

Legislature Observations

—by— ORAL L. YATES

After the most strenuous week the General Assembly has spent in session...

272, that was passed by the senate Monday night and has already become a law...

The house finally passed the revenue and appropriations bill and sent them across the hall to the senate...

Another bill of state wide importance that has passed the senate this week and was sent across to the house...

County Superintendent of Education, Jack Messer, was in Raleigh this week shaking hands like a veteran politician...

STOLEN CARS FOR SALE

I have now in my possession two Chevrolet automobiles that were abandoned in East Fork Township about the 11th of March...

I will, at noon, on Saturday, April 20, 1935, sell at public outcry at the court house door...

This the 27th day of March, 1935. THOMAS ROWLEY PLESS, Deputy Sheriff, East Fork Township, Cruso, N. C.

ELECTION NOTICE

At a meeting of the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the Town of Waynesville, held at the Mayor's office in the town of Waynesville, on the nineteenth day of March, 1935, it was ordered:

That pursuant to statute, an election be held at the usual voting place, to-wit, at the court house in the Town of Waynesville, for the election of a Mayor and three Aldermen for the Town of Waynesville, on Tuesday following the first Monday in May, 1935...

It is further ordered that said Registrar proceed to open the books for the registration of voters, as provided by law, and that said Registrar and judges conduct and hold said election on the day hereinafter set forth, as provided by law.

This the 23rd day of March, 1935. HEDWIG A. LOVE, Town Clerk.

ALONG THE SKYLINE

—With the Rambler—

Seen and heard here and there... Understand a little caddy about eight years old, found a certain gentleman's diamond ring which had been lost on the golf course the other day...

home for the spring holidays reminds me of what someone said about what "Dad" gets out of college. He puts in his dough and in four years it comes out college bred.

So far as Waynesville was concerned the picture "Bright Eyes" starred Freddy Crawford. Of course Shirley Temple played in it too.

Oh, well, whirldaysay we all go out and look for a diamond ring!

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE

On Monday, April 29th, 1935, at eleven o'clock, A. M., at the court house door in the town of Waynesville, Haywood County, North Carolina, I will sell at public outcry, to the highest bidder for cash, the following lands and premises:

BEING the same tract of land conveyed to the said J. B. James by G. M. Fish and wife, by deed dated the 27th day of April, 1922, and duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Haywood County, N. C., in Book of Deeds No. 61, page 320, to which reference is hereby made for a complete description of said property.

Also being the same property this day conveyed to the said J. P. Hawkins by J. B. James.

Sale made pursuant to the power of sale contained in that certain deed of trust executed by J. P. Hawkins, dated May 16th, 1922, and recorded in Book 8, at page 22, Record of Deeds of Trust of Haywood County. This 30th day of March, 1935. GEO. H. WARD, Trustee.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE

On Monday, April 29th, 1935, at eleven o'clock, A. M., at the court house door in the town of Waynesville, in Haywood County, North Carolina, I will sell at public outcry, to the highest bidder for cash, the following lands and premises:

Being lots Nos. 13, 14, 25 and 26 of the J. P. Hawkins land, in the town of Clyde, as per map and survey made by J. R. Reagan, Engineer, which said map is of record in the office of the Register of Deeds of Haywood County, in Book of Maps "B" Index "E," and is hereby referred to for a full and complete record of said lots in metes and bounds.

Sale made pursuant to the power of sale conferred upon me by virtue of that certain deed of trust executed by W. G. Ford, dated August 7th, 1923, and recorded in Book 10, at page 108, Record of Deeds of Trust of Haywood County, N. C. This 24th day of March, 1935. J. R. MORGAN, Trustee.

NOTICE OF SALE

NORTH CAROLINA, HAYWOOD COUNTY.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned trustee will sell at public sale to the last and highest bidder for cash, on the 30th day of March, 1935, at 12 o'clock noon, at the court house door, in the Town of Waynesville, the following described lands and premises, lying and being on the waters of Jonathan's Creek in Jonathan's Creek Township, and known as part of the old Boyd farm of which F. A. M. Boyd, deceased, formerly owned, and being more particularly described as follows:

ALL THAT CERTAIN PIECE, parcel or tract of land containing 181 acres, more or less, situate, lying and being on the Waynesville Road, leading to Catalochee and White Oak Townships and about nine miles from the Town of Waynesville, in Jonathan's Creek Township, Haywood County, North Carolina, having such shapes, metes, courses and distances as will more fully appear by reference to a plat thereof, made by C. D. Medford, Surveyor, June 20th, 1918, on file with Federal Land Bank of Columbia, S. C., and being bounded on the North by the lands of Marshall Messer and C. M. Moody, on the East by Jonathan's Creek, on the South by the lands of

R. T. Boyd, U. H. Ferguson and W. H. Nelson, and on the West by the lands of C. M. Rose and Marshall Messer, this being a part of the land allotted to J. R. Boyd, Jr., by the Commissioners, appointed to divide the lands of F. A. M. Boyd, Deceased, between the said J. R. Boyd, Jr., and Fannie L. Welch and Sarah Boyd, widow of F. A. M. Boyd, and the said petition report of Commissioners, and the decree confirming the Commissioners' report is recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Haywood County, North Carolina, in Book 4, pages 10 to 29 of Special Proceedings, and also being all the land conveyed to J. R. Boyd, Jr., by Fannie L. Welch and husband, J. C. Welch, by deed dated June the 12th, 1913, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Haywood County in Book 40, page 44. The land described in the deed from Fannie L. Welch and husband to J. R. Boyd, Jr., is a part of the land that the said Fannie L. Welch received by the partition proceedings above referred to. All of said land being a part of the old Boyd Home Place, and being all the land owned by the said J. R. Boyd, Jr.

Sale is made under and by virtue of power of sale contained in that certain deed of trust bearing date of the 21st day of January, 1931, executed by James R. Boyd, Jr., and wife, Jimmie Boyd, and Sarah Boyd, widow, to William T. Hannah, trustee, for Jarvis L. Palmer, the said deed of trust being recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Haywood County, in Book of Deeds of Trust 30 at page 119, et seq., which book and pages reference is hereby made. Default having been made in the payment of the indebtedness secured by the said deed of trust, as the rein provided, and demand having been made upon the undersigned trustee by the holder of the said indebtedness, as therein set out, that sale of said lands be had under the power of sale contained in said deed of trust.

The 28th day of February, 1935. WILLIAM T. HANNAH, Trustee.

When You See This Trademark on a Bag of Tobacco Fertilizer

YOU know that back of it is a reputation gained by fifty years' close study of tobacco plant food requirements. Why take a chance and trust your tobacco to anything less than Royster's—remembering that for a generation Royster has made a specialty of Tobacco Fertilizer, studying its plant food requirements from the time the seed are planted in the bed until the crop is harvested.
