Mr. Butt Meets His Old Marine Comrades

Douglas Butt, ex-marine and popular Dunn citizen, has just returned from a trip to Washington, D. C., where he made a special trip to meet several comrades and officers of the "old port crowd."

Mr. Butt talks interestingly of his trip and the meeting of Gen. George F. Elliot and Maj. Henry Leonard, with whom he fought in the battle of Novelleita, Philippine Islands and also in the battle at Tien Sen, China. It was in this encounter that Major Leonard had an arm shattered and the General was also close by.

It was a great meeting, said Mr. Butt, and we had not seen each other in over twenty years. Hours lagged into minutes and minutes into seconds as we talked of the old days and the changes that have taken place since then. The officers remembered me and they had changed very little during the years that we had been separated.

"When I was a boy," said Mr. Butt, "I remembered how I used to sit and listen to the wonderful tales of the Civil War and how the Confederate veterans would sit for hours talking of the past experiences. It was not until this meeting that I fully realized the extent of that kind of pleasure. It was a great trip and while I am glad to be back on my job here, I can frankly say, I never had a more refreshing or delightful vacation in my life. It was like going back into a new land, that you had once seen and forgotten, or a kind of dream with old friends to remember you, and I can only say that although it was back in 1899, I felt like a boy again and I think the General felt rather youthful himself as he said, 'Remember you, why Douglas Butt, of course, from North Carolina.'"

"Just Married"

Notice that Jules Hirtig in association with the Messrs. Shubert will present "Just Married" at the Opera House, Dunn, N. C., Thursday night, November 15th is an announcement of more than ordinary import to the theatre-going public. This city is extremely fortunate to be one of the limited number of cities on the Around the World Tour which will be privileged to see "Just Married" which has enjoyed engagements of unprecedented length in the larger cities of the country. Mr. Hirtig has kept the Broadway cast intact so that this city will see the identical production that electrified New York for two months.

"Just Married" was written by Adelaide Matthews and Anna Nichols, authors of "Scrambled Wives" and "Nightie Night."

The action of "Just Married" covers seven days, the time required for the French liner La Fayette to sail from Bordeaux, France, to New York. Some oddly assorted couples are on board, which includes Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stanley, two youthful honeymooners who are attempting to keep the fact a secret; Mr. and Mrs. U. Makopence Witter, who have been married twenty years and are more or less cynical; their respective nieces and nephew, Roberta Adams and Percy Jones, who are engaged; Victor Bertin, a French girl whom Percy promised to marry unknown to his fiancée, and, last of all, Robert Adams, no relation to Roberta, whose only excuse for being on board is that he landed there after indulging in red wine.
