Messrs. Claud H. and Oscar Britt of Lumberton spent yesterday here visiting relatives.

Middling cotton is quoted on the Dunn market today at 25 cents the pound; strict middling 35 1-2 cents.

Miss Nannie Ennis returned this afternoon from Lumberton, where she spent Thanksgiving visiting Miss Monnie Collins.

Mrs. Clarence J. Smith and two children left this afternoon for Scotland Neck, where they will spend a few days visiting relatives.

Miss Clyde Sneed underwent an operation in a Florence, S. C., infirmary Wednesday. Her condition is reported as favorable.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe P. Smith are visiting relatives in Lawrenceville, Va. They are expected to return home Sunday.

Joe P. Smith has taken over the local agency for the Chevrolet automobile. This is the first Chevrolet agency ever opened in Dunn.

J. D. Pope has returned from Council, where he went with a party of friends to hunt deer. Six deer were killed by the party on the trip.

Tickets for Huckleberry Finn and Tom Sawyer, the show to be given at the local opera house Monday morning, December 3, are now on sale at Wilson and Lee's drug store.

Perhaps no town in the State has a better motion picture service than that shown at the Colonial theatre. The pictures shown here are the same shown in the largest cities in the State.

Dunn people driving over the highway between Dunn and Godwin yesterday afternoon report two cars turned over between the two towns. It has not been learned here to whom the cars belonged.

Mrs. P. C. Hood and two children, David Henry and Edward Poarsall, and Miss Eliza Mosley Hatcher went Wednesday afternoon to Hamlet where they will spend several days visiting relatives.

David M. Pearsall, local building inspector, has recently issued a permit to R. W. Pope for the addition of a second story of four rooms to his residence, South Washington avenue, to cost around $3,500.

Johnson Motor Company received this week one of the new "Champion" Overland cars which is attracting so much attention throughout the country. They will be glad to demonstrate to any one interested in the car.

Circles Nos. 2 and 3 of the Methodist church will have a bazaar in the Fleishman Brothers old store building Thursday and Friday of next week. Refreshments will be served each day from 1 to 9 o'clock. The public is invited.

J. D. Baggett and H. O. Mattox will have a car of oranges in Dunn, Monday to sell to the public at very low prices. The fruit came direct from Mr. Baggett's farm in Florida. See Mr. H. O. Mattox for further information.

C. L. Guy, of the local bar, delivered a Thanksgiving address at a big picnic at Prospect church yesterday. He reports a large crowd and a great spread of good things to eat. While he didn't say so, it goes without saying that the address was also good.

The Dunn cafe will serve a free vegetable dinner Sunday from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. While no charge will be made for the dinner, anything those who partake may wish to contribute will be given to the Near East Relief. Adams Brothers are proprietors of the cafe.

The Atlantic Coast Realty Company will sell Monday the Erasmus Lee tract of land about four miles south of Dunn. There is several hundred acres in this tract which has been cut into small farms and will be sold at auction. This is a splendid farm and is located in a desirable community. E. B. Hood, sales manager, is at Young's Hotel and may be seen by those wishing more information about the property.

The drum and cornet corps from the Georgia Industrial orphanage, Macon, Ga., gave a delightful concert in the local opera house Wednesday evening. No admission was charged and while the crowd present was small, a collection of cash and subscriptions totaled approximately $50. The 15 boys comprising the corps gave a concert on the streets yesterday morning and a collection amounting to around $75 was taken. The boys were entertained in various homes in Dunn while here.

MET WITH MRS. HERBERT McKAY

The Cornelius Harnett Chapter of the D. A. B. met last Wednesday with Mrs. Herbert McKay at her home on South Wilson Avenue.

An interesting report on the State conference at Pinehurst was given by Mrs. Lloyd Wade.

After the business was disposed of an elaborate salad course was served by the hostess.

MISS SHAFFER TO SPEAK MONDAY AFTERNOON

Miss Shaffer, Dean of Economics, North Carolina College for Women, Greensboro, will speak to the women of Dunn on household engineering, Monday afternoon, December 3rd, at 3 o'clock, in the Women's Club rooms. All women are interested in managing their household efficiently and this is an opportunity they should not miss. Miss Shaffer comes to Dunn under the auspices of the Home Economics Department of the Women's Club and the Home Economics Department of the local school. All women are invited to attend.

FANCY WORK SALE

The Ladies Sunday school class of the Presbyterian church, will have fancy work on sale in the show window of the Marvin Wade Company store, beginning Friday, November 30th. Be sure to see these articles. They are lovely for Christmas gifts.

