MUSICAL PROGRAM WAS DELIGHTFUL

The concert given by Miss Agnes Cannady's classes at the graded school auditorium Tuesday morning was attended by a large and enthusiastic audience. Every number on the program was well rendered and showed the careful training that the pupils had received in this work.

The Woman's club had offered two prizes to winners in the music memory contests, which were put on in the sixth and seventh grades. These tests were given about two weeks ago. It was necessary to conduct two or three tests since in the first test quite a number of pupils handed in perfect papers. In the final test Marian Beams won first prize and Ruth Bell second. These prizes were presented at the exercises Tuesday morning by Mrs. J. W. Fitzgerald. Mrs. Fitzgerald gave high praise to Miss Cannady for the work she has been doing in public school music. She also took occasion to stress the importance of this work in the public schools.

Sams of Polk county who sees his co-operators now growing summer legumes, grasses, permanent pastures and livestock in place of old crops of cotton and corn. 2,278 farmers in North Carolina have signed the pledge to "Live at

LADY GOT SO WEAK COULD SCARCELY STAND

After Suffering From Many Female Troubles This Lady Heard of Cardui and Took It, She Says, "Until I Was Well."

"SOME TIME AGO," says Mrs. Duess McFarland of S. F. D. 2, Beula, N. C., "I suffered a great deal with weakness common to women. I had bearing-down pains, my sides and back hurt, and my limbs drew. I would get so weak in my knees I could scarcely stand."
"I was very nervous, and could not read. I didn't feel like eating. I grew thin, and did not have ambition for anything."
"I had been trying other remedies... but did not get any better."
"Some one told us of Cardui, and what it was recommended for. I also took a Ladies' British Almanac and found of a case something like mine. I told my husband to get it and I would try it."
"I saw a great improvement after the first bottle (of Cardui), so I kept it up until I was well. Now I am the picture of health."
Thousands of other women have written, to tell of the beneficial results obtained by taking Cardui, and to recommend it to others.
Cardui has stood the test of extensive use, for more than forty years, in the treatment of troubles common to women. Try it.
