

Society News

SOCIETY PAGE

Local Items

Mrs. Hilda Way Gwyn, Editor - - - Phone 137

COMMUNITY CLUB HOLDS MAY MEETING ON MONDAY

The regular May meeting of the Community Club was held on Monday afternoon in the club rooms on Main street, with the President, Mrs. M. G. Stamey, presiding. In the absence of Mrs. J. M. Long Mrs. Ben Colkitt acted as secretary.

During the period devoted to business, various reports were presented. The chairman of education, gave a report of the dress-making contest held for the pupils of the Waynesville Township High School. She stated that nine prizes were given, with two of cash and the others of dress materials, which had been generously donated by the merchants of the town.

later time as it would have to be determined by the weather. There are expected to be several entries in the contest.

The revival of the Girl Scout movement, which was sponsored at one time by the club, with Mrs. W. D. Smith as the leader, was discussed. Mrs. J. L. Stringfield stated that Mrs. Joe Limer would be the leader in the revived group reorganization.

The paper of the afternoon was given by Mrs. Will Hyatt, the subject being "What the Great Smoky Mountains National Park will mean to Western North Carolina." In a very interesting manner Mrs. Hyatt outlined the many advantages which will be given this section due to its proximity to the park. She spoke at length of the responsibilities resting with the citizenship of this section, in making the most of the opportunity for development. She told of her trip to Washington, D. C. last September with the park delegation from North Carolina. She urged that the town cooperate with every effort in the beautification program, which is now underway in the town. She spoke of the importance of better housing facilities in this section.

During the social hour tea and accessories were served by the following hostesses of the afternoon: Mrs. Frank Bell, Mrs. Jack Way, and Mrs. James L. Stringfield.

WEDDING OF INTEREST TAKES PLACE IN WASHINGTON

The following account from the Washington Post of April 25th will be of interest to friends and relatives in this section. The bride is the granddaughter of the late Judge G. S. Ferguson and niece of Mrs. E. J. Robeson.

"Miss Sally Norwood Ferguson, daughter of Judge Garland S. Ferguson, member of the Federal Trade Commission and Mrs. Ferguson, of Washington, but formerly of Greensboro, N. C., last night became the bride of Mr. William Boylan Snow, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Boylan Snow, of Raleigh, and Charlotte.

The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents on Eighteenth street when the Rev. Frederick Brown Harris officiated in the presence of the families and friends from official and resident society. The drawing room where the ceremony was performed was effectively decorated with Madonna lilies intermingled with palms and Parlenese ferns and the buffet table in the dining room had a centerpiece of lilies of the valley and Bride's roses flanked on either side with tall white tapers in handsome candelabra.

The bride who was escorted to the improvised altar and given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of heavy satin made on princess lines with a high necked bodice and long close-fitting sleeves. Her circular ivory tulle veil fell from a cap of two bands of satin to the end of a long square train and she carried a bouquet of Madonna lilies from which a shower of lilies of the valley cascaded.

Miss Lillie Howard Pollard was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Sarah Blanchard, of Hertford, N. C., Miss Mabel Uzzell, and Miss Frances Leak, of Greensboro, and Miss Elizabeth McPhail, of Rockingham and Washington. They wore sheer silk net dresses in pastel shades and carried arm bouquets of spring flowers in pastel shades.

Mr. John K. Snow, of Chapel Hill, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man and the ushers were Mr. Marior R. Cowper, of Raleigh, Mr. George Dewey Thompson, of Goldsboro, Mr. Robert Zealy, of Greensboro, and Mr. Wayne Albright, of Chapel Hill.

A reception followed the ceremony, after which the couple left for a wedding trip. The bride wore for traveling a smart blue tweed suit with a navy blue hat and accessories. They will make their home after July 1st at the Cordova Apartments in Washington. Among the out-of-town guests were Miss Isabel Ferguson, of Winston-Salem and Waynesville.

LOCAL PEOPLE ATTEND SOCIAL SERVICE CONFERENCE

Mrs. J. Dale Stentz, head of the case workers and the following case workers in the local relief office: Miss Mary E. Quinlan, Miss Edwina McDowell, and Mrs. Joe Limer, attended the two day session of the State Social Service conference which was held in Winston-Salem on Monday and Tuesday of this week.

AUXILIARY MEETING TO BE AT METHODIST CHURCH

The regular monthly meeting of the Auxiliary of the Methodist church will be held in the parlor of the church on Tuesday afternoon, May 14.

