

SPRIT OF CHRIST STILL ONLY HOPE

Salvation Of World And Peace Can Come No Other Way, Declares Bryan

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 29.—The United States is the only country that can speak words of peace to a war weary world, said William Jennings Bryan here Sunday. Speaking before thousands, Mr. Bryan, who is on a lecture tour, dealt with various suggestions of Utopia that have been advanced of late to lead the world out of the slough of chaos and hatred, declaring that neither education nor amendment, but the spirit of Christ was the only hope of salvation for the human race.

The Commoner launched into a scathing denunciation of the intellectual blindness and the spiritual blindness which he said was ruining this country.

"When men pay a million and a half dollars to see a prize fight, to see human bodies pound each other, when they take delight in such things then there is intellectual blindness in this country. The papers tell us that 85,000 people saw that prize fight recently, and 25,000 could not get in, although they tore and scratched and fought," he added.

"But spiritual blindness is even worse than intellectual blindness," he continued. "A third of the professors in this country do not believe in God. They believe in the mind. They believe in science. But I say that education which is not consecrated by love is the worst thing we have in this country."

"Intellectual leaders are overestimating reason and underestimating the heart and will. Great lawyers sell their brains and their intellect for money," Mr. Bryan said in recounting the fight for prohibition stating that after the amendment had been declared constitutional by the United States Supreme court, "these men, the able intellectual lawyers, tried to destroy a bulwark erected to safeguard the souls of a nation."

Says Mellon Could Stop Flow Of Liquor

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 29.—Governor Pinchot, in a letter Sunday to Andrew W. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, placed the blame for what he termed the "break-down" of Federal prohibition enforcement in Pennsylvania upon the Federal permit system. He declared Mr. Mellon, as Secretary of the Treasury, has the power, by control of these permits to make violations "substantially impossible."

The people of the State, the Governor asserted, "are being affronted by open defiance of the law," which he said is mainly due to the quantities of liquor turned loose from plants operating under Federal permits over which the State has no control.

"You, as Secretary of the Treasury," Mr. Pinchot's letter said, "have the power to cut this flood off at the source by revoking these permits and by refusing to issue others except upon conditions sufficient, with honest enforcement, to make violations substantially impossible."

MAYOR CLAIMS CLEANEST CITY

Municipal Head Of Fayetteville Makes Report To Traveling Men

Fayetteville, Oct. 29.—The members of the State board of directors of the Travelers' Protective Association were entertained at a luncheon by Post M. of this city, when the directors gathered in Fayetteville Saturday for their annual meeting. The luncheon was held in the dining room of the hotel LaFayette and was one of the best ever given by the local post. The program was in charge of C. J. Wiggs, president of Post M. The visitors were welcomed by Mayor H. McD. Robinson, who made quite an interesting talk on the advantages of Fayetteville as a place to live in. Among the visitors who responded were H. L. Fleming, of Rocky Mount, president of the North Carolina T. P. A., who told of the rapid progress of the State organization and complimented Post M on the addition of 38 new members that day; J. J. Norman, of Winston-Salem; and H. T. Morris, of Henderson. Rev. Sam K. Phillips, pastor of the Highland Presbyterian church, also spoke.

Mayor Robinson told the traveling men that Fayetteville is the cleanest town in North Carolina, and backed up his assertion with facts taken from a report made to him by a private agency employed to investigate conditions here. Two experienced detectives worked in this city for seventeen days, independently of the local police, and reported that Fayetteville has the smallest extent of immorality and bootlegging of any city they had ever investigated.

Arrest 244 Members Of The Ku Klux Klan

Portsmouth, Ohio, Mayor Carries Out Plan To Stop Parade Of Klansmen

Portsmouth, O., Oct. 28.—The edict of Mayor William N. Gableman the Ku Klux Klan was enforced here this afternoon when police stopped a parade of alleged Klansmen and arrested 244 of the paraders. Of this number 187 were fully garbed in Klan regalia.

The paraders assembled in a local park and were marching to a church where they were to take part in the laying of a cornerstone, when Chief of Police Joseph Distel, with a squad of patrolmen, placed them under arrest and marched the entire procession to the police station. They were charged with having obstructed traffic and ordered to report for hearing in municipal court tomorrow. Most of the marchers were residents of nearby towns and villages.

While a crowd estimated at 10,000 gathered about the police station some one set up a burning cross on adjoining property.

Klan leaders had been denied permission yesterday to parade in regalia, according to Mayor Gableman, and fifty special police were sworn in.

Two youths, one of whom told police he was a member of the Klan, were arrested tonight after police say they burned a fiery cross in the heart of the business district. Later they were released to appear later in juvenile court.

There was no sign of further disorder here late tonight.

To Urge Women To Become Candidates

Washington, Oct. 29.—Women voters will be encouraged to become candidates for political offices under a policy adopted by the Board of Directors of the National League of Women Voters.

The league heretofore has devoted its energies toward the political education of the women rather than encouragement of women for office, it was said, but hereafter state leagues will be urged to have them become candidates, especially for state legislatures. The directors also decided to attempt to increase the participation of women in the affairs of the big political parties.

Breaks Into Hospital To Call On Patient

High Point, Oct. 30.—E. Macklin Will, architect, of Winston-Salem, admitted in police court here today that he broke into a local hospital after midnight last night in order to call upon a young woman patient there and was fined $150 and court costs.

He was charged also with carrying a revolver concealed and with assaulting a policeman with it at the time he was apprehended in the hospital and arrested. Additional fines of $100 and cost were imposed for these offenses.
