

FIRST RUMBLINGS OF 1924 BATTLE

Hiram Johnson, McAdoo, Ford and LaFollette Before North Dakotans

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 20.—The names of Hiram Johnson, Republican, William G. McAdoo, Democrat, Robert M. LaFollette and Henry Ford stand out as the most frequently mentioned Presidential possibilities on the eve of the county conventions in South Dakota.

The Republicans, Democrats and Farmer-Labor parties are to hold conventions in every county to name delegates to the State convention to be held at Pierre December 4. The instructions given these delegates is expected to reveal the sentiment of the State toward presidential aspirations.

In the Republican conventions the battle will be between the forces supporting Senator Johnson and those favoring the candidacy of President Coolidge.

The candidacy of McAdoo will be sponsored by the State organization in the Democratic conventions, according to W. W. Howe, State chairman. The element opposed to the "regular" organization also favors McAdoo, but a third group clings to the name of Henry Ford.

In the Farmer-Labor gatherings the contest will be between the followers of Ford and Senator LaFollette.

The Presidential nominees of the State convention will be required to accept the nomination before January 1 or lose their place on the primary ballot to be voted on in March. This fact has detracted some enthusiasm from the Ford movement since there is no assurance that Mr. Ford will make the race.

F. H. Hilderbrandt, of Watertown, Democratic member of the State legislature and president of the South Dakota branch of the National Federation of President Clubs, declared tonight in a formal statement that "Mr. Ford is willing to abide by the election laws of South Dakota, and if the Democratic party of this State shall have drafted Mr. Ford as their national standard bearer, then and then only will Mr. Ford announce his acceptance."

"I wish further officially to deny," he said, "that Mr. Ford or any person with authority to speak for him ever informed any person that he would not accept the Democratic nomination for President if it was offered to him."

Regardless of the action of tomorrow's county conventions on the Ford candidacy, it is considered probable that Ford's name will be on two if not three party tickets in the March primary, provision being made in the primary law for the nomination of a minority candidate by any five delegates to a State convention. Under this stipulation, leaders in all parties declare Ford's name will get second place on all three primary ballots.

U. S. G. Cherry, of Sioux Falls, an announced candidate for United States Senator on the proposed McAdoo ticket, in a signed statement in reply to the Hilderbrandt declaration, declared he had been assured in a personal interview with S. E. G. Liebold, Mr. Ford's secretary, that the automobile maker "does not want to be President."

"Henry Ford did not start the Ford-for-President movement and is going to let those who did finish it themselves," Cherry said.

LADY GOT SO WEAK COULD SCARCELY STAND

After Suffering From Many Female Troubles This Lady Heard of Cardol and Took It, She Says, "Oh! I Was Well."

"SOME TIME AGO," says Mrs. Susan McFarland, of R. F. D. 2, Beaufort, N. C., "I suffered a great deal with weakness common to women. I had bearing-down pains, my sides and back hurt, and my limbs drew. I would get so weak in my knees I could scarcely stand. "I was very nervous, and could not rest. I didn't feel like eating. I grew thin, and did not have ambition for anything. "I had been trying other remedies... but did not get any better. "Some one told me of Cardol, and what it was recommended for. I also took Ladies Birthday Almonds and read in a case something like mine. I told my husband to get it and I would try it. "I saw a great improvement after the first bottle (of Cardol), so I kept it up and I was well. Now I am the picture of health. "Thousands of other women have written, to tell of the beneficial results obtained by taking Cardol, and to recommend it to others. Cardol has stood the test of extensive use, for more than forty years, in the treatment of troubles common to women. Try it.
