

LOCAL

Anter Williams of Aubryville, was a business visitor in Dunn Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert McKay and J. W. Turnage are spending the day in Raleigh.

Eugene Parker of Rockingham, spent the week here with his father, E. L. Parker.

Mrs. R. B. Jernigan is in the Pittman Hospital, where she was operated on last week.

Mrs. Rowland Stone and small son of Tampa, Florida, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Britt.

Dr. T. D. Wilson of Cleveland, Ohio, is spending some time in Dunn the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Best.

W. H. Jackson of The Dispatch force, has been confined to his home on South Layton avenue for the past few days. He is still unable to be out.

There is yet hope that all the peach crop has not been killed as a result of the cold weather. It is said. Quite a number of peaches are still on the trees.

The town is extending its service water lines on South Fayetteville avenue and on West Divine street, to the residence of J. N. Creel, Sr., and H. A. Black.

Sophronia, 7 1/2 month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Starling, who live near Godwin, died Saturday morning. The cause of the child's death has not been learned.

Rev. G. T. Adams, pastor of the Dunn Methodist church, is attending in Greensboro today a meeting of the board of trustees of the Greensboro college, of which board he is a member.

Yesterday was the birthday of two well-known Dunn citizens—E. Loe and V. L. Stephens. The Dispatch has not been authorized, however to state which of their birthdays it marked.

Mrs. A. M. Floyd and daughter, Miss Lois Floyd, and son, E. L. Floyd, all of orrum, Robeson county, spent Sunday here visiting at the home of Mrs. Floyd's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Floyd.

The regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Dunn Chamber of Commerce will be held in the Chamber of Commerce office Friday evening of this week at 8 o'clock. All members are urged to attend.

The fire alarm was sounded yesterday noon on account of a blaze at the home of Bill Holland, 400 East Broad street. The fire was extinguished before the fire company reached the scene and very little damage resulted.

There will be a fiddlers' convention in the school house at Godwin Thursday night at 8 o'clock. There will be buck and wing dancing, ragtime hits, and a musical concert after the contest. Cash prizes will be given the winners. The price of admission will be 20 and 35 cents.

Miss Dora Barbour of Dunn, is making a strong run for the free trip to Portland, Oregon, during the summer, which is being offered by the Smithfield Observer. She is second in the race and is doing some splendid work for the Smithfield paper. Miss Barbour would appreciate subscriptions from any Dunn people who care to take The Observer.

Rev. A. R. McQueen, pastor of the Dunn Presbyterian church, and D. L. Pridden, a member of the local church, are attending in Fayetteville the Fayetteville Presbytery. The meeting opened today and will probably last through Friday. Geo. Hobson is attending as a delegate from the Grove Presbyterian church, of which Mr. McQueen is also pastor.

Dr. O. P. Owen, Federal swine inspector, is expected to spend some time in Harnett county about the first of June, according to H. A. Edge, county farm demonstration agent, who was a Dunn visitor yesterday. Dr. Owen's work deals with hog cholera prevention and Harnett farmers who wish his advice should make it known to Mr. Edge, who is trying to arrange for his work before he arrives in the county.

they are buying the poison. However, large numbers of the farmers are not buying any poison, according to H. A. Edge, county farm demonstration agent. Farmers who wish to buy calcium arsenate would do well to confer with Mr. Edge or W. Bruce Mabey, who is in charge of the local boll weevil field station.

THURSDAY AFTER-

NOON BOOK CLUB

On the afternoon of April the 12th, the club met with Mrs. J. W. Thornton. On arriving the guests were served refreshing punch by Mrs. Earl Barefoot and Mrs. J. J. Lane.

The club was called to order by the president, Mrs. N. A. Townsend. The minutes were read and approved. The topic for the afternoon, was: "The Irish Dramatic Movement; Yeats, Lady Gregory and Synge."

Mrs. Townsend gave a most interesting review of the formation of the Irish National Theatre, its progress, the distinctive characteristics of its organization, its acting, staging and "amateur" qualities.

