

Society and Personal

Miss Willa Crawford, Editor Phone 250-J

THOSE WE LOVE.

They say the world is round—and yet I often think it square, So many little hurts we get From corners here and there; But there's one truth in life I've found While journeying East and West, The only folks we really loved Are those we love the best. We flatter those we scarcely know, We please the fleeting guest, And deal full many a thoughtless blow To those we love the best.

Mrs. Bess Francis Penny spent Saturday in Asheville.

Prof. R. O. Edgerton was an Asheville visitor Monday.

Miss Ruby Howell was the week-end guest of Miss Sara Roberts in Canton.

Messrs. Jeff Reeves and Roy Francis motored to Chapel Hill for last week-end.

Rev. Walter Taylor of Sebring, Florida is spending several days here this week.

Miss Flora Palmer was the week-end guest of Mrs. H. C. Miller in Asheville.

Mrs. Frank Welch spent last week-end with her niece, Mrs. Ed Ensley, in Asheville.

Mrs. J. M. Moody spent Thanksgiving with her daughter, Mrs. George Y. Mobane, in Asheville.

Mrs. Joe Tate and son Joe, Jr. visited Mrs. Tate's sister, Mrs. A. F. Ray, in Asheville last week.

Miss Lillian Hooks of the high school faculty spent last week-end in Greensboro and Chapel Hill.

Mrs. Charles Burgin and young daughter spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Mrs. Burgin's aunt in Murphy.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Miller of Asheville spent Wednesday with Mrs. Miller's sister, Miss Flora Palmer.

Mr. William A. Band and son Charles motored to Spartanburg Saturday and were guests of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Long spent the last week-end in Asheville with Mrs. Long's brother, Mr. Charles Weaver.

Mrs. E. B. Camp returned to her home Saturday after a several weeks visit with relatives in Pennsylvania.

Mr. J. S. Calhoun of Sylva spent several days last week with his daughter, Mrs. Joe Tate on Walnut street.

Rev. Albert New returned to his home Friday after spending several days in Miami and other Florida points.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morgan and daughter, Miss Eva, of Woodrow were guests of Mrs. Fred Davis Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Atkinson are occupying Hon. W. T. Lee's residence on Walnut street for the winter months.

Mrs. S. R. Crockett who has been visiting relatives in Kentucky for the past several weeks, has returned to her home.

Mrs. T. B. Price and daughters, Misses Winnie and Florence, spent last week-end with friends in Spartanburg.

Miss Louise McFadyen who has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. J. L. Elwood, in Detroit, has returned to her home.

Rev. C. T. Tew returned to his home Monday after a visit of several days with relatives and friends in Durham and Raleigh.

Mrs. Stine and son Marshal of Charlotte are guests of Mrs. O. T. Alexander on Haywood street for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Starkey, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Dennet of Canton were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Garrison Thanksgiving.

Mrs. McD. Adams returned to her home Sunday afternoon after a month's visit with her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Smith, in Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Logan, Jr. left Sunday for a month's visit with Mrs. Logan's sister, Mrs. Robert Osborne, in West Palm Beach, Fla.

Mrs. George Ward and two children, Mary Adams and Caroline, spent last week-end in Greensboro with Mrs. Ward's sister Mrs. W. W. Smith.

Miss Alice Harrold who teaches in the Forest City schools spent several days last week with her mother Mrs. E. S. Harrold, on Haywood street.

Mrs. J. R. Thomas and Miss Sara Thomas were Asheville visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Lowry Lee and son spent several days as guests of Mrs. Lee's sister in Knoxville.

Misses Hettie Nichols, Gussie Martin and Minnie Burgin spent Thanksgiving in Asheville.

Mr. Jack Wright, who recently joined the navy, is spending several days with his parents.

Miss Jane Coward of Sylva spent several days with Mrs. Sarah Cory on Boundry street last week.

Prof. A. E. Mercer, principal of the Lake Junaluska school, spent last week-end in Boone, N. C.

Mrs. M. E. Shell of Lenoir spent last week-end with her son Dr. Charles Shell, on Boundry street.

Mrs. W. B. Corzine of Jonathan's Creek is visiting her mother, Mrs. Asbury Howell for several days.

Mrs. Annie Lee Gibbs of Mill Springs, was the week-end guest of Mrs. C. M. Dicus on church street.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Pressley and daughter, Clara, spent Thanksgiving in Asheville with Mrs. M. F. Glenn.

Mrs. Bryan Medford and young daughter, Frances Louise, were guests of Mrs. Asbury Howell Thanksgiving.

Col. William Evans of Sebring, Fla. is spending several days with Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Mangum on Haywood street.

Miss "Baby Sister" Mock has recovered from a several months illness and will be able to return to school next week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rose have returned from Charlotte where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Rose's sister, Miss Edna Alexander.

Mr. Robert Underwood returned to his home from Asheville Monday afternoon and will be with his daughter Mrs. J. S. Jones, on Pigeon street.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Howell and son, Mark Eugene, of Jonathan's Creek were guests of Mr. Howell's parents Mr. and Mrs. Asbury Howell for the week-end.

