F. M. Barnes of Lumberton spent Tuesday night in Dunn.

H. E. Page of Benson has accepted a position in W. A. Thornton's barber shop.

United States Marshal R. W. Ward of Raleigh spent Wednesday in Dunn on business.

Born: To Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thomas, at their home in Dunn Tuesday night, a girl.

Work was begun yesterday on the new $35,000 Christian church, Cumberland street and Clinton avenue.

A special Easter program will be rendered at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Dunn citizens are co-operating with Jno. A. McLeod, state sanitary inspector, who has been here for several days, according to Mr. McLeod.

Memories R. M. Warren, J. A. McLeod and J. L. Parker are attending in Durham the Baptist Women's Missionary convention, which opened Tuesday.

An Easter Cantata, "The Conquering King," will be rendered by the choir at the First Baptist church Sunday evening at 7:30. The public is invited.

The Bright Jewels will render an Easter Program at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Mollie Cole of Chicago, Ill., arrived yesterday and will spend a week here visiting at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Peasfall.

Mrs. G. R. Warren returned home Wednesday from the Pittman hospital, Fayetteville, where five weeks ago she underwent an operation. Her condition is very favorable.

Those holding savings deposit pass books on the State Bank and Trust Co. are requested to take them to the bank in order that the accounts may be properly checked.

L. U. Sizell, local building inspector, has issued a permit for the erection of a parsonage by the colored Methodist church on South Wilson avenue. A 5-room building will be erected.

Some changes have been made in the interior of the Wilson and Lee drug store. A show window has been installed at the front of the building which adds much to the appearance of the store.

All people interested in eradicating tuberculosis in Harnett county should be in Lillington on Monday, April 2nd. The matter will be discussed before the board of county commissioners.

The merchants of Dunn are preparing to take care of a large spring trade and the buying public would do well to read their advertisements in The Dispatch. Attractive Easter windows are to be seen in the various stores.

An old time fiddlers' convention will be held in the school auditorium at Benson Thursday evening April 5, at 8 o'clock. Cash prizes approximating $50 will be awarded to the participants. A night of fun and enjoyment is promised.

N. A. Butler Monday sold his stock of groceries to the Carolina Grocery Co., of which Earl L. Dawson is manager. The new company will carry a complete line of groceries in the same building formerly occupied by Mr. Butler, on Clinton avenue.

The Sanitary Pressing Club, under the management of Vernon Masson, opened for business on S. Clinton avenue this week. They have a well equipped plant and also represent the Fayetteville Dry Cleaning Plant. They make a specialty of tailor made suits.

As was stated in Tuesday's Dispatch, the annual meeting of the stockholders and directors of the Harnett County Agricultural Fair association will be held in the Chamber of Commerce office this (Friday) evening at 7:30 o'clock. This being the annual meeting, it is important that all stockholders be present.

All members of the old Dunn concert band and other musicians are requested to meet in the Chamber of Commerce rooms Thursday night, April 5 at 8 o'clock. It will not be necessary to take musical instruments to the meeting, the purpose of which will be to discuss the matter of re-organizing the band.

Madge Bellamy, who appears in the leading feminine role of "The Cup of Life," Thomas H. Ince's big Associated Producers special, playing Monday at the Colonial Theatre made her first appearance on the New York stage when only fifteen. Her most notable success was secured with William Gillette in "Dear Brutus."

The following Dunn young people have arrived home from college to spend Easter: Miss Florence Holliday, from the North Carolina College for Women, Greensboro; Misses Benjie Remsuar and Lucy Pope, Salem College, Winston-Salem; Elizabeth Essell, Greensboro college, Greensboro; J. C. Clifford, Jr., N. C. State college, Raleigh; Fulton Lee, Trinity College, Durham.

Both the Dunn banks will be closed Monday for Easter.

Henry Jackson left yesterday for Wilson where he will join Yarborough's Orchestra as saxophone player. He is one of Dunn's popular young musicians who has shown unusual musical talent and his many friends here feel that he will make good.

EASTER AT METHODIST CHURCH

A live Easter welcome awaits everyone at the Methodist church Sunday.

The doors of the church will be open at both services for the reception of new members. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered at the morning service. Every member of the church is urged to be present. At the evening service the pastor will preach on "If a Man Die Shall He Live Again."