Mrs. Goldstein told us something of the work of Yeats and Synge, showing how the folk-legends of Ireland collected by Lady Gregory had been used by them in writing romantic plays. Mrs. Whitehead then gave a comprehensive resume of "Riders to the Sea." Here Synge pictures a tragically showing man's defeat in the struggle against the forces of nature.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Barefoot, and Mrs. Lane, served a delicious salad course, followed by cream, cake and nuts.

Club members present were: Mrs. Townsend, Mrs. Ed. Smith, Mrs. Fitz-gerald, Mrs. Mattox, Mrs. Whitehead, Mrs. Goldstein, Mrs. Highsmith, Mrs. Tilghman, Mrs. Jeffries, Mrs. Fred McKay and Mrs. Butler.

Other guests: Mrs. W. S. Snipes, Mrs. Z. V. Snipes, Mrs. Earl Barefoot, Mrs. Carl Barefoot, Mrs. J. J. Lane and Mrs. P. A. Lee

DEAN VARDELL GIVES RECITALS

Thursday, February 15th, Mr. Vardell gave an organ recital in the Central Methodist church, Albemarle, under the auspices of the Wesley Bible Class. We quote from the Albemarle Press: "Albemarle had a rare treat last Thursday, when Mr. Chas. Vardell, Jr., Dean of the Conservatory of Flora McDonald College, gave an organ recital in the church. He was introduced to the large audience by Rev. C. M. Piekens. His coming among us was directly due to the efforts of Mrs. J. D. Bivins (Bivins' Street, 42-49), who was a friend of Mr. Vardell and also a pupil of his mother. Mr. Vardell is of striking personality, and his readiness to respond to entreats showed he loved his art for its true worth and was willing to divide his great talents with those who loved music, but not as a gift. Quite a crowd gathered, music lovers from all over our city and several nearby towns. Judging from the splendid attention and unusual applause the beautiful tones of the organ, under the touch of such a genius made impressions that will not soon fade away. His selections were from master musicians of the very best, and chief among them were his own compositions, which repeatedly called for encores."

THE WOMAN'S CLUB BUSINESS MEETING

The last regular business meeting of the Woman's Club was held in the club room Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Despite the rainy weather the attendance was good, twenty-four responding to roll call. The meeting was of unusual interest, as the yearly reports of officers were given.

From these reports it was seen that the club has done much work during the past year.

The treasurer, Mrs. Butler, reported that $486.87 had been paid into the treasury since last April. Out of this the club has purchased a piano, kitchen cabinet, and have had an electric range installed in the club room, thereby almost entirely descriptions had been collected, as well as several donations in cash; and a good number of books.

Mr. R. O. Primrose has recently donated an edition of Burns.

It was with regret that the club had to accept the resignation of Mrs. Fred McKay as president. Her work has been faithfully and willingly discharged, and it was largely due to her untiring efforts that the club has accomplished what it has during her term past as its leader. In replacing her the club will not find it an easy matter, for she has certainly devoted the greater part of her time to the work of the club, and this means a great sacrifice that few are willing to make. The club gave Mrs. McKay a hearty rising vote of thanks for her service to the club during the past year.

The election of new officers for the coming year has not as yet been completed. The following were elected Friday to comprise the Executive Board for 1923-24:

1st vice-president, Mrs. B. Taylor; treasurer, Mrs. W. B. Thompson; recording secretary, Mrs. W. S. Snipes; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. S. Farthing; chairman music department, Mrs. W. E. Coltrane; chairman economics department, Mrs. Carl Fitchett; chairman civics department, Mrs. V. L. Stephens; sub-chairman, civics department, Mrs. H. L. Godwin; chairman ways and means committee, Mrs. J. J. Wade.

A full list of officers will be given at an early date.

After the election of the above officers the club elected from the floor a new nominating committee composed of the following: Mrs. J. J. Wade, chairman; Mrs. W. B. Thompson, Mrs. E. M. Jeffries, Mrs. H. L. Godwin, Mrs. C. W. Harris.

The meeting was adjourned at 5:30 to enjoy a social hour with the host-

Is Ready to Help Fight the Boll Weevil

To assist our patrons who need funds with which to diversify crops and to provide means for combatting the boll weevil, we will make loans commensurate with the needs of our patrons and consistent with safe banking. We do not feel justified, however, in extending loans to farmers whose sole dependence is on cotton and who are not willing to use approved methods in fighting the pest.
