Powell who was convicted at the May term 1921 of larceny. Any one opposed to said pardon will file their objection. This Nov. 17th 1922.
