

WILL PRESENT PLAY AT NEWTON GROVE

Great American Passion Show Will Be Given There 17, 24 and 27

Newton Grove, March 16.—At Newton Grove, St. Mark's hall, the Newton Grove Dramatic society will present "Veronica's Veil". The play tells the story of Christa Passion and has brought crowds from all over the country to West Hoboken where it is given every Lent. The New York Herald has styled it as "America's Passion Play." Saturday 17th, 24th and 27th of March. The play is composed of five acts and seven tableaux. Beautiful scenery, gorgeous costumes, fine acting and all that will satisfy the lovers of art and clean wholesome drama. Fifty characters are represented. Everyone should witness this play. Certain times at 8 o'clock. Admission, adults 50c, children 25c. Come early and avoid standing, as there are no reserved seats. The Christmas does not speak as in the world-wide Passion Play, but only moves through the various tableaux and in this American Passion Play the story is well presented.

I WONDER

One day I walked into a store And saw a man get mighty sore. Because he was having an awful time In picking from off the counter, a dime. I wonder what this man would say, If he was cold and cramped in a sleigh. Would a bunch of pennies in an old mail box Make this man's language cause many shocks? Paul R. Snyder, No. 4.

THE DOCTOR'S LAMENT

Last night when others were at rest I rode about and did my best To save some patients called by fate From traveling through the Golden Gate. This morning when the news I spied, I thought they might as well have died:

"Two hundred Injured in a Wreck," "Man Falls, Sustains a Broken Neck," "Two Drown While Rocking a Canoe," "Grade Crossing Murders Twenty-two," "Five Killed by Falling Aeroplane," "Three Shot by Moron, Now Insane," "Gas Blast takes Lives of Twenty-three," "Two Die Ninth Falling Apple Crash."

All night I toiled to save one life, And millions die in useless strife; What can it help to make one well, While thousands harken to death's knell? What boots my little recompense? Why can't the world have common sense?

BEARING MARKS OF MANY FOREIGN PORTS, BARGE MAN WAS MOST TATOOED MAN

New York, March 14.—The body of Frederick Herman, a former barge captain, was declared by officials as the city morgue tonight to be more tattooed than any other ever seen there. Circumstances surrounding his death have not been learned.

Herman's body, legs, arms and neck were covered with designs, apparently tattooed at most of the foreign ports of the world. On the chest was a full rigged ship, while directly below it was a picture of Ben Hur's chariot race. Around the neck two snakes were entwined. On the upper right arm the "Rock of Ages," a German and American flag was intertwined on the left leg. A tombstone, bearing the caption "In Memory of Mother" was tattooed on the back.

IN MEMORY OF BESSIE WARD

On the first day of March 1923, the spirit of Bessie Ward took its flight to the world above. She had been sick about ten days with blood poison. She was the daughter of the late Otis and Mittie Ward who preceded her to the grave about four years. There was only one week's difference in the death of the parents who left only two children, Leslie and Bessie Ward. She was 13 years, three months and twelve days old. She was of a sweet, loving disposition and loved by all who knew her. She was very obedient to all and always ready to do her Master's will. Although she had never united with any church it seemed that Jesus was near her and that she was trusting in his word. Just before she died she said "Jesus be sure to save me" and we believe she is resting safely in the arms of Jesus. She possessed rare beauty, excellent qualities, a fine mind and a high character. She was one of the loveliest flowers of His earthly garden. Why it was that one so sweet and so beautiful should be taken at such a young age is more than we can understand but we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well. She was a great favorite with her school mates. She was too sweet, too pure for this world of sin so Jesus took her to dwell with him. She leaves only one brother Leslie Ward, a grandfather and grand mother and several uncles and aunts to mourn their loss. She had made her home with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Blaney Dudley since the death of her parents. The funeral was preached the following day by Rev. Mr. Phillips of the Methodist church at the old home and the body tenderly laid to rest in the family burial ground at the Ward place amidst a host of friends.

HER AUNT.

"Built Me Up"

"I USED Cardui for years and it did me more good than any medicine I ever used," writes Mrs. M. C. Ragdale, of Fort Towson, Okla. "I used to suffer with womanly trouble that weakened me until I was a mere shadow, nervous, and could not sleep. I did not feel like I could live. It seemed that nothing helped me till I heard of Cardui and began to use it. It strengthened me and, as 'twas recommended to do, it regulated and built me up till I was like another woman. If you are weak, run-down and feel that you need a tonic, take Cardui, the woman's tonic, the tonic about which you have always heard, the tonic that helps weak women regain their strength. Cardui acts on the womanly system and helps relieve pain and discomfort due to female ailments. Try Cardui, today, for your trouble."
