

South River Winner in Basketball Contests

Falcon, Nov. 20.—The South River quintet opened its basketball season last Friday at Hope Mills...

Table with 2 columns: Name, Position. Lists players like R. L. Collier, B. Forward, W. K. Williams, etc.

The following convention at South River Saturday evening was a success. W. P. Butler won first prize...

James Henry Pope

"To live in hearts to leave behind is not to die." James Henry Pope was born August 15, 1890 in a Christian home...

During the last few months of his life, James was under necessity of conserving his health very carefully. Indeed he battled bravely and long against his illness...

The music was furnished by Miss Agnes Cannady, assisted by Miss L. C. Waters, violinist. Just before the ceremony, Mrs. F. K. Pope sang "Love's Old Sweet Song" and "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms"...

The sun of his life is set, but the graceful and golden afterglow lingers and will linger many a day. His sister, LENA RIVERS POPE, Dunn, N. C.

Little Boy Killed By A Trolley Car

Greensboro, Nov. 20.—Norman Manley, ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Manley, this city, was instantly killed here this afternoon when he was run over by a street car...

Charlotte—The six months old son of Neil M. Craig became entangled in the bars of its crib and broke its neck.

Gen. Bowley Completes Three Years At Bragg

Fayetteville, Nov. 20.—Three years of practically continuous service as commandant of Fort Bragg were completed yesterday by Brigadier General Albert J. Bowley...

A little more than a month later General Bowley received what in terms of the poorest Christmas present he was ever given—an order recalling him from Fort Bragg and directing him to report at Governor's Island for duty on the general staff...

Poole-Barrington

Clayton, Nov. 19.—A wedding of interest to friends throughout Virginia and North Carolina was solemnized Saturday afternoon at sunset in Mount Moriah church, Clayton, North Carolina...

The church was lovely in decorations of long leaf pine and palms, with white chrysanthemums and cathedral candles. The bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage...

The maid of honor, Miss Sybil Barrington, sister of the bride, wore a gown of yellow crepe and carried an arm bouquet of lavender chrysanthemums. The flower girl, little Elizabeth Barrington, wore a dress of canary chiffon and carried a basket of sweetheart roses...

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Poole of Clayton, and a graduate of Wake Forest college. He is a prominent farmer in this part of Carolina.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Poole left for a motor trip through the Carolinas and Tennessee.

The bridal party and out of town guests were entertained at an informal reception on Friday night at the home of the bride.

The out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were: Misses Irene Waters, Greensboro; Agnes Cannady, Dunn; Carrie Belle Ross, Ayden; Lelia Currin, Oxford; Marion Perkins, Portsmouth, Va.; Ernestine Welton, Portsmouth, Va.; Mildred Stewart, Portsmouth, Va.; Mrs. J. H. Winslow, Portsmouth, Va.; Miss Madge Winslow, Portsmouth, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Poole, Greenville, S. C.; Mr. Olive Kelly, Wingate; Mr. Cliff Poole, Wake Forest; Mr. Clyde Barrington, Davidson; Miss Sybil Barrington, Hobgood.

Wish to express our love and appreciation to our many friends for the kindness and help shown us during the sickness, death and burial of our husband and father. May God bless each one that helped us and each one that wanted to. We will remember each one and pray God's blessings on you all. Mrs. W. H. Strickland, Sr., and Children.

Tom Tarheel says: The farmers of this State have caught the spirit of the new North Carolina. Henceforth, they will be torch bearers in the pageant of progress.
