REV. WALTER M. GILMORE TO ENTER NEW WORK. Sanford, June 11.—Rev. Walter M. Gilmore tendered his resignation as pastor of the First Baptist church of this city Sunday morning to become effective August 1, when he will take up his new work as secretary of stewardship of the Baptist State convention.

Mr. Gilmore who was born and reared near this place, became pastor of the First church here about five and a half years ago, coming from Louisa where he had been pastor for a number of years. Prior to going to Louisa he was a pastor in Georgia for many years.

For nine years he has been the recording secretary of the Baptist convention. He has done quite a good deal of general publicity work for his denomination during the past few years and in connection with the different campaigns which the denomination has put on has traveled quite extensively over the state and is therefore well known among the brotherhood.

Mr. Gilmore will move his family to Raleigh about the first of August, where he will make his headquarters and will be associated with Dr. Chas. E. Maddry, corresponding secretary of the State convention. The department of state mission work, to which Mr. Gilmore goes is a new one, recently inaugurated at the Southern Baptist convention in Kansas City

LARGE CROWDS ARE ATTENDING REVIVAL

The revival meetings which began last Sunday at the Gospel Tabernacle, are growing daily in interest and attendance. Rev. A. C. Doner, of Peterboro, Ontario, Canada, is preaching sermons of moving power. Services are held twice daily—9 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.—and the public is invited.

Following are some of the subjects from which Mr. Doner will preach during the campaign:

- "Will Jesus return before or after the millennium?"
"What will it mean to the world if He does not return?"
"The Destiny of this world and its peoples."
"The Great Apostasy."
"Is this world growing better or worse?"
"The Haunting History of sin."
"The Last Hour before the Storm."
"The Great Salvation."
"The Wonderful Savior."
"The Great Separation."
These and other similar subjects will be faithfully treated by the evangelist from night to night.

EXCEPT FOR BOLL WEEVIL CROP OUTLOOK IS BRIGHT

Despite the unfavorable weather for getting a crop started in the spring, crops generally in the Dunn district are looking well. Farmers coming into town report cotton making good headway and were it not for the fact that the boll weevil is to come in for his share of the squares the outlook for a bumper cotton crop would be bright. Many farmers are prepared to wage a fight against the pest, however, having on hand a supply of calcium arsenate for poisoning the cotton enemy. The weather during the past month has been in favor of the farmer, though the weevils have already invaded some of the cotton fields.

MR. D. W. BUIE, UPPER HARNETT CITIZEN, DIES

Mr. D. W. Buie, a highly esteemed citizen of upper Harnett, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Edgar S. Smith, on Route 2, last Friday morning at 11 o'clock. He is survived by his wife and several children, also by a brother, John Buie, and sister, Mrs. Edgar S. Smith. Burial was at Mt. Pisgah.

Mr. Buie was a candidate on the Democratic primary ticket for county commissioner last year and received a handsome vote. He was regarded as one of the county's most estimable citizens, and his friends were numbered by his acquaintances.—The Harnett County News.

James M. Jones Godwin, June 12.—On Sunday evening, June 10, 1923, Mr. James M. Jones departed this life. He had been in declining health for about six months, but had been confined to his room for only four days.

Mr. Jones was born July 24, 1854 in Harnett county. On April 4, 1883, he was married to Miss Sarah W. Beasley of Johnston county. To this union were added five sons and three daughters. After three years he married Miss Novella Baggett of Sampson county.

He moved from the Dunn section to this vicinity more than thirty years ago, where he has been engaged in farming and saw-milling.

Mr. Jones was a member of the Missionary Baptist church, which he faithfully attended. He was an honest, upright man, possessing those sterling qualities which endeared him to his circle of friends.

He was laid to rest in the old Bluff Church cemetery with Masonic honors, having been a member for many years of Greenwood Lodge No. 419, of Godwin. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. C. C. McEllon, Jr., D. C. L. McIntyre, J. V. Lee, J. B. Barefoot, J. V. Warren, N. C. Williams, C. H. Randall and Rosie Jackson.

