RECORDER'S COURT
While many cases were heard in the local recorder's court yesterday, a dozen others had to be continued for lack of time. Recorder M. M. Jernigan "dealt out" several road sentences to violators of the prohibition laws, while other defendants were required to part with heavy fines. The following cases were disposed of yesterday:
John Truelove, Pharo Lee and Vernon West, having whiskey in their possession and selling whiskey; sentenced to 8 months each on the county roads. Notice of appeal was given, and the defendants made joint bond in the sum of $500.
Brack Webb, giving worthless check for $10.90; required to make check good and pay the cost of the action—$28.
J. E. Starling, two charges of giving worthless checks; taxed with the cost in both cases.
Silva Lee, negroess, whipping the child of C. M. Stephenson, also colored; taxed with the cost.
John Truelove, carrying concealed weapons; not guilty.
Lester Tysinger, being drunk; taxed with the cost.
Wash Jackson, being drunk; four months suspended road sentence and taxed with the cost.
J. N. Weeks, driving auto while intoxicated; fined $50 and cost. Weeks was also found guilty of being drunk and disorderly, and was taxed with the cost in this case.
Brant Cobb, resisting officer; fined $25 and cost. He was taxed with the cost on the charge of being drunk and disorderly.

RAYMOND MOLDEN HURT IN TRACTOR ACCIDENT
While driving a Fordson tractor at Sorrell's gravel pit Saturday morning, Mr. Raymond Molden was severely injured when the engine under heavy strain turned backward upon its driver and pinned him underneath. The injured man was brought to Central Harnett hospital, where medical and surgical aid was rendered by Dr. Halford. He was later removed to the Sorrell home and was carried to Highsmith hospital, Fayetteville, Sunday.
Examination revealed that internal injuries to Molden were of a very serious nature, broken bones having punctured the bladder in several places.
The tractor was being used at the gravel pit as motive power for a "wheeler." In some way the scoop got fastened and stalled the tractor. Thinking he could make his engine pull the load, Molden shoved on all the power, with the result that the engine threw its nose up in the air and came back upon him, pinning him down with the steering wheel hard against the lower stomach and groin. He was badly trashed.

Physicians at the hospital hold out little hope for Molden's recovery.—Harnett County News.

LILLINGTON SCOUTS TO GO ON OUTING
Scout Master Caviness H. Brown, of the local Boy Scouts, announces that his squad will take their annual outing at White Lake this year, going to this famous resort in automobiles Monday morning, July 30, and spend one week there. It is planned to rent tents on the lake beach this year, but it is hoped that by another year the troop will have tents of their own.
Scout Master Brown requests The News to state that anyone feeling so disposed may help the troop by donating some portion of the expense of the week's outing. It is stated that town council has already donated $25 and that private individuals have signified their intention of helping the Scout treasury. It may be recalled by people of the community that the Boy Scouts are called upon quite frequently for service in one capacity or another and that always the tasks are performed willingly and well.
The News wishes to add its good wishes as well as substantial support toward the outing of the Scouts. While parents of the individual members of the Scout troop are not asking that others defray the expense of their sons' vacation, yet it should be borne in mind that the Lillington Boy Scout troop is an asset of the community that cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents.
Besides taking care of its individual portion of the outing, The News hereby donates the sum of five dollars toward the general expense of the trip. Who's next?
The Girl Scouts? Sure. The News will put up five dollars for them too. Who's next?—Harnett County News.

MOTHER SHOTS TWO; THEN KILLS HERSELF
Casey, Ill., July 12.—Paul Shoemaker, 12 years old, is in a hospital today at Effingham, Ill., probably fatally injured, and his brother Herschel, nine, is dead, as the result of having been shot by their mother, Mrs. Marshall A. Shoemaker, 34 years old, who committed suicide after killing the younger boy. Before she shot Paul she is said to have forced him to swallow poison tablets.
Mrs. Shoemaker is said to have roused Paul from his bed, forced him to swallow the poison, and then shot him in the stomach. Herschel was shot through the heart.
Mrs. John Slusser, mother of Mrs. Shoemaker, witnessed the shooting. She was held at bay with the revolver. Paul crawled more than a hundred feet, and between gasps told neighbors of the tragedy.

PAGE TRUST COMPANY ABSORBS HAMLET BANK
Hamlet, July 10.—One of the most important financial transactions in the history of Hamlet occurred today, when the Page Trust company took over the First National Bank of Hamlet. The First National bank had assets, according to their last statements of $275,000, with deposits of over $200,000. The entire assets were taken over by the Page Trust company. This will give the Hamlet branch of the Page Trust company assets of over $1,000,000.
The First National was organized in the spring of 1916, and E. N.

Wholes has been president and N. H. Jonette cashier since the opening. By the absorption of the First National by the Page Trust company another strong institution has been added to the long list of financial institutions which have been absorbed by this company, and the financial condition of the banks in Hamlet will be materially strengthened.