LEASE WAYSIDE LODGE

Mrs. R. H. Blackwell has leased the Wayside Lodge to Mr. and Mrs. John Carr and Miss Mary Carr, of St. Petersburg. The Carrs, who have for several years operated the "Hollander" in St. Petersburg, have had a wide experience in the hotel business and will no doubt bring a number of people to this section.

The Carrs are planning to arrive the 15th of this month. In the meantime Mrs. Blackwell is completing the many improvements she is making on the Lodge.

ALLEN FAMILY HOLD REUNION ON SUNDAY

The Allen family held their annual reunion on Sunday at the home of Mr. Jim Kelly on Hall Top. This is the 20th year that the family has gathered for a reunion, the occasion being the birthday anniversary of the late Jerry Allen. Around one hundred and fifty persons were present, many of them from the neighboring counties.

Mr. J. C. Allen, extended a welcome to the guests and blessing was given by Mr. W. D. Smith. A bounteous picnic lunch was spread on long tables under the trees on the lawn.

MRS. McELROY OBSERVES BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

On Monday evening Mrs. Lawrence McElroy assembled a group of friends at her home on Main street for a delightful affair in observance of her birthday anniversary. Pink and green was the motif used as a decorative effect. Following an evening of cards the hostess served an ice course.

Those present were: Miss Ila Greene, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Queen, Miss Eva Leatherwood, Miss Louise Moody, Mrs. Mildred McClure, Mrs. Blanche Medford, Mr. George Keller, Mr. Joe Helmick, and Mr. Ted Landgraf, of Atlanta.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mrs. Z. Paris, owner of Lula Belle Cottage at Lake Junaluska announces that the place is now open for both room and board.

MRS. O'MALLEY HONORED ON EVE OF DEPARTURE

On Tuesday evening Miss Ila Greene and Miss Eva Leatherwood entertained at the home of the former with a card party honoring Mrs. J. J. O'Malley, who leaves Friday for her home in Chicago, after spending sometime in town with relatives. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. J. L. Green in receiving the guests. For the affair a color combination of white and yellow, which was noted both in party accessories and the flower arrangements, was used with pleasing results.

The honor guest was presented with a beautifully fitted overnight bag by the hostesses and many other gifts from the guests. Following the games the hostesses served a salad

Mr. Ward Kirkpatrick and a party of friends were among those motoring to Asheville the first of the week.

Mrs. W. C. Russ spent the first part of the week in Hendersonville as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Bennett.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilson had as their guests during the week Mr. and Mrs. Robert Messer and small daughter, of Clyde. Miss Elizabeth Wilson also had as her guests a group of her friends from Clyde.

Those enjoying the party were: Mrs. Blanche Medford, Mrs. E. C. Moody, Mrs. Jim Smith, Mrs. C. F. McRorie, Mrs. R. V. Erk, Mrs. C. W. Barnes, Mrs. F. Robinson, Mrs. Ralph Ensley, Mrs. Jim Jones, Mrs. Mildred McClure, Mrs. W. A. Bradley, Mrs. L. N. Davis, Mrs. Bill Lampkin, Mrs. M. E. Davis, and Mrs. Lawrence McElroy.

Hon. Bob Squires, of Lenoir, spent several days in town during the week.

Mrs. R. N. ... spent the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. ... Griffin, Ga., has returned to ...

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. ... their guest at the home of ... street, the former sister, Mrs. C. Parry, of Clearfield, Pa.

...

Summer School Work For Waynesville Pupils

Pupils interested in doing make-up work in High school subjects and seventh grade will see Mrs. J. M. BELLETT before Monday, May 15. In the work pupils will know how to approach their problems of learning.

Southern Dairies FROZEN STRAWBERRIES

Luscious ripe berries crushed and frozen with sugar.

Make Mother Happy With a Pair of Gordon Hose

No more serviceable gift could be found than Gordon's new creation in hosiery -Knee-Flex.

We have her size... and a color for every costume.

MASSIE'S Department Store

"A GOOD PLACE TO TRADE"

We Support The Chamber of Commerce-Do You?

White and other Summer Shoes The Finest Stock In This Section

Thousands of Pairs of White Shoes

Shoes For Every Member of the Family

Prices That Mean Bigger and Better Values

Prices That You Can Afford To Pay

C. E. RAY'S SONS

Contribute to the Chamber of Commerce Both Cooperation and Funds

Read The Ads