

MR. and MRS. FRANK SMATHERS, JR.

(Courtesy, The Miami Herald)

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smathers, Jr., whose marriage took place on March 27th at the Miami Beach Community Church. The groom is the son of Judge and Mrs. Smathers of Waynesville and Miami.

Mrs. James W. Killian attended a bridge party in Asheville which was given on Wednesday afternoon at the George Vanderbilt Hotel, with Mrs. Frank Laycock as hostess. Six tables were in play.

DR. AND MRS. J. F. ABEL WILL LEAVE FOR PINEHURST Sunday by motor where they will meet with the members of the Pinehurst Medical Society.

Have you tasted this delicious NEW "TROPICAL" FLAVOR?

Southern Dairies COCOANUT

ICE CREAM

Made Under the Scaltest System of Laboratory Protection

Clothing Surprises

Daily we are receiving new merchandise from the style centers of the world.

Every package excites our curiosity. Every garment is significant with interest. Each article has been chosen as appealing particularly to our customers.

Get The Visiting Habit

Get the visiting habit but don't just idle around. Every time you are up town, make it a point to visit our Ready-To-Wear Department.

REDUCTIONS ON Coats and Coat Suits

Spring coats and coat suits, for the most part, are being sharply reduced. Value merchandise at original price, they now become bargains which will command your interest.

It Will Pay You To Look

SPORTSWEAR

This season we are specializing in sportswear more than ever. We want to meet the needs of both tourists and homefolks.

For active sport, we will feature jodhpurs, breeches, shorts, slacks, shirts, sweaters, bathing suits, shoes and hats.

For those who require tailored and lounging attire, we will have smart clothes of the "spectator" type which will give you just the right dash of informality.

Surprises in Clothing

C. E. Ray's Sons

DR. J. RUFUS McCracken TO ATTEND MEETINGS

Dr. J. Rufus McCracken left Sunday for Pinehurst where he will attend the state medical meeting. From Pinehurst Dr. McCracken will go to Monroe where he will attend a meeting of the Grand Chapter of Masons, which will be in session the same week. The doctor has been prominently identified with the state work and is a Past Grand High Priest.

Mr. and Mrs. Harden Howell have returned from Washington, D. C., where the latter went to attend the Continental Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

MUSIC CLUB HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

The Waynesville Music held the regular April meeting on Saturday afternoon in the Community Club rooms on Main street with Mrs. Lawrence Green and Miss Ida Jean Brown as associate hostesses. Spring flowers added an attractive touch to the rooms. Mrs. Hugh A. Love, president, presided.

During the business session the annual election of officers was held with the following results: President, Mrs. Hugh A. Love, vice president, J. M. Richeson, secretary, Miss Mildred Crawford, and treasurer, Miss Ida Jean Brown.

Mrs. Robert H. Stretcher gave an interesting report, in the absence of Mrs. W. L. Hardin, Jr., the delegate to the State Federation of Music Clubs which was held recently in Winston-Salem. Since certain features of the constitution of the club seemed out of date a new constitution was adopted.

Miss Margaret Stringfield had charge of the program with the subject of "The Contemporary Modern School of Music." In a paper she read prior to the presentations of the program which gave illustrations of various points she stressed, she gave an interesting outline of the trends in modern music and the changes of the past few years. She also gave brief sketches of some of the outstanding modern composers.

Those taking part on the program and their numbers were: A vocal solo, "Oh for a day," by Mrs. H. H. A. Beach, sung by Miss Mildred Crawford, accompanied by Mrs. Grover C. Wilkes; "Just Awearin' for You," by Carrie Jacobs Bond, sung by Mrs. Henry Foy, accompanied by Mrs. Grover C. Wilkes; duet "Sarf Dance," by Cecile Chominska, by Mrs. E. B. Camp and Mrs. Hugh A. Love; "My Little Pattaue," by Lillie Strickland, sung by Miss Ida Jean Brown, accompanied by Mrs. Grover Wilkes.

Special guests of the club were Mrs. J. Dale Stentz and her four children, Miss Jane, Mary, George and David. As an illustration of music in the home which is being stressed by the music federations over the country, they gave several numbers. Miss Jane Stentz sang "Heart of Gold," by Nanny and together as a quartet they sang "Old Uncle Moon," by Charles Scott and "Smilin' Through."

Mrs. W. T. Lee, Jr., Mrs. Hallet Ward, Mrs. Hugh Massie and Mrs. M. H. Bowles motored to Asheville for the day Wednesday.

Judge Felix Alley spent several days in town during the week with his family at the Alley residence on Boyd Avenue.