Miss Lillian Burgin, who is a student at the Cullowhee Normal, is spending several days with her mother, Mrs. F. A. Burgin, who has been critically ill.

Miss Janet Quinlan who is a senior at Randolph-Macon this year, joined her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Quinlan, at Chapel Hill and enjoyed the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Shulhofer left Wednesday morning for Charlotte where they were called on account of the death of Mrs. Shulhofer's brother-in-law, Mr. Garrison.

Mrs. R. H. Mitchell, Mrs. Craig of Memphis, Misses Dorothy Thomas and Janie Love Mitchell attended George White's Scandals at the auditorium in Asheville Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Alby and daughter who have been residing in Waynesville for the past several months have moved to Sylva where they will make their permanent home.

Mrs. E. A. Cox of Mountain City, Tennessee and Mrs. R. A. Hale of White Pines, Tenn. are guests of their brother, Mr. M. T. McCracken for several days at his home on Hazel street.

Miss Joscelyn McDowell who is a teacher in the Senior High School of Raleigh returned to that city Sunday afternoon after spending the week-end with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. and Mrs. C. H. McDowell.

Miss Julia Tucker spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. P. W. Tucker, and had as her guests Miss Helen Meyers of Concord and Miss Tennie Vaughn of Willis, Va. Miss Tucker and her guests are teaching in Oak Hill this year.

Mrs. S. H. Keller returned Monday afternoon from her home in Norlina where she was called on account of the illness and death of her sister Mrs. Keller spent several days in Alberta, Virginia before returning to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Shoolbred left last week for Baltimore where they will visit their daughters, Mrs. R. E. Wood and Mrs. Walter Taylor, Jr., for a month. Before returning to their home here Mr. and Mrs. Shoolbred will visit relatives in Tennessee.

Dr. Lewis Akers, President of Asbury college in Willmore, Kentucky returned to his home Monday, after visiting his uncle, Prof. E. J. Robeson on Love Lane. Dr. Akers gave a special address Sunday morning in the Methodist church before a large congregation. He is a very forceful and interesting speaker and Waynesville was very fortunate in securing him for this occasion.

MR. WOOLSEY'S NEW HOME.

Two story brick veneered bungalow, fronting South on Central Avenue, Waynesville, N. C., lot 50x110. Living room, dining room and library connected with French doors, large kitchen, with handsome cabinet, double kitchen sink, with three compartments for pots pans, etc., all white enamel. One back bed chamber, three bed rooms up stairs, with four extra large store rooms with windows, can be used for spare bed rooms in a pinch. Two handsome bath rooms with medicine cabinet with white enamel and white tile wainscoting four feet high, beautiful hardwood floors, up-to-date and beautiful electric fixtures with switches. Servants room down stairs, basement for another. Handsome hardware, glass knobs, latest improved vapor heat, handsome rock garage, 19x20, can easily be made double the size. Handsome rock mantels, rubble random hearths, stone and front porch one pair weight iron andiroz, crane and pot.

Large portable grate for library. Location, within one block of the postoffice, public garage, drug store department store, Methodist and Episcopal churches.

Commanding a magnificent view of Rocky Knob, Eagles Nest, Junaluska Mountain, Platt's Balsam and Jones' Knob on the West. Old Bald, Lickstone, Round Knob and Balsam Gap on the South, and Pigeon Gap on the East. Beautiful view on the Smoky Mountains and numerous peaks on the North.

Local neighborhood, rich soil, the home of the apple, splendid water, wonderful climate.

This is known as "Waynesville the Beautiful," the highest railroad town East of the Rockies.

Splendid schools in up-to-date brick buildings and beautiful churches and ideal homes.

The kitchen cabinet is very attractive with two bins for meal and flour, broad shelf for making bread sandwiches, etc., shelves above enclosed in glass for crockery. Built by Minthorne Woolsey of Waynesville and Miami Beach.

MOWDY-McLEAN.

Miss Elizabeth McLean was married to Mr. Leslie Mowdy of Oklahoma November 22.

Mrs. Mowdy is the lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McLean. She is a very attractive and popular young lady, was a member of Waynesville's young social set. She received her education in the Waynesville schools and continued her studies at Davenport in Lenoir.

Mrs. Mowdy was visiting her cousins in Oklahoma when the marriage took place.

Mr. Mowdy is a popular young business man in Okmulgee, where the young couple will make their future home.

"ARE YOU COLD?"—Spend the summer this winter in Sarasota. Take your coal money and buy a lot in Woodland Homes. Inside city limits. Improvements, price $400 up. $50 cash, $15 monthly. First National Bank, Trustee. Write or wire for reservations. Foster & Matthews, owners and developers, 210 Central Ave., Sarasota, Fla. Dec 24c

Christmas merchandise for all the family at C. E. Ray & Sons. 1t

BALSAM NEWS.