MRS. N. A. TOWNSEND ENTER-TAINS BOOK CLUB

Mrs. N. A. Townsend entertained the Thursday Afternoon Book club at its regular annual business meeting Thursday afternoon. Jonquils in profusion added to the beauty of the spacious rooms in which the guests were received. Mrs. Townsend presided and Mrs. Butler read the minutes and called the roll. Mrs. Ernest Jeffreys and Mrs. Fred McKay were elected to fill two vacancies which existed in the membership of the club. The program committee suggested several subjects for next year's study but no decision was reached in regard to them. New officers elected for next year were: Mrs. Edward Smith, president; Mrs. H. O. Mattox, vice-president; Mrs. J. R. Butler, secretary; Mrs. Horace Freeman, treasurer, and Mrs. J. W. Thornton reporter.

Three years ago the Book club with the help of some of the men of the town, purchased an encyclopedia Britannica. It was decided to give this with other books which the club had accumulated with the idea of beginning a public library to the library for which the Woman's club is working.

When the business meeting was over Mrs. Mattox gave a sketch of the life of Materlink and an interesting outline and discussion of The Blue Bird. Then the guests were invited into dining room and seated at tables, most attractive with centerpieces of jonquils and individual jonquils. Nut cups, creamed chicken, hot rolls, stuffed eggs, fruit salad-coffee, ice cream and cake were served. Guests besides the club members were Mrs. L. A. Tart, Mrs. Fleming Ramsour, Mrs. Carl Barefoot, and Mrs. Ernest Jeffreys.

MR. L. W. GODWIN DIED THIS MORNING

L. W. Godwin, aged 65 years, died at 8 o'clock this morning at the home of his brother, Jeff Godwin, in the western part of town, of paralysis. Deceased had suffered two strokes before, but was able to walk with the aid of crutches. He was out walking around yesterday and his death came as a surprise. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon, though the exact hour has not been announced. It will be remembered that Mrs. Godwin was killed some two years ago by lightning, which struck the Godwin home. Mr. Godwin was lying on the same bed with his wife when she was killed and himself escaped injury.

MR. JOHN McLAMB BADLY HURT

Last Tuesday, afternoon while making logs out of Mingo Swamp, Mr. John McLamb happened to the misfortune to get his right leg broken, just above the knee. He was brought to town and rushed to Fayetteville on Train 89. Mr. McLamb is a son of Mr. Joe McLamb who lives near Benson.—Eastern News.

MUCH CLEAN UP WORK BEING DONE

The citizens of Dunn are observing "clean up week" in a creditable manner, according to N. B. Bass, superintendent of streets. Four wagons have been busy all this week hauling away trash and rubbish placed out on the streets by the citizens. The wagons will be kept on this job until all the trash has been moved and those who have not yet done their part in making the town clean and sanitary are urged to get busy.

MICRO BOY DROWNED

Son of Perry Holland Falls in Attempt to Swim River

Smithfield, March 29.—The 14-year-old son of Perry Holland, of Micro township, was drowned Thursday afternoon in Little River, near the old Bagley station. The boy, together with his brother and others, was on his way to work about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, it being necessary to cross the river to get to their place of work. Instead of going over on the boat the boy swam across. According to the report which reached here after swimming across he decided to turn and swim back. Evidently he was overcome with the cold or had cramp for he found himself unable to swim and went down. His brother with the boat made an effort to reach him but not until he sank for the last time. His body was recovered in about forty minutes, a doctor was called and efforts were made to resuscitate him but to no avail.

The funeral took place Friday afternoon.

TO BUILD $500,000 MILL AT LUMBERTON

Lumberton, March 29.—Contract for the construction of the Mansfield Mill, the newest addition to the textile industry of Lumberton, has been let to E. H. Clement, mill contractor, of Charlotte. The Mansfield Mill when completed and equipped with the most modern machinery, is expected to cost half a million dollars. The four mills now operating here are spinning mills but the Mansfield will be a weaving mill. The principal product is to be satone, generally used for coat linings. This will be the only plant in this territory turning out a similar product, it is said.

SAYS EASTER WEATHER WILL BE BELOW NORMAL

Washington, March 29.—Looking ahead to Sunday, which happens to be Easter, the weather man whose forecast territory embraces eastern states, saw little tonight that would comfort the average feminine mind. The temperature, he predicted, will be "below normal." Cloudy weather, with rain or snow in many sections, will be general east of the Mississippi during the next two days. A break in the cold snap may come tomorrow in the Atlantic states, but colder weather will overspread the Ohio valley and lower lake region tomorrow and Saturday and the middle and north Atlantic states, Tennessee and the interior of the east gulf states tomorrow night and Saturday.
