Miss Gladys Alphin is spending several days with relatives in Goldsboro. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thomas have returned from a visit to Rockingham. Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Alphin have returned from a visit to relatives in Goldsboro. Sam Ferrell has returned from Durham, where he spent several days last week. Miss Lula Gilbert, of R. 1 from Dunn, is visiting relatives and friends here for a few days. Miss Agnes Bell has returned from Angier and Fuquay Springs, where she had been visiting for two weeks. Mrs. N. G. Duncan and children, of R. 4, have returned home after visiting friends near Clinton for a few days. Miss Mildred Jackson, of the Shady Grove section, Sampson county, was among the shoppers in town Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wilson and children, of Angier, passed through Dunn Monday, en route to Wrightsville Beach, where they will spend several days. M. F. Davis, Harvey Tyner, O. W. Watson and O. L. Duncan Sunday made a trip to White Lake and Lake Waccamaw, returning by way of Lumberton. Miss Jane Williams is spending some time with her brother, W. A. Williams, at Walters, Oklahoma. While away she will visit several States in the West. The local chapter of the U. D. C. will have a lawn fete on South Lumberton square Friday afternoon at 6 o'clock. Folk songs and dances will be on the program. The ladies Bible Class of the Christian church will serve cream and cake on the church lawn Thursday evening, July 12th, at 8 o'clock. Proceeds will go to the organ fund. Mrs. Allie G. Cooper, of R. 4, was taken ill last week while visiting her aunt here. Mrs. J. A. Poole, and was taken to the hospital in Fayetteville, where she will undergo an operation. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hamilton and three children, of Lumberton, spent the week-end here visiting at the home of Mrs. Hamilton's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Whitehead. The first load of 1923 watermelons brought to Dunn was brought in today by Henry A. Turlington, who lives at Turlington's cross roads. Mr. Turlington found a ready sale for the melons. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cooper left today for Wrightsville Beach, where Mr. Cooper will attend the annual convention of the Monumental Dealers association. They will also visit relatives in Wilmington and Burgaw while away. While heavy rains fell in many parts of the State Saturday and Sunday, only a light shower fell hereabouts. The rainfall here was not sufficient to be of much good to the crops, many of which are suffering for moisture. Mrs. E. W. Smith, who lives on R. 4 from Dunn, left Friday afternoon for Atlanta, Ga., where she will spend some time visiting friends. She was accompanied by Miss Gertrude Brooks, of Washington, D. C., who had been a guest at the Smith home for several days. H. M. Pittman brought to town this morning from his farm, 4 miles east of Dunn, a practically grown cotton boll. Mr. Pittman says he has 100 acres of fine cotton growing on his farm, and there are plenty of bolls of like size on it. The cotton is of the Cleveland Big Boll variety. Dunn is soon to have another shoe repair shop. R. O. Powers, who was formerly employed in the Franklin Fix'em-Quick shop, will open a new shop in the building formerly occupied by the Dunn Ice Cream Parlor, South Railroad avenue. The new shop will be known as the Dunn Shuifery. The Johnson Bros. semi-annual clearance sale begins Thursday, July 12th. At these sales this store always gives real bargains in standard merchandise. Feldman's Department Store is also giving its customers an opportunity to buy goods cheap the last four days of this week. Read both the ads in this issue of The Dispatch. Mrs. N. E. Wrench, aged 46 years, died early yesterday morning at her home in Dismal township, Sampson county, of pneumonia. Deceased is survived by her husband and several children. She was a good woman, who will be missed in her home community. The funeral was conducted this afternoon at 2 o'clock and interment was made in the family cemetery. Prof. J. W. Vines has resigned as principal of the Harnett County Colored Training school, and expects to leave the latter part of this week for Little Rock, Ark., where he will be employed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Prof. Vines has been at the head of this school for the past two years, and his work has proven entirely satisfactory to the board of trustees of the Dunn school district. He had been re-elected for another term, but resigned in order to take up the new work, which he says will pay a much larger salary. A successor to Prof. Vines has not yet been elected. SUNDAY EVENING JULY 15, AT METHODIST CHURCH 1. Anthem—The King of Love—Shelley. By choir. 2. Organ solo—Mr. Campbell. 3. LOCAL CHINAMAN DIED LAST NIGHT Death of Sing Jung Resulted From Cancer of The Stomach Sing Jung, Chinaman, who had operated a laundry here for the past four years, died last night at 11:30 at the Dunn hospital. Jung had been in declining health for more than a year, and his death resulted from cancer of the stomach. He was taken to the hospital ten days ago and underwent a serious operation. He recovered from the operation, though the cancer spread to his liver which was the immediate cause of his death. Sing was about 40 years old and came to this country when he was seven years old. He returned to his native land several years later and married; it is said. It is supposed that he has a wife living in China. The remains were taken in charge by J. L. Hatcher, local undertaker. Mr. Hatcher wired one of his cousins living in Norfolk, Va., to learn what disposition he wished made of the body. He has not yet received a reply. If nothing is heard from his relatives in Norfolk, it is likely that the remains will be interred here. Dusting Demonstration W. Bruce Mabec, entomologist in charge of the local boll weevil field station, will give a demonstration in dusting cotton with dry calcium arsenate on the Goldstein farm, two miles south-west of Dunn tomorrow evening. The dusting will begin about seven o'clock. All who are interested in learning how to dust with the dry calcium are invited to witness this demonstration. Maness-Bain Mr. and Mrs. James Walter Bain, who were married in Greensboro on June 27, have returned from a bridal tour through Western North Carolina. They are living for the present at the home of Dr. Thos. E. Darden, but expect to begin house-keeping at an early date. Mrs. Bain before her marriage was Miss Elizabeth Maness, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Maness, of Sanford. They were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ortiz, in Greensboro, Rev. J. H. Barnhart, pastor of Market Street Methodist church, Greensboro, officiating. The marriage was a quiet affair and came as a complete surprise to Mr. Bain's friends here. Mrs. Bain was numbered among the most popular young ladies of Sanford and is a young woman of charming personality. The bride-groom is a promising young business man of Dunn, being a member of the firm of the Dunn Roofing and Corning Co., and is also popular among a large circle of friends. Small Child Dies Mary Alice, 18-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Altman, who live in the northern part of town, died Sunday morning of colitis. The child had been ill for about a month, though her condition only became serious a few days ago. The funeral was conducted yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Hopewell church, in Johnston county, and interment was made in the church cemetery. private organizations 13 County pauper cases investigated 10 Arrangements made for adults to take vocational training 1 Orphans to institution 1 Dependent children placed in foster homes 7 Cases of invalids investigated and given aid 2 Working permits issued 10 Young people's reading clubs organized 4 Arrangements made for dependent children to go to school and work their way 2 Recreational work, visits to county home, and working out program for years work made up the remainder of the program. Gov. MORRISON MOTORS FROM CHARLOTTE FOR HIS ANNUAL VACATION Charlotte, July 2.—Governor Morrison left early today by automobile for Asheville, where he expects to spend about two months. He is expected to return to Raleigh about August 1 to spend three days hearing petitions for pardons and commutations. The governor came quietly into Charlotte last night and had nothing to say regarding public affairs. His private secretary and other members of the office force did not go to Asheville with the governor.