PURINA PIC CHOW WILL MAKE YOU MONEY

You can make money by feeding Purina Pig Chow with your corn. Corn alone lacks the elements to build big bones and big frames. Test this pig chow ration on some of your pigs and prove for yourself how profitable it is. Sold in Dunn by L. P. Surles only.

"YES, WE HAVE SUGAR TODAY"

A. E. Robinson says he had special reason to give thanks yesterday, and also to thank The Dispatch as an advertising medium. Inasmuch as the sugar he last week was returned to Dunn Thanksgiving Day by Mr. J. H. Harrison, who happened to be on a hunting trip Thursday night last week when the sack was lost, near Rhodes Mill pond.

He further says he has answered the question "Is this the Express effect?" at least as many times in the last few weeks as Mr. Heinz has pickles, and he wonders how it is that folks in Dunn who get The Dispatch failed to notice that the office was removed in September, being replaced by the printing plant Robinson is operating. A local lawyer came in and began serving him some kind of a legal paper this week, and when he looked up and saw he was in the wrong place, he soon decamped, to the relief of the printer.

Bible Conference At The Gospel Tabernacle

A Bible conference began last night at the Gospel Tabernacle and will last through Sunday. The conference meets each evening at 7:30 and on Sunday two meetings will be held—11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The conference is being conducted by Rev. and Mrs. Howard Van Dyke, returned missionaries from China, and Rev. K. C. Steinhoff. The lectures by the visiting Christian workers are both interesting and instructive. The public is invited.

Resolutions of Respect

Whereas the great and supreme ruler of the universe has in His infinite wisdom removed from amongst us one of our worthy and esteemed fellow laborers, Brother George W. Naylor, and whereas the long and intimate relationship held with him in the faithful discharge of his duties as a member of the Dunn Baptist church and a devoted member of our class, makes it eminently befitting that we as a class record our appreciation of him.

THEREFORE, be it resolved that the wisdom and patience which he exercised by counsel, aid and faithful attendance will be held in grateful remembrance.

That the sudden removal of Brother Naylor from amongst us leaves a vacancy and a shadow that will be deeply realized by all the members and friends of our Bible class and his going will prove a serious loss to all.

That with deep sympathy for the bereaved, we express our hope that even so great a loss to all may be overruled for good by Him who doeth all things well.

Be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of our class, a copy presented to The Dunn Dispatch for publication, and a copy sent to the bereaved family.

Committee.

Mrs. Elma Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Parker, by Mr. E. Norwood Pope, of Dunn, who at present is employed at Washington.

Invitations had been sent out prior to the wedding and at the appointed hour every available space in the church was taken, with many standing, packed almost to suffocation. Many who went to the church were unable to get on the inside on account of the large crowd.

Prior to the wedding, there were many showers given in honor of the bride and after the wedding rehearsal on Friday evening the parents of the bride gave a reception to the bridal party. The wedding party formed the receiving line at this reception together with the parents of the bride and groom. Punch was served by Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Bowen. Mrs. Carey S. Parker and Mrs. Ernest Cherry received at the door, assisted by Mrs. Ledia Herring. The color scheme of green and white was tastefully carried out in the gift room and the dining room. Green and white brick cream with angel food cake were served. Much merriment followed the cutting of the bride's cake, in which had been hidden 12 charms of good luck.

The gift room showed the popularity of the young couple, for they could have started housekeeping with the many gifts received, there being every thing needed, with the exception of a cooking range and dishes to eat from. Even the notorious weapon of Maggie and Jiggs was there, the rolling pin.

The crowd began to gather at the church Saturday evening soon after 6 o'clock and waited patiently until the ceremony started. Miss Parker has never at any time been more beautiful than she was when, accompanied by her father, she walked to the altar, where she was met by the groom and his best man.

The ring ceremony was used and performed by Rev. E. H. Davis, the bride's pastor. It was beyond mere man's words of description and an attempt to do so would only leave unsaid the things that should be said.

Mrs. Pope is one of Clinton's most popular young ladies and her friends were counted by those with whom she came in contact, for her charming personality immediately won the good will of all. She will be missed in Clinton, but we rejoice with others, looking forward to the many visits she will pay her parents in this city.—Clinton News-Dispatch.

WE CAN FIX IT

If a boy loves a girl,
That's his business;
If a girl loves a boy,
That's her business;
If they decide to get married,
That's their business;
But if your car gets out of fix,
That's MY business.
