RECORDER'S COURT

The small number of defendants to face Recorder M. M. Jernigan at the after-Christmas session of the local recorder's court yesterday was further evidence of the quietness which prevailed hereabouts during the holidays. Only two arrests for drunkenness were made in Dunn. Cases disposed of yesterday were:

Gus Pope, drunk and disorderly; fined $10 and cost.

Henry Wingate, negro, reckless driving; judgment suspended upon payment of cost.

Minnie Williams, negro, larceny of a dress from R. G. Taylor Company's store; fined $10 and cost.

Viola Elliott, negro, larceny of a dress from Ida McKay another negro; sentenced to 30 days in the county jail.

Two cases were disposed of at a special session held on Monday. These were:

Billy Whitfield and Ethel Smith, prostitution; Billy was fined $20 and cost, while Ethel was allowed to go free upon payment of the cost.

James Weaver, plain drunk; fined $5 and cost.

CELEBRATE SILVER WEDDING

On Friday, evening Dec. 21st, Mr. and Mrs. H. McIntyre of Godwin, N. C., were at home from 8:00 to 11:00 o'clock to their numerous friends, the occasion being the celebration of their silver wedding.

The holiday decorations of holly, mistletoe, cedar, poinsettias, potted plants and Christmas bells were used throughout the home.

Upon the arrival of the guests they were met at the door by Mrs. C. F. Jones and next were taken by Mrs.

Do you have headache?
Are you nervous?
Eyes itch and burn?
Is your vision bad?
Do letters get together when you read?

I make a specialty of these cases. Look for the big eye over the street opposite Fleishman's stores. My office is at the head of the steps.

C. W. Spell to the receiving line, which was composed of the bride and groom of long ago, Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre, Mrs. D. A. McGoogan of St. Pauls, N. C., Mrs. T. R. Williams of Dunn, N. C., and the children, namely, Donald and Misses Lucile and Marguerite and their niece, Miss Ruby Turner. They were then shown into the living room by Mrs. John H. Jones.

The guests were asked into the music room by Mrs. Annie Godwin, where favorite songs of long ago were sung by Misses Eloise Connelly, Edna Mae Starling, Mrs. Rhodes McLean and Baxter Graham. Instrumental solos were interspersed throughout the evening.

The guests were later taken to the dining room by Miss Lucile McIntyre, and seated cafeteria style, where a two course luncheon consisting of black coffee, sandwiches and cake was served by Misses Miriam McLean, Marguerite McIntyre and Mary Hemmingsway.

In the center of table on a silver cake stand was a huge white wedding cake. In the center of the cake was a miniature bride and groom. As each guest left the dining room a silver bell and a small box of wedding cake was given them.

The bride was dressed in a gown of silver gray crepe de chine with accessories to match and her corsage was of Kilmarnock roses and fern.

The gifts were numerous which not only attests the popularity of the couple of long ago but also of today. Each and everyone showered congratulations upon the couple and wished for them that they might live to celebrate many more wedding anniversaries. About 50 guests called during the evening.

THREE NEGRO SPORTS HAVE A CLOSE SHAVE

A serious wreck was narrowly averted at 1 o'clock this afternoon when a much-dressed-up negro drove a Ford car directly in front of A. C. L. passenger train No. 80 at the Broad Street crossing. The driver ignored the flagman's stop sign. The engineer succeeded in stopping the train before striking the car. The three negro men in the car jumped out.

Poison Drink Kills 3 Men and Woman

New York, Dec. 27.—The toll of deaths from holiday bootleg liquor was increased to nine today, when three men and one woman fell victims to alcoholic poisoning. James Crowe, James Maraban and Edward Churchill died in Bellevue hospital. Mrs. Mary Brennan after taking three drinks of whiskey at a family celebration last night, was found dead in bed. Manhattan hospitals reported 123 alcoholic cases. Other institutions in Brooklyn, the Bronx and Staten Island also were caring for poison liquor patients. Bellevue hospital alone was treating 92, 17 of them women. Seven new cases were reported today, and attendants predicted all vacant cots would be filled by New Year day.

FORMER COUNTESS NOW JAZZ DANCER IN AMERICA

From being an attendant at a Royal Court in Europe, to featuring a South-Sea Island Jazz dance in an American theatrical company is a long jump, but it has been done by Stephanie Kovak, the fascinating and popular dancer, whose real name is the Countess de Gurovka and who comes to the Metropolitan Opera House as the star dancer with the Frank Silver, "Yes, We Have No Bananas" company — that aggregation of melody, dance, jazz and symphony which is one of the reigning hits of the season. The Countess, or Stephanie Kovak, as she now prefers to be called, first attracted attention as a dancer in Spain; later she danced with amazing success in Cuba, South America Mexico and last season she was the signal and unqualified star attraction of the famous and fashionable "Club Gaiety" in New York, where nightly New Yorkers gather to dine and listen to exotic music; to dance themselves, and to see the marvelous Kovak in her famous "Jazz Dances of All Nations." This is her first big tour of America, and she is duplicating on the road the sensation she created in New York.