MRS. L. M. RICHESON HONORED AT PRESBYTERIAL

At the annual meeting of the Asheville Presbyterian which was held at Black Mountain on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week, Mrs. L. M. Richeson was elected to serve as president for the coming year. Composing the Asheville Presbytery are the twenty-four auxiliaries in the towns from Montreat to Murphy. Among others attending the meetings on the three days were Mrs. W. F. Swift, Mrs. James W. Killian, Mrs. J. C. Rose, Mrs. Chas. E. Quinlan, Mrs. Frank Battle, Mrs. Rourke, Mrs. L. J. Brown, Mrs. Leon Killian, Mrs. R. L. Prevost, and Mrs. George Walls and Mrs. Elmer Shields of Hazelwood.

MR. JAMES ATKINS TO ATTEND BANQUET AT CULLOWHEE

Mr. James Atkins, manager of Lake Junaluska will deliver an address at the Junior-Senior banquet at the Western Carolina Teachers College at Cullowhee tonight. Mr. W. E. Breece, of Brevard, chairman of the board of trustees, will also be on the program.

TO ATTEND MEDICAL MEETING TO BE HELD IN PINEHURST

Dr. and Mrs. C. N. Sisk and Mrs. Jean Dillon will leave Sunday to attend the State Medical Society meeting which is being held in Pinehurst next week. Mrs. Dillon will appear on the program of the Public Health section and will read a paper on "A well rounded public health nursing program."

Mrs. S. A. Jones, Mrs. Delos Cary and daughter, Miss Nancy Cary, have returned to Waynesville after visiting relatives in Alabama.

Mrs. Marguerite Barron is spending this week at Melrose Lodge in Tryon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wagenfeld and son, Mr. Robert Wagenfeld, spent the week-end in Atlanta.

Mrs. Edna McGee and children spent the week-end in Fairview with relatives. They were accompanied home by the former's mother, Mrs. O. D. Buckner, who has spent the past month in Fairview with her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Fite.

Miss Dollee Marsh will spend this week-end in Sylva as the guest of Miss Rachel Brown.

Mr. W. T. Lee and Mrs. Bess Lee Page left during the week for a visit in Eastern Carolina. They will visit the former's daughters, Mrs. Willis Smith, in Raleigh and Mrs. Thomas Wood in Edenton.

SENIORS GIVE PARTY IN SEVEN CLUB BUILDING

On Monday evening through the courtesy of the members of the Seven Club, who received with them the Seniors of the high school gave a party at the Seven Club. The first part of the evening was devoted to games, which were under the supervision of Mr. M. H. Bowles, Superintendent of the Waynesville Township Schools and Mr. Carleton E. Weatherby, principal of the high school.

Following the games a musical program was given, which consisted of a variety of numbers. The latter part of the evening was spent in dancing. Music was furnished by the "Skylanders."

Around fifty of the members of the graduating class were present for the delightful affair. Chaperons of the occasion were: Mrs. Will Hyatt, Miss Martha Mock, Miss Evelyn Underwood, Mr. Carleton E. Weatherby, and Mr. M. H. Bowles. During the evening an ice course was served.

Mrs. James L. Stringfield returned on Monday night after a two weeks visit to relatives in Richmond and Raleigh.

Miss S. A. Jones, who has been spending sometime at Prospect Hill since her accident in the fall, has returned to her home on Walnut street.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Grahl, who have been spending several days in this section at their former home here, are leaving for Dalton, Ga. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Grahl and children, Doris, Carol and Martha Ann.

Mrs. John Ferguson has arrived and will spend sometime as a guest at the Palmer House. Mrs. Ferguson is the wife of Captain John N. Ferguson, U. S. N., who is now in command of the "Pascaloosa," with the fleet on the Pacific Coast. Captain Ferguson is the brother of Mrs. E. J. Robeson and the son of the late Judge Garland S. Ferguson.

Rev. Paul Hardin, Jr. will go to Brevard on Friday evening where he will be the chief speaker at the Senior Junior banquet of Brevard College.

D. A. R. MEETING TO BE HELD WITH MRS. LEON KILLIAN

The regular May meeting of the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which was to have met with Mrs. J. F. Abel on Wednesday afternoon, May eight, will be held with Mrs. Leon Killian, as the former will be out of town on that date. The paper of the afternoon will be given by Mrs. Ernest J. Hyatt, on "D. A. R. Tours for Tourists."

Waywood THEATRE

Thursday and Friday, May 2-3
"The Night is Young"
with Ramon Novarro and Evelyn Laye

Saturday, May 4
"Near The Rainbow's End"
With Bob Steele

Monday and Tuesday, May 6-7
"Sequoia"
With the Star Cast, Made in the National Park

Wednesday, May 8
"Spring Tonic"
With Lew Ayres and Clarice Trevor

Thursday and Friday, May 8-10
"The Cat's Paw"
With Harold Loyd

Shows at 7:15 and 9:15
Admission 10c and 25c