

Society News

SOCIETY PAGE

Local Items

Mrs. Hilda Way Gwyn, Editor - - - Phone 137

MRS. KILLIAN HOSTESS TO D. A. R. CHAPTER

The Dorcas Bell Love Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held the May meeting with Mrs. Leon Killian on Wednesday afternoon.

During the business session Mrs. E. B. Camp reported that she had sent since the last meeting one bag to Crossnore and had two others nearly full to send.

Mrs. W. P. Swift reported that she had also presented the medals to the winners in the Waynesville Township High School, with the medals going to Miss Mary Willie Rotha and Lachlan Hyatt.

In behalf of Mrs. W. H. Belk, state regent, who is presenting medals to the eight girls who made the highest average in the recent Ruth Bryan Owen Citizenship contest, she gave to Miss Anne Marie Peck, who was one of the eight in the state, the handsome medal from Mrs. Belk.

The paper of the afternoon, by Mrs. Ernest J. Hyatt, was read by Mrs. Charles E. Quinlan. The subject was "D. A. R. Tours through South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Florida and Louisiana. All the most interesting historical spots and the old homes in these sections were described with full details as to how they may be reached, and a bit of the individual history of the outstanding places were described.

The regent, Mrs. Howell, who attended the recent forty-fourth Continental Congress of the D. A. R. in Washington, gave a full and impressive report of the program, accomplishments and social functions of the meeting. She also touched upon her motor trip through Virginia and her visit to Williamsburg.

Special guests of the afternoon were: Mrs. Hess, of Roanoke, Va., guest of Miss Louise Slaughter, of Canton; Mrs. Dayton Hunter, of Elizabethton, Tennessee, guest of her sister, Mrs. John N. Shoobred; Mrs. C. C. Parry, guest of her sister, Mrs. E. B. Camp; Mrs. Nesbit, Mrs. J. M. Kellett, Mrs. I. J. Brown, Mrs. J. Wilford Ray, Mrs. N. F. Lancaster, Mrs. Peck and Miss Anne Marie Peck, of Lake Junaluska.

During the social hour the hostess, assisted by Mrs. W. F. Swift and Mrs. James W. Killian, served an ice course.

Mr. Sam C. Welch, national bank examiner, who has spent the past two weeks with his aunt, Mrs. J. Howell Way, has returned to his work in Washington, D. C.

YOUNG WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO HAVE BANQUET

A banquet will be held on Wednesday night, May 22, at the Baptist church, for the Young Woman's Auxiliaries of the Haywood Association. It is desired that as many of our young women as possible attend. If there is not an organization in your church, those in authority request that some representatives be sent to attend. Miss Mary Curran, our State Young People's Leader, will be the principal speaker.

LITTLE MISS THERESA ALLEY GIVES BIRTHDAY PARTY

Miss Theresa Alley entertained a group of her young friends on Saturday afternoon at the home of her grandparents. She was assisted in receiving her guests by her mother, Mrs. Lenor Alley, and her grandmother, Mrs. W. H. Lane. A color motif of pink and white made a lovely combination for the decorative scheme, and was noted in all appointments.

The young hostess was the recipient of many lovely gifts. Following an afternoon of games, an ice course, with favors dear to children, was dispensed. The guest list included: Nancy Jones, Ellie Louise Woodall, Dorothy Martens, B. B. Medford, Elsie D. DeLennor, Mary Ann Massius, Barbara Ann Boyd, Betty Francis, Geraldine Colkitt, Mary Lee and Betty Jean Alley, Nancy Walker, Jackie Sue Mosser, Evelyn Craig, Eloise Martin, Billy Davis, Parker Gay, Jack Alley, Zeb Alley, and Thomas Ray.

JOINT HOSTESSES GIVE TREASURE HUNT

On Saturday evening Miss Corinne Wagenfeld and Miss Sarah Welch entertained with a treasure hunt starting at the home of the former. Instructions were given the guests. After the exciting hunt which took the guests to numerous places, before the treasure was found, an ice course was served at the home of Miss Wagenfeld.

Those enjoying the affair were: Miss Martha Way, Miss Haseltine Swift, Miss Emily Siler, Miss Nan Haslin, Miss Hilda Way, Miss Marjorie Murphy, Miss Iris Chafin, Miss Thoinasine Stringfield, Miss Jane Stentz, and Lachlan Hyatt, Ernest L. Withers, Jr., George Stentz, Joe Shipley, Lester Potrat, Howard Hyatt, Thad Chafin, Bill Swift, Bob Sloan, and Bob Wagenfeld.

