turned ever to the Benson officers "Mandy" Didn't Keep The Promise He Made

Dr. J. F. McKay of Buie's Creek M. B. Thornton, better known as "Mandy," was arrested Sunday afcharge of being drunk and having whickey in his possession "Mandy" was tried on a similar charge ten days ago and sentenced to 60 days on the roads. Recorder Jernigan alhis business lined up before beginning his sentence. His council had appealed to the recorder to allow h'm a little more |thue, asserting that Thornton had promised never to get drunk again.

While the recorder had not reached a decision to grant the request, the act of "Mandy" in "tanking up" on the eve of the close of his ten days of grace, knocked all the props from under the defense and he was sent to the chain gang to begin his 60 days' labor for the county.
