THE WAYNESVILLE MOUNTAINEER

Mrs. C. W. Allen, 76,

Buried In Jackson

Daughter, Mrs. E. C. Moody Here

Tuesday morning, June 20. at the

me of her daughter Mrs. E. C.

Moody Mrs. Anne Angel Allen died

Mrs. Allen was born May 22, 1857, in Jackson County. She was the daughter of Marvel Lewis Angel and 18:00, at the home of her parents in Jac'son County, she was married to Mr. Carey Walton Allen a son of David Jasper Allen and Sarah Lenoir Allen, also of Jackson County.

Most of her happy married life wa, spent at their home "Tip Top" located on the farm near Sylva. They en shrined in their home the true Amer can ideals of plain living, high thinking hospitality, and loyalty to the Bible.

Mrs. Allen was an active member of the First Methodist Church of Sylva for nearly fifty years. She was ctive in the B. H. Cathey Chapter 6

he U. D. C. She and her husband ivel to see their eight children hap-

ilv murried and comfortably settled

n homes of their own, and all of them loyal to the fine heritage of a

The funeral party that left Way-newlile early Wednesday morning

INAUGURATE NEW

SPEED SERVICE

AIR

good name.

after an illness of several weeks.

THURSDAY, JUNE 29, 19

Proud Mother: I think Harold

more like his father every day Neighbor: Really? And hi done nothing to prevent it?

The Employee: I came to b could raise my salary. The Boss: This isn't pay

The employee: I know hought I would speak about a The Boss: Go back to wo don't worry. I've managed to every week so far, haven't I

As the train pulled into a traveling man stuck his

of the window, and calling

"Here sonny bring m

wich, and here's another

Just as the train started to the boy returned, munching

wich, and handed the man a

"Here's your dime Mister

"No," said the salesgiri

standing near, said:

one for yourself."

shouted:

had one.

Honor Mayor

"Got any thing snappy to bands?" asked the boy from Vivian Graham, favorite grandaughter of the late Mayor Anton J. statack of Chicago, planting an "but we've got something Anton Cermack" rosebush in the gar, catchy in fly-paper."-Ex.

Conductor (helping stout car: "Yer should take yeast, ter 'elp yer rise better." Stout lady: "Take some lad and then yer'd be better.

AUTOMOBILES INCREAS A. J. Maxwell, commissione The pastor of the revenue, said there was a con ullsform. Those in charge of the How Your Skin Reveales Ten wer, were: Messrs, William Curtisment, Health and Emotional 1 Interneth media Reanie Tehra says it from your favorite newsde

> DR. O. N. DONNAHOF PROCTOLOGIST

Specializing in the non-su office treatment of rectal d 504 Public Service Bldg PHONE 1111 ASHEVILLE and Judge 1 re-lience. Thursday found please return former and received reward

EXPERIENCED Result desires position ille of Conton. Be IStone 145;

Livestock Yard At Asheville Has $200 Robins Reward Over $4,390 Sale Curl Fisher Elegenredd Whitten

Tomorrow, Haywood

Next Sale Is Scheduled For Raymond Robins last November, after welfare work in the county. the famous dry leader had myster. That fact has been brought to our ri usly disappeared from Washington.

While Hazelwood

Among the most favorable sales at e market opening were lambs with

Fat hogs, $4.85 per 100 pounds;

Henry on page sile of per the statement was made that had named him as superintendent .

blie speed king.

ion adjoining the Horticultural Build. ing at A Century of Progress.

met by an unusually large as semblage of friends and relatives at the First Methodist Church in Sylva where the funeral service was held at ten olelock. church. Rev. Wolfe, was assisted by Rev. Mr. Murray, pastor of the Bap-tis: Church, and by Rev. W. Reid, The pallbearers were Messrs, Gil-the registration has been higher or Mondy. Truman Mondy, Kenyon for the same period last year foody Dick Wilson, of Sylva; Joe said. avie, of Beta; and Raph Tatham, of

Thomas Wilson, John Wilson Thomas bility. A Distinguished Sper-helly and John Parts, and Misser Points Out That No Two Skins instrument Wilson, Let e Wilson Alike in The American Weekly Marge Wilson Mary Hall, Neran Magazine Distributed With New Partse, and Science and Kyster, and Kyster, and Science and the who she is about newsboy

Mark Allen and Mrs. E. C. Moody Waynesenber N. C.; Mrs. C. F part, of Can on N. C.: Mys. R. neet, of Atlanta Gal; Mrs. H. meet, of Murphy N. C.; and 191, T. Allen and Lewis J hin. Orugati i Walfe

the nt

BARNEY Oldneid, world famous

Men Make Sales

The fine grazing lands of Western North Carolina have become potential sources of new wealth for the owners as a result of the establish-ment during the past week of the Asheville Livestock Yards with fa-North Carolina. Sun Shines Here cilities for handling, grading and selling livestock of all kinds,

The market which has been munch The market which has been numericated by a group of Western North Carolinn and Eastorn Tennessee stockmen headed by R. R. Ramsey, of Madison county, officially opened on Friday, June 23 in Asheville, with sales which disposed of 725 head of stock for $4.391.71 in cash. The next sale is scheduled for

