Xmas Is Over But Another One Is Coming. Allow us to thank you, my friends and customers, for your patronage since we have been here in your city. It has been reported that we would leave after Christmas, but let us say that we are here to stay. We told you in our Christmas ad that our brother raised the excellent fruit that we were selling. He is still raising it every day, and we are going to get our share from time to time. You will find it at our place of business with the best line of fruits and candies, also vegetables in season, that the market affords. Again thanking you for your past patronage and soliciting a liberal share in the future. We want you one and all to know that our motto has always been and shall always be satisfaction guaranteed or your money cheerfully refunded. I have just received a message from my brother that he has recently purchased one thousand acres of the finest orange, grape fruit and tangerine farms in the State of Florida and my brother and I stand shoulder to shoulder, so my friends can always get the best stuff at right prices because we are in a position to do this. Remember its my brother and I. Wishing you one and all a prosperous New Year. Yours to Serve, M. S. DIBS
