Commission on June 27. Contracts for hard-surfacing to be let on that date will total 64.16 miles, and in this will be the highway between Dunn and Duke, according to the Bulletin. This is known as project No. 438 and is listed as 4 miles. The hard-surfacing of this stretch of highway will mean much to both Dunn and Duke, as well as the traveling public. Traffic between these two towns is almost equal to that on a city street, and naturally this link should be included in the hard-surfacing program of the Highway Commission. In this connection, it might be stated that the highways in Harnett county maintained by the Highway Commission are now in good condition. When people see the results of money spent for road building and maintenance as is now visible in this section, very little complaint is heard from those who pay the taxes to finance the work.

CLEAR TWO BROTHERS OF MURDER CHARGE

Coroner's Jury Finds Killing of Negro Preacher Justifiable. Fayetteville, June 14.—Gus and Mam Pate, well known young farmers of Gray's Creek township, charged with killing George Marsh, negro preacher and farm hand, and wounding W. B. Coats, wealthy "downer", yesterday morning in a pistol battle that followed the Pates' refusal to allow Coats to enter their barn, were freed by a coroner's jury here today. The jurors, after hearing the evidence as to the killing of Marsh, returned a verdict of justifiable homicide. No testimony was taken by the coroner in the shooting of Coats, as his wounds are not likely to prove fatal. Greater weight of the evidence tended to show that the Pates were not the aggressors, though Coats and his son, Herman, testified otherwise. The elder Coats admitted that the Pate brothers had served a rapier on him forbidding him to enter the barn, which is located on land rented from Coats.

PENDER PURCHASES 17 PIGGLY WIGGLY STORES

Norfolk, Va., June 14.—Purchase of seventeen Piggly Wiggly stores in Tidewater, Virginia, by the D. Pender Store Corporation, was announced today by D. Pender, president of the corporation, upon his return from Memphis. Mr. Pender said the deal was made with Charles Saunders, head of the Southern and involved $150,000. The stores are in Norfolk, Newport News, Suffolk, Hampton and Portsmouth.

LININ GUP FOR ROSS

Says the Hoke County Journal: "Our good friend Charlie Ross, of Lillington, is spoken of as a probable candidate for Attorney General, and we want it known we are for him."

WARREN-GODWIN

Miss Marjorie Godwin Becomes The Bride of Mr. James O. Warren

The marriage of Miss Marjorie Godwin and Mr. James Oliver Warren, both of Dunn, which took place Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock in Divine Street Methodist church was the chief social event of the season and was one of the most beautiful weddings ever seen here. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. G. T. Adams, cousin of the bride and pastor of the Methodist church. Mr. Adams used the ring ceremony. Mrs. Clara Pope played the wedding music. The program consisted of "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," sung by Mrs. Harper Holliday, and "Because," sung by Casper C. Warren, a brother of the groom. Transcriptions were played during the ceremony. The bride, who was escorted and given in marriage by her father, was most beautiful in her wedding gown of white Crepe Georgette, embroidered all over in Crystal beads and set on long lines. Her tulle veil was wound gracefully about the head in a cap effect, while bands of orange blossoms caught and held the veil in place, with one long spray hanging over the right shoulder. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and bride's roses. Miss Eloise Davis Godwin, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a dainty frock of Sunset Chiffon crepe and her hair was beautifully arranged with a gold band. She wore gold slippers and carried a shower bouquet of pink Columbia roses. Mrs. Robert Denning, sister of the groom, was matron of honor. She wore a dress of delicate pink chiffon crepe and carried a shower bouquet of Russell roses. The following young ladies were bridesmaids: Misses Elizabeth Thompson, dressed in orchid; Agnes Ellis of Kittrell, dressed in rose; Inez Edgerton of Kenly, dressed in apple green; Mrs. Lewis Denning, nee Miss Florence Cooper, dressed in pink. All the bridesmaids wore dresses of chiffon crepe, fashioned in similar lines. The shrifts were of silver pleated edged tulle and their girdles were silver

BROWNING REVIVAL DRAWS THOUSANDS

Congregations Includes Representatives From Numerous Places

Lillington, June 14.—The Raymond Browning services, now going through the third week here under a large tent which will seat about 2,500 people, are being attended by large congregations, people coming not only from the local community, but from over the entire county and from distant towns. During the past week Lillington, Pinehurst, Graham, Ramseur, Fayetteville, Sanford and many other towns have had representation at the meetings. Many of those from a distance are people who have before heard Mr. Browning preach when he was holding revivals in their communities. One of the most impressive features of the exercises is the musical organization that has been perfected by Miss Carolyn Hosford, ordained Baptist minister. With Mr. Rufus Perkins to lead at one piano, there is a second piano in accompaniment played by local talent. The choir of over one hundred voices led by Miss Hosford has developed into a most efficient singing organization. Miss Hosford's solos are much enjoyed by the congregations. A consecrated Christian woman devoting her every energy toward carrying the message of salvation through her song, she has furnished great inspiration for local singers to follow in the best voice in order to help and center the strongest influence that comes from music over those who listen to the splendid sermons delivered by Mr. Browning. Already there has come to Lillington, its Christian population as well as to those who do not profess religion, the greatest good in the way of pointing out the Christian's duty and also in aiding those without the fold to take into serious consideration the welfare of their souls. Many have gone forward for prayer, many have expressed their desire to become identified with the army of God, and it is believed that before the meeting comes to a close there will be quite an addition to the local church membership.

THIS IS A STUDEBAKER YEAR

Bank closing appears to be contagious in Rowan county.

President Harding has reaffirmed his position on the world court. If he keeps his position intact some of his party leaders will likely "throw a fit."

The fact that Governor Morrison never misses a chance to take a rap at the press is one reason why the press takes so many raps at the governor.

Some men start life with an inherited fortune and wind up with nothing, while others begin with nothing and wind up with a fortune. The difference is largely a matter of right and wrong management.

Brain and muscle properly mixed with Eastern North Carolina soil always brings fair returns. A farmer who cannot make a "good living" on a far min this section of the State would perish in the attempt in many sections, where natural advantages are not to be compared with those of Eastern North Carolina.

Members of the North Carolina Co-operative Marketing Association in the sixth district showed good judgment in electing Felix M. McKay of Duke as a director of the association. Mr. McKay is well fitted for the office. He is a progressive, and yet conservative, farmer, who believes that the salvation of the Southern farmer lies in co-operative marketing of their products. He succeeds B. O. Townsend of Dunn, who declined to offer for re-election.

The Army of caterpillars which stopped a railroad train in the State of Oregon teaches something of what can be accomplished by co-operation. Think of what one worm alone could do towards stopping a train. Yet when enough worms banded together upon the railroad tracks, the mighty steam engine was stalled by the worm army.

Greedy Profits Greed on the part of manufacturers of building material has placed a check on the "building wave" which was spreading throughout the country. A local contractor informs us that a residence that three months ago would have cost $3,000 would today cost at least $4,000. As a result of what would seem to be an unrecalled advance in materials used in building, the public has "struck" for lower building costs. Even many building projects that had been begun have been halted as a result of the increase in the price of materials.

Why Not Tobacco Reports from the tobacco-growing sections are that the prospect for a good crop of the weed is bright. That means very little to Dunn and the Dunn district, because of the fact that very little tobacco is grown in this section. Within a few weeks farmers who grow tobacco will begin to reap the cash rewards of their efforts, while in the sections where cotton is the only "money crop" it will be several weeks before business will "pick up."

To Hard-Surface Road By way of the North Carolina Highway Bulletin we learn that twenty-four road building contracts are to be let by the Highway