He is survived by four sons and one daughter. They are Messrs. John M., of Benson; Geo. W., of Jacksonville; Joe C. and J. Harper, of Godwin; Mrs. E. E. Fazzell of Godwin, and his widow.

Record of Deaths

Mrs. Anna Stacy McKay Passed Away Yesterday

Mrs. Anna Stacy McKay died at 6 o'clock last evening at the Dunn hospital, where she had been a patient since Saturday of last week when she was taken suddenly ill. Deceased was born in Fayetteville on February 13, 1846, and was therefore in her 78th year. She is survived by three children, two daughters—Miss Eunice McKay of Dunn and Mrs. J. A. Watson of Wilson, and one son—E. S. McKay of Dunn. Four step-children also survive, these being, Mrs. J. J. McKay of Buie's Creek, Mrs. S. P. McKay and Mrs. H. T. Spears, both of Lillington, and W. H. McKay of Berlin, Ga.

The funeral will be conducted from the home of H. S. McKay, son of the deceased, South Wilson avenue, at 3 o'clock this afternoon by Rev. A. R. McQueen, pastor of the Dunn Presbyterian church, of which Mrs. McKay had long been a faithful and loyal member. Interment will be made in Greenwood cemetery.

Deceased was the daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. James Stacy. Her husband, the late William McKay of Harnett county, died in 1896. She had lived in Dunn for the past twenty years and her beautiful traits of character and lovable disposition had endeared her to many friends who will be grieved to learn of her death.

Mrs. A. W. Wood Mrs. A. W. Wood, aged about 30 years, died early yesterday morning at her home on South Washington avenue, death following an extended illness. She is survived by her husband and four children. The funeral will be conducted at the grave by Rev. J. L. Davis, pastor of the Gospel Tabernacle at 4 o'clock this afternoon and interment will be made in the family cemetery in Sampson county. Deceased was a good woman and had many friends who will regret to learn of her death.

Andrew, 22-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Stephenson of Coats, Route 1, died Wednesday of pneumonia. The funeral was conducted yesterday and interment made in the family cemetery, near the home.

Small Boy Dies

George Herman, 4-year-old son of John E. Butler, died Tuesday night at 11 o'clock of pneumonia, which he developed after measles. The funeral was conducted from the Butler home, South King avenue, Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock by Rev. O. T. Mattox, pastor of the Christian church. A large crowd attended the funeral and the grave was covered with beautiful floral offerings. Interment was made in Greenwood cemetery, beside to grave of the child's mother, who died some two years ago.

UNEXPECTED HAPPENS AND WILSON MAN WEDS

Wilson, June 11.—H. J. Paradise, proprietor of the Oasis Theatre, this city, and a member of Sunday week for Washington city to attend the Shriner's convalescence.

A card from him dated at Hudson Heights, New Jersey, states that to his friends the "unexpected had happened," and that he had taken unto himself "for better or worse" a helpmate to share his pleasures and troubles. He failed to state his lady love's name, where she hails from, or where the ceremony was performed, but stated they were spending their honeymoon canoeing on the Wissahickon, Fairmount Park, Philadelphia.

CHINESE PRESIDENT IS HELD A PRISONER

Tientsin, June 4.—Li Yuan-Hung, president of the Chinese republic, is being held a prisoner aboard his special train in the central railway station here at an early hour this morning, following his flight from the capital at Peking yesterday. The train is surrounded by troops acting under the direct orders of Wang Cheng-Ping, governor of Chihli province.

DUKE NEWS

Duke, June 13.—The Good Hope hospital here for the past few weeks has had the largest number of patients under its care since its organization eight years ago. According to Dr. William F. Holt, physician and surgeon in charge since its founding, the institution has had an unprecedented business during the past few weeks. It has been used by people throughout the county.
