Memorial To Col. Thomas To Be Dedicated On 23rd

Final plans are being perfected for the dedication of the memorial to Col. William Thomas and the Cherokee Indians who fought with him for the cause of the Confederacy...

While the undertaking is the work of the western district of the Daughters of the Confederacy, the idea having been conceived at the 1933 district meeting, it is of state-wide historical interest...

Hon. Marshall Bell, attorney, of Murphy, will make the principal address of the occasion. The program will deal largely with the colorful history of the part the Cherokee Indians played in the War Between the States.

MOTIVES

By LEONARD A. BARRETT

Only in criminal law does motive determine the punishment for crime. If a murder is premeditated, the penalty is death. Should it have been committed by accident or without malice aforethought, the penalty may be life imprisonment...

since Jean Valjean, in Les Miserables, served 19 years as a convict slave in a French prison for stealing a loaf of brown bread. True, he stole the bread, but the motive which impelled the act was the hunger of the seven little children of his widowed sister...

In the reconstruction of our social order—and who doubts it is undergoing a very significant change?—the element of motive is bound to receive more serious consideration. The most dangerous condition in our social order today is the problem of unemployment...

The element of motive is also vital to our national recovery. Why do we want recovery? The universal answer seems to be, recovery is essential to prosperity. But why prosperity? If our motive in seeking prosperity is that we may again become extravagant and indulgent and repeat the same mistake which brought about the depression, then the return to prosperity might be open to serious question...

TO FOIL BANK CROOKS

NEW YORK.—The American Bankers Association Protective Committee has developed a plan of bank inspection to bring out exposure hazards or weak spots in respect to attacks by criminals based on its long-established, nation-wide experience in investigating bank burglaries, holdups and sneak thefts.

The inspector covers eighty leading questions and seventeen recommendations which are instructive in the prevention of such crimes. These relate to such subjects as the use of alarms and other protective equipment, also the condition of windows, doors, skylights and other entrances which have facilitated the early morning entry of bandits who kidnap bank employees from their homes during the night...
