An international truck, equipped for carrying twelve passengers, is in use. The bus makes two round-trips daily, leaving Dunn at 7 a. m., and 4:15 p. m. Returning from Clinton the bus is scheduled to reach Dunn at 12:30 p. m. and 8:45 p. m.

GODWIN & JERNIGAN DISSOLVE PARTNERSHIP

The law firm of Godwin & Jernigan has been dissolved by mutual consent, M. M. Jernigan, junior of the time.

THE WOMAN'S CLUB

There was a called meeting of the Woman's club, Monday afternoon, in the club room. Mrs. N. A. Townsend, president, presided.

The purpose of the meeting was to elect two ladies to be recommended to the board of commissioners on Monday night, to be elected by them to fill any existing vacancies on the school board.

The following were recommended: Mesdames Clarence J. Smith and J. W. Whitehead. A committee appointed by the president to present resolutions drawn by the club to board of commissioners was as follows: Mesdames I. F. Hicks, J. J. Wade, and Miss Jessie Smith.

It was voted that the Woman's club go on record endorsing petition for Sunday blue law. This being the only business, the club adjourned.

member of the firm, having recently been elected recorder of the Dunn district. Mr. Jernigan will give his attention to such matters as will not conflict with his duties as judge of the recorder's court, while H. L. Godwin, senior member of the firm, will continue his general practice. Both members of the old firm will occupy the same office as heretofore.

PEOPLES SUPPLY CO. IS IN BANKRUPTCY

Owing to an involuntary petition in bankruptcy, the Peoples Supply Company, of Dunn, was closed Friday of last week. J. W. Whitehead has been named temporary receiver by Judge H. G. Connor. This company, which did a wholesale grocery business, was organized some five years ago. P. S. Cooper is president and Edwin B. Cooper vice-president and manager.

COPPER STILL CAPTURED THREE MILES FROM DUNN

A posse of local officers yesterday captured a copper whiskey still of 20-gallon capacity, near Gainey's bridge, some three miles south of Dunn. The worm of the still and a barrel of beer were found at the home of George Council, colored, and he was arrested and placed in the town lock-up. The still proper was found near Council's home. The officers making the raid were A. B. Adams, special prohibition officer, Deputies H. H. McLeod and L. W. Tart.

JESSE JONES OF GODWIN PASSED AWAY SUNDAY

Jesse M. Jones, aged about 60 years, died Sunday about noon at his home at Godwin, death resulting from heart trouble. Deceased had been ill for several days and his death was not unexpected. Mr. Jones was well and favorably known and is survived by his second wife and several children. The funeral was conducted from the home this afternoon at 2 o'clock and interment was made in the cemetery at old Bluff church with Masonic honors. Deceased was one of Godwin's best and most-loved citizens and in his death the town and community sustained a great loss.

BIZZELL-BRYAN

Newton Grove, May 31.—A very pretty and attractive wedding was solemnized at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bryan, of Newton Grove, when their daughter, Miss Pauline Elizabeth, became the bride of Mr. Price Ollen Bizzell, Rev. W. J. Jones, of Salisbury, officiating in a most impressive manner.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. C. C. Carroll, aunt of the bride, sweetly sang "At Dawning," accompanied by Mrs. George Herring. The wedding march from Lohengrin, rendered by Mrs. C. C. Carroll, was used as a processional and played softly during the ceremony, while Mendelssohn's was used as a recessional. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and bride-groom left for Washington, D. C., and other northern cities.

CONGRATULATES JERNIGAN

The Democrat congratulates its young friend, Mr. M. M. Jernigan, of Dunn, upon two notable distinctions that came to him last week. In the first place, as superintendent of the Baptist Sunday school of Dunn he has made such a glorious success that several pages of the Sunday School Builder, an illustrated magazine published by the Southern Baptists at Nashville, Tenn., gave several pages to a writeup and pictures of his church and school. In the second place, he was elected judge of the Harnett county Recorder's Court. Mr. Jernigan is a native of this county and attended school here several years ago. Accordingly, his well merited distinctions are more than gratifying to his many friends here and throughout the upper half of the county.—Sampson Democrat.

Ambassador George Harvey, with 21 trunks, was a recent guest at the White House. That's a lot of baggage—beg pardon, luggage—for a man who wears knee pants most of the time.