MRS. G. C. DAVIS HOSTESS TO CIRCLE NUMBER FOUR

Circle Number 4 of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Methodist church will meet on Tuesday, May 21 at 3:30 o'clock with Mrs. Grover C. Davis. Mrs. Grant Lowe will have charge of program.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hardin and son, Mr. Wanna Hardin, of Charlotte, spent the week-end in town as the guests of Rev. and Mrs. Paul Hardin, Jr.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY HOLD MAY MEETING

The American Legion Auxiliary met at the home of the President, Mrs. E. B. Camp, Monday afternoon at 3:30, May 13th. After the usual opening ceremony the business session began.

Reports of various committees were heard. The chairman of hospital, Mrs. Geo. Platt, reported having sent each of the boys allotted to the group at Otten cigarettes and Easter Lilies for Easter. A Mother's Day contribution is to be given to pay for the carnations furnished to each man on Mother's Day.

Mrs. McGee reported having met with the committee on the beautification of the community and gave the plans of the committee to the unit. The members were asked to co-operate in any way possible in carrying out this work. The president appointed Mrs. Hurst Burgin, Mrs. Eli McGee and Mrs. M. C. Green as a committee to make plans for a Memorial Day program, May 30th. The annual poppy sale was announced by the chairman, Miss Ida Jean Brown, for Saturday, May 25th. The poppies are made by the families of the disabled veterans at Otten and proceeds from the sale go to help these veterans and their families.

The president asked that the Sunday before May 30th be observed in all of the churches as Memorial Day Sunday.

The State Convention will meet Aug. 4, 5, 6, at Fayetteville, N. C. Members of the auxiliary were urged to make plans to attend. Mrs. Hurst Burgin and Mrs. Eli McGee will be hostesses to the June meeting. There being no further business the president declared the meeting adjourned. The hostesses, Mrs. Geo. Platt and Mrs. Lonnie Bowen, served grape juice and cake during the social half hour following.

MARRIAGE OF INTEREST TAKES PLACE ON SUNDAY

Of interest to friends here was the marriage of Miss Freda Elizabeth Platt and Mr. Robert Edwards Potts which took place on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the presence of a small group of friends. Rev. W. A. Rollins, presiding elder of the Western North Carolina district of the Methodist church, performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Platt, of Canton, and has a large circle of relatives and friends in this section. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Potts, of Clarksville, Ga. He came to Waynesville in 1927 and was associated with his cousin, Mr. Felix Stovall, in the American Fruit Stand. He is now with the Food Store. Mr. and Mrs. Potts are at home to their friends on Meadow street.

WAYNESVILLE JUNIOR MUSIC STUDY CLUB

The Waynesville Junior Music Club met Wednesday morning with their counselor, Miss Grace Crocker.

Dorothy Richeson, the president, was in charge, and Lenora Mae Walker was the program chairman. Lenora Mae Walker, made a most interesting talk on Johann Sebastian Bach, and the club continued their study of church music, with different members playing favorite hymns. The following hymns were played: "Beneath the Cross of Jesus," Maker 1881, Henry Foy. "Break Thou the Bread of Life," Sherwin, 1877, Marion Morgan. "Wonderful Words of Life," Bliss, 1838-1876, Lenora Mae Walker. After the program an interesting contest took place. There were impromptu talks on "The Importance of Music Study in the Life of Every Child," with Lois Massie winning for giving the greatest number of points in her talk.

The club voted to continue its meetings through the summer, then returning to meet the second Wednesday in June.

ENGLISH CLASSES BEING HELD BY PROFESSIONAL GROUP

The Business and Professional Woman's Club conducted the first of a series of sixteen lessons in a practical English course which has been adopted by the club. The class met at the Hotel LaFaire Tuesday evening with Miss Margaret Ashton, teacher of English in the Waynesville Township High School, conducting the classes. The classes will meet hereafter on Tuesday and Friday evenings of each week at 7:45. This is a splendid course and any one interested in enrolling in the class may do so by getting in touch with Mrs. Doyle Alley, president of the local club. There were twelve young ladies present for the beginning of the course.

REV. AND MRS. HUTCHINS TO OBSERVE WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

The following invitation has been received by friends in town. Mr. Hutchins was formerly pastor of the First Methodist church here and both he and Mrs. Hutchins made many friends during their stay here: 1910 1935 Rev. and Mrs. William Lee Hutchins request the pleasure of your company on the Twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage Saturday, the eighteenth of May Central Methodist Parsonage Concord, N. C.