Mrs. A. C. Bryson was called to Canton Tuesday of last week on account of the illness of her father, Mr. Hall. He passed away in a few hours after her arrival. He was a Confederate veteran. We extend sincere sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Miss Bonnie Barnes and Mr. Elbert Reece were married in Sylva, Saturday noon, at the home of Esq. Rorer Painter, he officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Will Reed, step-father and mother of the groom and Miss Evie Reece, sister of the groom, accompanied them to Sylva and witnessed the ceremony. They were given a reception that night at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ellen Barnes. A sumptuous supper had been prepared to which a large number of friends and relatives were invited. Music and games were enjoyed until a late hour. Later the bridal couple were given a serenade.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Lee, Jr. attended the marriage of Mrs. Lee's sister, Miss Mabel Williams, to Mr. Stanley Weaver, which took place at the home of the bride in Waynesville Thanksgiving Day.

Rev. Wm. Pruitt of Hazelwood preached two splendid sermons in the Baptist church Thanksgiving Day.

Misses Myrtle Lindsey and Hannah Warren were week-end visitors here from Asheville.

A most enjoyable Thanksgiving entertainment and box supper were given at the public school house Friday night. The proceeds, which amounted to $36.35, will be used for the benefit of the school. Miss Katie Kenney won the cake which was voted to the prettiest girl.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Mart Hoyle, Nov. 9th, a nine pound girl, Alice Ivaloe. This is Mr. Hoyle's 16th child and he is a young looking man yet.

Mr. Dick Queen of Dillsboro was in Balsam Friday and Sunday.

Mr. Charles Penland and family of Clyde spent Sunday of last week with Mrs. R. J. Bryson and Mrs. J. J. Glantz.

CLASS PARTY.

Mr. Charles Russel was hostess to the seventh grade and several additional guests at his home on East street Saturday night.

Games were enjoyed throughout the evening after which delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Lola Davis, Josephine Cade, Elizabeth Henry, Gladys Justice, Margaret Kuykendall, Louise Francis, Opal Ferguson, Johnnie Russell, Messrs. Jimmy Atkins, Bob Alley, Kelly Breeding, O. L. Briggs, Jr., Mack Miller, Bud Francis, T. L. Bramlett, Jr., Albert Harris and James Davis.

REV. AND MRS. FRANK SILER.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank Siler of Lake Junaluska entertained twenty-two of their friends with a Thanksgiving dinner party at the Miller House Thursday. The dining hall was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums and potted plants.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Price, Miss Florence Price, Jack Price, Mr. and Mrs. H. Gibson, Carolyn Gibson, Mr. Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Stentz, J. D. Stentz, Jr., George Stuart Stentz, David Stentz, Jane Stentz, Mary Stuart Stentz, and Miss Mary Bowles.

LITTLE MISS BAND HOSTESS.

Little Miss Lorraine Band entertained several of her young friends with a party honoring her seventh birthday the 24th of November. During the afternoon many games and contests were enjoyed. Miss Gladys Dicus was winner of the Turkey contest, when she pinned the grain of corn nearest the turkey's mouth. Miss Dicus' prize was a basket filled with candy.

Later in the afternoon the children were invited in the dining hall when they were served with ice cream, cake and candy. Th yellow and white motif predominated in the decorations and refreshments. The table was lovely with the birthday cake and seven yellow candles. At each plate were yellow baskets filled with yellow and white mints and candy, dressed as dolls in yellow and white paper, further carrying out the yellow and white color scheme.

These enjoying little Miss Band's party were: Martha and Hilda Way, Gladys Dicus, Martha Dicus, Caroline Ward, Josephine Chase, Ruth Green, Mary Davis, Mary and Catherine Palmer, Mary Penland McCracken, Iris Buckner, and Ernest Withers, Jr., James Dicus, Eli McGee, Jr., Marcus Rose and Clarence Mobley.

Lost—On or about 18th of Nov. lacework gold bar pin, with five carat yellow topaz stone. Five dollars reward for return to Mrs. R. L. Allen, 920 Main street. Dec 10 pd.

Inspect our lines of Xmas merchandise. We are glad to show you. C. E. Ray & Sons. 1t

GRANITOID
Floor Enamel
Put it on today.
Walk on it tomorrow
Why bother with old, unsightly floors, when a few minutes brushing with Granitoid will make them smooth and beautiful.

HYAAT & COMPANY.

Make Your Meals A Triumph!

The holidays are here and big feasts are scheduled soon! Hearty appetites and critical tastes will be seated around your table! But don't worry!

It is so easy to make every meal a triumph when you choose your foods from our complete stocks of quality brands, because they are always dependable, pure and fresh. And our prices are always inducement to the thrifty buyer.

L. A. White - Grocery Company.
Prompt Delivery Service
Phone 195-J Waynesville, N. C.

The Paris

All Winter Goods Reduced To Make Room For Our Holiday Goods

20c Heavy Domestic 14c yard

25c Outing 15c yard

$1.50 Sweaters $1.00

$1.50 to $1.98 Childrens Shoes $1.00

32 inch Gingham 15c yard

$10.00 and $15.00 Coat Suits $4.98

$10.00 Coat $5.00

$15.00 Coat $10.00

$20.00 Coat $15.00

$15.00 Silk Dresses Long Sleeves $10.00

$20.00 Silk Dresses Long Sleeves $15.00

All Winter Millinery at Half Price

Do your Christmas Shopping Early, before the big rush. Only 18 more shopping days until Christmas.