The Hudson Electric Company has also installed Delco plants in the home of Mr. Byrd's brother, Sam Byrd, and the Byrd Brothers mill, near Summerville.

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR DEAD PRESIDENT

In respect to the memory of Warren G. Harding, fallen chief of the Nation, a short memorial service will be held here in Metropolitan Theatre at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon—the hour at which the last sad rites over the body of the former president will begin at Marion, Ohio, his home.

Governor Cameron Morrison, following the lead of President Calvin Coolidge, has issued a proclamation asking all the people of North Carolina to cease their labors at this time and give silent evidence of their grief while the body of the Chief Executive is being carried to its last resting place. Throughout the nation at this time millions of Americans will pay their respects to the memory of a great and lovable man whose labors in their behalf hastened his death. Grieving silently, with bowed heads, these mil-ions will return thanks to God for the blessings which came to them through Warren Harding's labors; for the measure of peace and prosperity which is the Nation's through his efforts.

While the memorial service is being held, the church bells of the town will be tolled, sending their clear-toned messages of sorrow over the countryside and summoning the people to a session of mourning for the man who gave his life in their service. Mayor Wade has asked the merchants, manufacturers and others of Dunn to cease business for a period of 15 minutes, beginning at noon Friday.

The memorial service will be held under the auspices of the Dunn Ministerial association and all ministers of the town will take part.

Aged Lady Passes

Mrs. Rebecca Bass, aged 84 years, died Saturday at noon at her home in Dismal township, Sampson county, of the infirmities of old age. The funeral was conducted Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock and interment was made in the family cemetery.

PROF. VINES IS STILL INTERESTED IN DUNN

A letter dated August 3 from J. W. Vines, colored, former principal of the Harnett County Colored Training school here, to The Dispatch, asking that the address of his paper be changed to Little Rock, Ark., says in part:

"I am writing to ask you to send the paper to me here at Little Rock, Ark., regularly. I miss the Dunn news, and shall hope to receive the paper every week. Although it is a long way to Dunn, I am still interested in its people and its developments."

"Am very busy getting things in order for the State Fair to be here October 8-13. Am hoping that the Harnett County Fair shall be a success this year. Am very well pleased with my new work."

As has been stated in The Dispatch, Prof. Vines is employed by the United States Department of Agriculture as farm demonstration agent.

NEW PAPER DEVOTED TO SANDHILLS PRODUCE

Southern Pines, July 29.—"The Peach Blossom" is the name of a monthly magazine which enters the journalistic field with the August issue just off the press. The magazine is to be devoted to the "grower and producer of the sandhills," and will have special emphasis on the peach industry. Charles Macaulay is editor, and Howard J. Morris, both of Southern Pines, is the business manager of the publication. "The Sandhill Peach Show," "Progress in Marketing," "Romance of the Sandhill Peach," and "The Sandhill Canning Industry," are the leading articles of the initial issue.

The publication has several illustrations which are of the peach industry, and is well supported by advertisers. The place of publication is Southern Pines, N. C.

CHAMPION OF STOP LAW GETS PULLED BY COPS IN WILMINGTON

Wilmington, August 2.—State Senator J. R. Baggett, of Harnett, one of the leading advocates of the crossing stop law during the last Legislature, was in court here today charged with violating this law at a crossing on the Wrightsville turnpike near the sound yesterday afternoon. He was let off with a warning.