Mrs. Ernest L. Withers and a party of friends were Asheville visitors on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Killian, Jr. of Asheville were the guests over the week-end of Miss Nancy Killian.

MARIONETTES TO BE PRESENTED AT LONG S CHURCH

The Ladies Aid Society of Long's church will sponsor a program Friday evening, May 17th at the church, featuring Mable Cagle's Marionettes.

A beautiful miniature stage will be set up complete, with curtains and all stage properties in scale with the minute size of the dolls. These little figures were designed and made by Mrs. Cagle, and have created a sensation wherever she has presented them. This will be an evening of entertainment for both children and grown ups.

Special music will be rendered by the Revis Brothers.

Candy, cakes and pies will be for sale and free lemonade will be given with each purchase.

All proceeds will be used to buy new seats for the church. The public is cordially invited.

HAYWOOD VISITOR HONORED BY ASHEVILLE HOSTESS

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. W. R. Newsome, of Asheville, entertained with three tables of bridge in compliment to Mrs. J. L. Chappel, Jr., the former Miss Anne Davis, of Canton. Quantities of spring flowers were used to carry out the color effect of lavender and yellow. Friends of the bride who attended Weaver College were present for the shower feature of the afternoon.

Miss Margaret Upshaw, of Back Mountain, was the lucky winner of the high score prize and Miss Virginia Styles, of Asheville, cut the celebration. After a social course was served the bride opened the many lovely gifts presented by the guests.

Miss Lena Joe Ferguson, of Caryville, Tenn., is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. David M. Penland, of Pigeon Road.

HEADS OPTIMISTS

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—Halley Leavitt, insurance agent of Asheville, N. C., was elected governor of the 11th district of Optimist International, composed of clubs in Knoxville, Birmingham, Asheville and Johnson City, Tenn.

SAVOR MUST DIE

MEMPHISVILLE, Tenn.—A criminal court jury convicted Bill Lee, 23-year-old ex-savior, of murdering his aged grandmother, Mrs. Jasper Shaw, and fixed his punishment at death in the electric chair.

REMEMBER MOTHER DIONNE

CALLANDER, Ont.—A deluge of Mother's day cards and greetings has descended upon the Dionne farmhouse in honor of the world's only mother of quintuplets. To Mrs. Oliva Dionne the messages have come from all parts of Canada, the U. S. and even other countries.

$43.12 FOR EACH PERSON

WASHINGTON.—Money collected in April 30 amounted to $4,477,736,103, equivalent to $43.12 for each man, woman and child in the continental United States the treasury announced.

UNITED BY DIME LETTER

LOS ANGELES.—In a reply to a dime chain letter, Bert Johnson set his dime—and a personal letter Johnson received a letter from a friend. At the top of the letter was the name of Mrs. F. S. Hayward of Boulder, Colo., his sister whom he set track of 15 years ago. He plans to visit her soon.

POLICE, JOBLESS WAR

ST. JOHN, N. F.—Police and more than 900 unemployed men battled here Saturday as authorities attempted to force a crowd of jobless from the colonial building grounds. An unemployed spokesman and several police were injured.

Advertisement for Southern Dairies Frozen Strawberries. Includes an illustration of strawberries and a logo for Southern Dairies Ice Cream. Text: DELICIOUS BERRIES FROZEN IN THEIR OWN JUICE! Southern Dairies FROZEN STRAWBERRIES. Made Under the Sealtest System of Laboratory Protection.

Advertisement for Gordon Socks. Includes an illustration of people wearing socks. Text: Be Sure Their Socks Are GORDON'S The Sock That Is NEAT—COMFORTABLE—DURABLE— WE HAVE ALL SIZES — COLORS Insist On GORDON'S MASSIE'S Dept. Store "A GOOD PLACE TO TRADE" Support The Chamber of Commerce

Advertisement for C.E. Ray's Sons. Includes an illustration of a woman in a dress. Text: C.E. Ray's Sons. Left: Navy, brown, blue, pink, turquoise, white. 12 to 22. 7.95 Below: Navy, brown, blue, pink, turquoise, white. 12 to 40. 5.95 Only Nelly Don gives you Eyelets as Fine as These for $5.95 and $7.95 You instantly see the difference in a Nelly Don eyelet. Such clean-cut, closely stitched quality... smart exclusive patterns. Such engaging styles... perfect fit. Why they actually thrive on daily wear and weekly tubbings! That's why these new ones will sell so fast! EVERYTHING IN COTTONS