WEDDING TAKES PLACE AT CLYDE SUNDAY AFTERNOON
 Marked by impressiveness was the marriage of Miss Geraldine Mooney, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mooney to Mr. Walter Cathey, which was solemnized on Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents in Clyde. The Rev. Leftwich of the Methodist church of Clyde pronounced the marriage vows. Prior to the ceremony Miss Frances Mease, of Canton, accompanied by Mrs. J. F. Pate, sang two songs.

Miss Mary John Watson, of Sanford, was the maid of honor. She wore a becoming gown of pink taffeta and carried tallismen roses. Bridesmaids were: Miss Emily Smathers, Miss Annette Chambers, Miss Sybil Anderson, Miss Mary Kate Penland, Miss Catherine Collins, Miss Jeanette Chambers, Miss Lois Haynes, Miss Kitty Sentelle, and Miss Linda Haynes, all of Clyde, and Miss Dorothy White, of Norfolk, Va. They wore smart models in pastel shades and carried spring flowers. Little Miss Virginia Medford, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Medford, attended as the flower girl and Master Frank Pate, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Pate, was the ring bearer.

The bride's gown was of heavy white satin and was fashioned on becoming lines. Her only ornament was a ruby brooch which had been handed down from her great, great grandmother. Her bouquet was of calla lilies.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held, with Mrs. Jewel Jones and Mrs. J. C. Haynes assisting the family and the bridal party in receiving.

The bride is a popular member of the younger set of Clyde. After graduating from the Clyde High School, she attended the Virginia State Teachers College at Fredericksburg, Va., and for the past year has been identified with the Clyde schools.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Cathey. After finishing the Clyde High School he attended the North Carolina State College from which he was graduated in chemical engineering. Since 1932 he has been a chemical engineer in the laboratory of the Champion Fibre Company. He is a member of the Tau Beta Pi fraternity.

The couple left by motor for a fortnight's trip to Florida, and upon their return will make their home for the present with the bride's parents in Clyde.