The next sale is scheduled for Friday June 50, and Mr. Ramsey and his associates are arging all farmers and livestock growers to let them know in advance the number of head Waynesville players went call to the Waynesville players went call to the value of the the misleading market If an accurate survey of the stock to be sold is obtained in advance it is much easier to get buyers lutte sun. from some of the more distant markets to come to Asheville for the sales, Transylvania county agriculture with a resultan; strengthing in the eacher.

prices paid. This is the lamb and yeal season in that are being sold are not first-class livestock. This fall when the better 100 pounds; No. 2 grade, 87 per beef cattle are offered the mineter 100 pounds; thirds. Sci 90 Western North Carolina Mr. Ramsey this class of livestock is expected to and real commons. $4 per 100 pounds. soar

At the present time premium prices are being paid for calves and lambs No. 2 grade, $4 per 100 pounds; commons. $2.30 per 100 pounds. of good quality and many farmers who did not attend the market opening have indicated their intention of choice heifers. $4 per 100 pounds; at beef cows, $2 to $3 per 100 pounds; shipping several truckloads for the sales on June 30.

The management of the market $1.75 to $2:65 per 100 pounds. plans to hold sales every Friday for Farmers from all sections of Westall animals except horses and mules. Later. according to present plans, ern North Carolina were present for Later. according to present plans, the market opening which leaders the horse and mule market will be say marks the beginning of a new held each Monday. era in livestock raising for this

Among the Western North Carolina mountain region. and East Tennessee agricultural The market has the endorsement leaders who assisted in the market opening were: J.C. Powell. Greene state extension agents the United County, Tennessee. agent; T. Lenoir Gwyn, Haywbod county cattleman; States department of agriculture and Earle Brintnall, Madison county farm plan.

agent; L. Dale Thrash. Buncombe county agent; James Rush. Greeneville. Tenn., cattleman and auctioneer; Arthur W. Whitehurst, cashier of the Citizens Bank of Marshall; S. J. A. C. Walker, of Clyde. Kirby, Yancey and Avery county agent; Walter Wiggins Graham conty agent; D. G. Allison. Clay county agent; and J. A. Glazener, Tennessee.

was warded two hundred dollars by lished that Mr. Henry was named by the Robins family last week. a Robins family last week. the commissioners but at a joint Carl said he was going to use the meeting of the school board and the money to get an education and become commissioners. This fact was not doctor and practice in Western given to this paper until after pubination.

> We are glass to make the correction These present at the meeting were Countiestoner, W. A. Hyatt chair-man, Frank Days, and F. B. Rick-won. The school board R. T. Merr chairman H. A. Osborne and

The Sylva and Waynesvill, tennis cams were scheduled to place or the The day before Hazelwood had is shower while Waynesville enjoyed the and printed the story accordingly. and printed the story accordingly. We apologize to all those offended by the error.

TO SPEND TIME IN THE CEMETERY THEY ROBBED

Last week a judge in High Point sentenced four young men to spend Other prices were: calves-No. 1 me night alone in the cometery in olce veal, $5.20 per 100 pounds; which they had attempted to open a grave. The boys were unsuccessful in opening the grave but were not successful in escaping the sentence. The boys are to spend the time lone in the cemetery from 10 o'clock ch cows, $20 to 30 each; and bulls, at night until 4:30 the next morning.

PENNY IS GLUED TO LETTER WITH STAMP

This three-cent stamp business is in the opinion of A. H. Markowsky, postoffice dispatcher of San Bents, and approval of the farm agents, the Texas a nuisance. He handled a letter with a two-cent stamp in the usual place, but alongside was a penny. the regional council of the 5-10 Year glued to the paper.

Among the farmers who sold stock Japanese Young Men and Girls at the opening of the market were: Leaping to Death in the Seething Lenoir Gwyn and John Hipps, and Crater of the Mihara Volcano. Read About the Astonishing Epidemic of Associated with Mr. Ramsey in the Suicides in The American Weekly, the

and the state of the second state of the prominent passenger on the first regular passenger plane making the distance between New York and Chicago in 5 nours l'icture
shows Oldfield at Newark Airport
sating a World's Fair Sandwich.
served to passengers of the airline.
just before hopping off for the Winds City

Windy City. World's Fair Sandwich? It's made of a half cup of chopped bacon blended with two tenspoons of mayonnaise and served on toasted or untoasted bread. United Air Line stewards say it goes great with coffee, milk or beer.

Whether shopping or visiting you will always find the homelike atmosphere here and courteous service to your liking. . . . and the coffee shop appetizing meals.

Asheville-Biltmore HOTEL

Market at Spruce

For Sale

1500 acres of excellent farming, trucking and grazing land in one boundary in Ashe County, N. C. for sale to close an estate. Unusually fine mountain land. Altitude about 2500 feet. Confidenparties. Good roads, schools and tial price and terms to interested churches convenient to property. CHAS. H. COWLES, Executor, Wilkesboro, N. C.

Big Money Savers for Thur. Fri. Sat.

