Jose M. Wilson, of Hamlet, was a Dunn visitor yesterday.

J. L. Hatcher and three children were yesterday in Fayetteville.

Mrs. Herbert Taylor is spending the week in Raleigh with relatives.

Mrs. Jennie Atkinson of Selma, is spending the week end with Mrs. Rosa Vane.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tarlington of Fayetteville is spending the week with Mrs. Elsie Baggett.

Ray Bailey of Maxton, is spending the week here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bailey.

D. J. Dowd has returned from Chatham county where he spent several days with his father.

J. M. Sherwood, J. O. Warren, Jas. D. Davis and C. H. Anderson spent yesterday afternoon in Raleigh.

Dunn's two banks—The First National and the Commercial—will be closed next Monday—Labor Day.

Four new cotton gins have recently been installed at the Barnes oil mills replacing those burned last October.

Mrs. James Farthing has returned from a trip to the western part of the State where she spent several weeks.

Mrs. Mabel Russell of High Point, has returned home after spending some time as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Russell.

"Lefty" Wilson, star pitcher for the Danville baseball team, spent yesterday here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse F. Wilson.

Mrs. Novella Reardon is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Reardon. She will return to her position in Durham next week.

Hector Stone and son, Edward, of Orlando, Fla., spent Wednesday and Wednesday night here visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Britt.

Mrs. I. M. Reams and granddaughter, Julia Reams Strickland, and son, Marion, left this morning to visit relatives in Durham and Carpenter.

L. P. Surles spent yesterday in Raleigh where he went to see Mrs. Surles who is a patient at Rex Hospital. Mrs. Surles will return home Sunday.

J. H. Tyner, of Hamlet, spent yesterday here visiting at the home of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Harvey Tyner, East Cumberland street.

Charles H. Britt of Lumberton, spent yesterday and last night here visiting at the home of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. F. Grover Britt.

Misses Mary Lovie Floyd and Myrtle Galtney left Wednesday afternoon for Orum, Robeson county, where they will spend a week visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Handricks arrived this week from Baltimore to assume charge of the millinery department of Johnson Brothers for another season. This is her third season in Dunn.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Taylor of New Orleans were the guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor motored here from their home in Louisiana.

A large dog was run down and killed by an automobile on the Dunn-Duke highway, just beyond the town limit, Wednesday night. It has not been learned to whom the dog belonged or who was driving the car that killed him.

The Senior B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist church went a picnic to Holt's Lake, near Smithfield, Tuesday afternoon. The party engaged in bathing and boat-riding and supper was served late in the afternoon. A most delightful time was had by every one present.

P. A. Lee, president of the North Carolina Pharmaceutical association, and G. K. Grantham, a delegate, will leave Sunday night for Asheville to attend a meeting of the American Pharmaceutical association, which meets in that city September 3-8. This is the second time this noted association has been held in North Carolina having met in Asheville in 1908. At that time William Simpson, of Raleigh, was elected president of the association. The American Pharmaceutical association is composed of editors, college professors, scientific research students, and retail druggists from every State in the union.

Local Schools Will Open September 17

The Dunn graded schools will open Monday, September 17.

The new building is being rapidly completed. The class rooms are practically finished now except the painting, and this work is now being done by a large force and will be rushed to completion. The furniture has arrived and will be installed within the next two weeks.

NEW RESIDENTS OF DUNN

More Than Fifty Bales Cotton Marketed Here

More than fifty bales of new crop cotton have been marketed and pooled here since Wednesday of last week when the first bale was brought in. The number of bales sold increases daily, and in a week or ten days the market will be crowded with the staple. Middling cotton is selling for 23 cents the pound.

RECORDER'S COURT

Failure to observe the North Carolina railroad crossing "Stop" law caused Jeff Turner, negro, to part with a $10 fine and costs when hauled before Recorder M. M. Jernigan yesterday. Jeff was relieved of an additional fine of $10 and cost on the charge of exceeding the speed limit with the same automobile and was taxed with the cost in another case charging that he operated the car without State license numbers.

Walter McLaurin, negro, found guilty of the larceny of a watermelon, was fined $10 and cost—total $23. No doubt Walter figures that rather expensive for one melon.

Rube Haynes, negro, was fined $5 and cost on the charge of simple assault upon his wife. According to the evidence, Rube threatened to use his "razor" upon his best half.

Archie Williams and Mattie Williams negroes were found guilty of immoral conduct. Archie was fined $25 while Mattie was taxed with the cost.

Franklin Sherman, Jr., was fined $10 and cost on the charge of reckless driving and running his car into one driven by O. L. Duncan. He gave notice of appeal to the Supreme court.

Louis McNeill, negro, was fined $10 and cost on the charge of reckless driving. J. D. McNeill, also colored, was taxed with the cost on the charge of driving a car without license numbers.

"HAIL THE WOMAN"

Thomas H. Ince's "Hail the Woman" which is to be shown at the Colonial Theatre Monday is a tribute to life's achievements, a message of hope to life's failures. A drama of real people, of human emotions, yours and mine. A drama of mother's daughters, of father's sons, woven together with the deft touch of a master. Through tears and sadness, through hope and gladness, you'll respond to "Hail the Woman". A great producer, a great author, a wonderful director, and a splendid cast, a finished cinema production.

Co-Op's Growing
Raleigh, Aug. 29.—Reports from Cotton Growers Co-operative associations in nine of the twelve organized states show that 69,005 new members have been signed up during the progress of the membership campaign. Georgia leads with 8,881; Texas second with 6,571 and Oklahoma is third with 6,082. Still larger additions are expected before the campaign closes.

Child Accidentally Kills Sister
Wilson, Aug. 27.—A terrible tragedy was enacted in Taylors township, eight miles west of this city, early this morning. Five-year-old Roy, son of Josephus Williams, accidentally shot and killed his two-year-old sister, Lucile, while playing with a single barrel breach loading gun, blowing the top of her head 10 feet out into the public highway.

Franklin Sherman says that the cotton leaf worm will probably be epidemic this fall. No need to worry, though, for the pest only strips the leaves, generally, after the cotton is made.
