

LOCAL

Mr. W. P. Dickey has returned from a business trip to Florence, S. C.

Mr. J. W. Whitehead is recovering from an attack of illness which caused him to be confined to his room for several days.

Mr. S. Fleischman, Jr. leaves tonight for Baltimore and New York where he will assist in purchasing goods for the local stores of the Fleischman Bros. Co.

Mr. E. W. Wood of Route 1 from Dunn, was among the visitors in town Friday. Mr. Wood is the son of Mr. Moore Wood, who had 20 brothers and sisters, all of whom lived to be more than 21 years of age.

Mr. F. Grover Britt has been in Lumberton this week making arrangements to move his family to Dunn. They will arrive as soon as the weather is agreeable enough for them to make the trip.

Mr. P. S. Cooper, who came home from Baltimore last week to attend the wedding of his daughter, Miss Florence Cooper, has returned to Baltimore where he is being treated at a hospital.

Mr. J. S. Stewart will leave this week for Wilmington where he will be associated with the Seminole Phosphate Co., plant in that city. He will remain in Wilmington during the fertilizer season.

Mr. Penning West of near Steadman, brother of Mrs. R. M. Pearall of Dunn, died Sunday morning of acute indigestion and was buried Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Pearall attended the burial.

The N. A. Bell Hardware company moved last week from the Phillips building into the new brick building recently erected by this company on East Broad street. It is the purpose of this concern to increase its stock, according to Mr. Geo. M. Floyd, a member of the firm.

The following relatives and friends of the family were here last week to attend the Denning-Cooper wedding: Mrs. F. W. Norton, Mrs. John Cooper and Mrs. Janie Williams of Mullins S. C.; Mrs. A. V. Bethes of Dillon; and Mrs. Cooper, mother of Mr. P. B. Cooper, of Mullins, S. C.

B. A. Rowland is moving his grocery store and pressing club this week into the garage building until recently occupied by Green's Buick Service Station. The service station in the future will be located in the Gerald Sales stable building. Both these buildings are located on S. Wilson avenue.

Mr. John Washburn, a son of Mattie Washburn of Dunn died at Sanatorium yesterday after a brief attack of pneumonia. He had been a patient at Sanatorium for several months and was getting along nicely until pneumonia was contracted. The burial will probably take place at Lillington today. Mrs. Washburn was with him at the time of his death.

Rev. B. P. Smith of Memphis, Tenn., will preach at the Christian Church in Dunn next Sunday morning and evening. Mr. Smith is remembered by a number of Dunn people as he has preached here on former occasions. He is one of the most forceful preachers of his denomination and the people of Dunn will be glad of an opportunity to hear him.

Mr. N. A. Townsend, Harnett's Representative in the Legislature, was named last Friday to head the Executive Committee. This places Harnett's Representative at the head of the most important committees and his friends back home feel that he will fill the place with credit to himself and the State. Mr. Townsend is fast becoming one of the most influential members of the House.

The Wesley Bible class of the Methodist Sunday school, will give a banquet in the fraternal hall Friday night. Mr. Z. V. Snipes, chairman of the social committee, is making an effort to get in touch with all members of the class to get the assurance that they will be present. It is the desire of Mr. Snipes that all members attend the banquet, as well as all prospective members, but it is necessary for him to know that the proper number of plates may be prepared.

Some valuable property will be offered for sale at auction by the Atlantic Coast Realty Co., here next Friday. In a page ad. in this issue a full description of the property may be seen. The property is owned by Mayor J. L. Wade and some of the most desirable business and residential property in Dunn will be sold at your own price. The sale starts at 10:30 o'clock Friday morning. In the afternoon the valuable farm property of Mr. Wade will be offered to the public.

Mr. Preston S. Cooper who has been confined for several weeks in a hospital in Baltimore, has tendered his resignation as president of the First National Bank of Dunn. His resignation has been accepted by the Board of Directors and Vice-President J. W. Drayton will exercise the duties of president until the annual meeting of the stockholders February 15th, when a president will be elected. His friends and associates hope that Mr. Cooper, now relieved of business cares, will rapidly regain his health.

MINNES CROCKETT AND CANNADY ENTERTAIN

Miss Ruby Crockett and Miss Agnes Cannady delightfully entertained Friday evening from 8:30 to 11:30 at the home of Mrs. J. E. Crockett in honor of the Oxford Basketball team.

The guests were met at the door by Miss Ruby Crockett and ushered into the dining room where delicious punch was served. Dancing and progressive conversation were the chief features of the evening.

Later a tempting salad course was served by the hostess.

LANCASTER-GARRISS

Wilson, Feb. 5.—At the parsonage of the First Methodist church in this city Miss Bessie May Garriss, daughter of Mrs. J. H. Garriss, were united in marriage by Rev. F. S. Dove, yesterday evening. Both of the contracting parties are popular young people of this city.

After their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Lancaster will reside in Dunn, where Mr. Lancaster has accepted the position of manager of the Colonial Theatre just open in that town.

The marriage was a quiet affair, being witnessed by only a few friends.

DUNN, ROUTE ONE

Rev. J. A. Campbell, of Buies Creek, filled his regular appointment at Spring Branch Sunday, using for his theme John 15:11. In spite of the inclement weather, a large crowd was present.

Every day in every way, things seem to be getting better, except one day. The farmers of this section have been doing excellent work the past week in preparation of the coming spring days, which are rapidly approaching. They are optimistic.

Miss Lucy Naylor, student at State School at Salisbury, spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. J. T. Naylor.

M. M. Jernigan, of Dunn, was a visitor here Sunday.

Mrs. M. W. Naylor, visited her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Page, of Clement section Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Barefoot, continues right sick, we regret to note.

Mrs. Geo. Naylor of Dunn, visited friends here last week.

Misses Lela Strickland and Sallie Naylor, of Dunn, were guests of Miss Lucy Naylor, Sunday.

Mr. K. L. Strickland and family have moved to Fayetteville.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Lee, who have lived in Durham for the past year have moved back to their farm near here.

Howard, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Tate, underwent a surgical operation at Highsmith hospital recently. He is getting along fine.

Mingo Sunday school is doing some fine work these days. The superintendent has been working to build up his school under what is known as the six point system and it seemed that his efforts had been partly successful, when on last Sunday he announced that every member of the Junior class was a one hundred per centum scholar. This class has for its teacher, Mrs.

DUNN'S BEST PEOPLE

SEE DELNORA FAMILY
Many of Dunn's better-class people are daily taking advantage of the great work that the Great Delnora is doing. She has read for many in the past month and enjoyed great success that have been perplexing questions with her magic art.

Those who have not yet been to see her better do so, once as she will only be here till the latter part of March. She comes from Philadelphia, where she has permanently located for two years. She has scores of letters from all over the United States praising her work. Located on Magnolia Avenue, just beyond and across the street from New Grammar School—look for her banner.—Adv.