CLASS EXERCISES HIGHLY PLEASING

Portrait of Late McD. Holliday Presented To The Dunn Schools

An audience that filled to overflowing the Metropolitan opera house last evening witnessed the class day exercises of the graduating class of the Dunn high school. While the occasion was one mixed with both sorrow and gladness for the twenty-five members of the class, the exercises were altogether delightful and brought much applause from the audience.

The exercises were opened with the class song, this being followed in their order by the following program:

President's address, Carl Wilcox; our colors, Elizabeth Davis; our flowers, Emily Newberry; song to freshmen, by class; our motto, Orren Dowd; class history, Emily Grantham; class poem, Allen Lee; class statistics, Katherine Burts; song to sophomores, by class; presentations from scrap bag, Lucile Creel; appreciation to teachers, Ruth Young; last will and testament, William Pearce; song to juniors, by class; presentation of gifts, Mildred Shell; class prophecy, Bessie Massengill; farewell song, by class.

Each member of the class appearing on the program acquitted themselves well, with credit to both the individual and the teachers.

A nicely framed portrait of the late McD. Holliday, who at the time of his death was a member of the board of school trustees, was presented to the school by Miss Mildred Shell. In presenting the portrait Miss Shell paid glowing tribute to the deceased member of the school board. The portrait was accepted on behalf of the school and the school trustees by N. A. Townsend. Mr. Townsend also spoke words of praise for the late Mr. Holliday, referring to him as a man who was a friend to everybody and one who knew not an enemy. Mr. Townsend took occasion to mention the great interest which Mr. Holliday took in the Dunn schools and education generally. His influence still lives and will continue to bless humanity, said Mr. Townsend, who in conclusion likened his subject to one who lived in a house by the side of the road and was a friend to man.

The finals of the commencement will take place in the opera house this evening at 8:30 o'clock, when Dr. Chas. E. Brewer, president of Meredith college, Raleigh, will deliver the annual literary address and diplomas will be delivered to members of the graduating class.

AUTRYVILLE NEWS

(By D. W. Hall.) Autryville, June 2.—Mrs. D. W. Edwards, of Hamlet, was down no long since, and spent a while with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Surrill Sessoms, and other relatives and friends.

Two children of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Parker have been critically ill the past few weeks, but are improving at this writing. Mrs. Sallie Hall, who has been in ill health for some time, is somewhat improved.

Miss Martha Ann Hall, who has been an invalid for the past year has somewhat improved. Miss Letta Mae Sessoms spent the afternoon of the 27th with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pascal Sessoms, in Little Coharie, near Autryville. She was a student of the Autryville school during the past session.

A protracted meeting will begin the first Sunday in July, to be held two weeks, by the pastor, Rev. Joel S. Johnson, of Cedar Creek.

The official members of the Autryville Sunday school this year are as follows: L. M. Cooper, superintendent; S. J. Faircloth, assistant superintendent; John L. Autry, teacher for Bible class; I. L. Vinson, teacher for senior class for boys; Mrs. Bryna Ann Lewis, teacher for girls; Mrs. W. F. Sessoms, teacher for junior class; Mrs. Z. V. Spell, teacher for intermediate class; Mrs. N. J. Autry, teacher for card class; A. E. Hall, choir director; Miss Mercedes Spell, organist; Miss Mary J. Naylor, secretary and treasurer.

They also have a B. Y. P. U. meeting every Thursday night under the management of the pastor.

BRIDE KILLS BROTHER IN PLAY WITH PISTOL

Snaps Weapon Supposed To Have Been Unloaded In His Face During A Frolic

Monroe, May 26.—Mrs. R. E. Klutz, 18 years old, and a bride of 15 days, accidentally shot and killed her brother, Vernon Wenz, 28 years old, while playing with a revolver from which she thought she had extracted the shells at the Wenzs home, eight miles from Monroe, Friday night.

A neighborhood crowd had congregated at the Wenzs home in Vance township and the bride during the course of the evening went to a bureau and took therefrom a revolver from which she thought she had extracted all the shells before she snapped the weapon in the face of her brother. There was one ball still in the chamber, which exploded with fatal result.

A coincidence is that this is said to be the same weapon with which her brother-in-law, Matthews Klutz, shot and killed the mail carrier, Chambers, for which crime he is now in jail at Monroe, and on which charge he is scheduled to be tried at the term of court to be held next month.

Mrs. Klutz is said to have been warned not to handle the revolver.
