Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Johnson, Mrs. R. W. Pope and W. W. West have returned from a trip through Western Carolina. They made the trip on Mr. Johnson's car and were away ten days.

Misses Esther Lee and Nellie Cain of Spring Branch section, were here Friday en route home after spending two months at Cullowee Summer school in the Western part of the State.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fitchett and Mr. Fitchett's sister, Miss Elizabeth Fitchett, of Greensboro, who is a guest at the Fitchett home, and Dr. J. M. Morgan spent the weekend at White Lake.

Elmer Polk left Tuesday night for Philadelphia, to accept a position as traveling salesman for Henry Dixon & Sons. He will probably travel in North Carolina and have his headquarters at Dunn.

Mrs. Frank Crofton and baby of Weidon and Mrs. G. A. McDonald of Washington City, have returned to their respective homes after spending several weeks here with their sister, Mrs. D. L. Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. R. Durham Taylor have returned home from a visit to Baltimore, Atlantic City and New York. They made the trip to and from Baltimore on Mr. Smith's auto.

The fire alarm was sounded about 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon on account of a blaze on the roof of the residence of Geo. Summerlin, South Wilson avenue. The fire was extinguished by the use of chemicals before much damage was done.

Mrs. L. A. Beck and small son, of Wilmington, arrived Wednesday and will spend some time here visiting at the home of Mrs. Beck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Taylor. They were accompanied by Miss Minnie Taylor, who spent some time in Wilmington.

As the result of a sudden fall, or drop in the temperature early Wednesday evening Miss Summerlin suffered a broken backbone. However, it is not thought that the break will prove fatal and she is expected to be out again in a very few days, though it is likely that it will be several months before she will be at her best again.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Allen and family of Dunneville, returned this week from a trip to Florence, Sumter and Marion, South Carolina. They also spent a short time at Lake Waccamaw. Mr. Allen said that weevils are doing more damage in the section of South Carolina he visited than ever before and that most of this damage has been done during the past two weeks.

Mrs. R. L. Denning took her Sunday school class on a picnic to Holt's lake Wednesday afternoon. Supper was served at the lake and members of the class reported a most delightful occasion.

The sweet potato crop this year is very promising, according to the farmers. Practically all the farmers throughout this section plant a small acreage in potatoes, largely for home use.

Miss Pattie Herring of Clinton is visiting at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Floyd. Miss Herring will leave next week for the State of Michigan, where she will teach music.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Riddle and children of Sanford are spending the day here with friends. Mr. Riddle served for two years as secretary of the Dunn Chamber of Commerce and both he and Mrs. Riddle have many friends in Dunn.

A six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Barefoot, who live in Mingo township, Sampson county, suffered a painful and ugly scalp wound yesterday when struck on the back of the head by the beam of a log cart. The wound was dressed by Dr. H. C. Turlington, and while the child had a close call, it is thought he will recover.

Mrs. Thornton Entertains

On Thursday afternoon, August the twenty first, at four o'clock, Mrs. J. W. Thornton delightfully entertained, honoring her sister, Mrs. J. W. Millard of Littleton.

The home was attractively decorated in Zinnias, Marigolds, Summer lilac and other flowers from her "old-fashioned garden."

Assisting Mrs. Thornton in receiving were Mrs. Millard, Mrs. Freeman, Mrs. J. R. Smith, Mrs. J. J. Lane and Mrs. P. A. Lee. On arriving the guests were shown to the rear of the hall where Miss Annie Belle Noel and Miss Lillian Ezzell, dressed as Japanese girls, served refreshing punch. Here, dainty Clematis Panicalata enhanced the charm of a scene very suggestive of Japan.

The afternoon was very pleasantly spent in playing various games. Delicious cream, cake and nuts were served. Those enjoying Mrs. Thornton's gracious hospitality were:

Mrs. Louise Stephens, H. M. Pittman, H. O. Mattox, Carl Barefoot, Marvin Wade, W. E. Coltrane, Dick Taylor, Herbert Taylor, J. F. Hicks, Herbert McKay, Willie Thompson, J. J. Lane, H. S. Freeman, Arthur Pope, Carl Fitchett, Z. V. Spikes, Rufus Smith, J. R. Butler, Ed Smith, Nathan Johnson, F. A. Lee, C. L. Wilson, Ellison Goddard, E. M. Jeffreys, J. W. Fitzgerald, Lloyd Wade, R. L. Denning, J. C. Clifford, Mrs. Crim, Chas. Highsmith, C. H. Anderson, Earl Barefoot, Brock, Primrose and R. G. Tart.

Miss Louise Clifford Entertains

On Wednesday evening Miss Louise Clifford entertained informally at four tables of rook in honor of her house guests, Misses Louise and Laura Clifford of Winston-Salem. Those enjoying the games were:

Misses Ines Fridgen, Elizabeth Thornton, Mary Lovey Floyd, Charlotte and Nina Mossy Hatcher and their house guests from Clinton; Edith Gray Wade, Margaret Smith, Frances Purdie and her guest, Alice Hart Turner of Raleigh, Annie Belle Smith, Doris Gardner and the honor guests.

Following the games a delicious ice course and salted nuts were served.

KATHERINE MacDONALD AND WESLEY BARRY IN FILM

For the first time in the career of either star, Wesley Barry has been cast in a production with Katherine MacDonald, in her starring vehicle, "Stranger Than Fiction," which will be shown at the Colonial Theatre, Monday.

This attraction which is offered by the Colonial Theatre, as Miss MacDonald's latest release through Associated First National Pictures, is from an original story by Charles Richmond and A. S. LeVino. For bright comedy-drama that sparkles with originality and clever situations this is declared to be one of Miss MacDonald's best pictures.

Wesley Barry takes the part of "Freckles," a role that is somewhat reminiscent of "Dinty" in that it places him in the part of a poor little orphan whom Fate has placed among crooks and in a slum atmosphere. The little fellow attracts the attention of Diane Drexel, society girl, played by Miss MacDonald, during one of her visits to the slums. She takes him into her fashionable home. Some splendid comedy situations arise as a result of the fact that 13-year-old Freckles falls in love with his beautiful protector.

Into the story is woven a clever plot that deals with the efforts of society to cope with criminals. When the police force of one of the larger cities fails to apprehend the Blawie Heart Gang, society takes a hand with the result that the gang is finally caught; but not until the audience has enjoyed many a thrill and many a gripping situation.
